Our Mission Statement

We, the Catholic Community of St. Pio, inspired by the Holy Spirit, celebrate the Eucharist with hope, to share our faith, love, and the Good News of Jesus Christ through outreach and fellowship.

JANUARY 9, 2022

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. - Lk 3:21-22a

(Daughters)

It is with great

Hope that you

and your families

remain in our

Lord's loving care during this

New Year.

I would like to thank those of you who pledged to the 2021 Catholic Services Appeal; I am grateful for your donations to St. Pio Parish as we strive to reach our goal of $67,563.00 (we are currently short $16,453.00).

In reviewing our 2021 CSA campaign financial report, we noticed that many of you still have an outstanding balance on your account. If you are unable to fulfill your pledge due to a change in personal circumstances, please contact me at your earliest convenience.

If this is just an oversight - please mail your payment to The Archdiocese of Detroit CSA - 12 State St, Detroit, MI 48226 - and mark it CSA 2021.

If you are still prayerfully considering contributing to this year's Catholic Services Appeal and have questions, please feel free to reach out to me at any time.

Thank you for your continued support and generosity to St. Pio Parish, together we can make a difference.

Blessings,

Selma Yaladoo, Business Manager

FAITH FORMATION

First, I would like to express my deepest appreciation to all who made all these events so successful. The generosity in this parish is astounding and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. We have had an outstanding Christmas Season! We had the Santa Breakfast, Christmas Ham Sale, Christmas Cookie Baking, Christmas Party for Young Adults, and the Christmas Pageant. I would like to recognize all that participated in the Pageant. Here are the parts of the pageant and those who portrayed them:

- Narrator: Zoe Woznak
- Mary: Elizabeth Schoof
- Joseph: Nathan Schoof
- Registrar: Devin Mailloux
- Innkeeper: Paul Thomas McCarvell
- Main Angel: Gabriella O'Connell
- Angels: Kylie Myers
- Shepherds: Ben and Samuel Martin and Adrianna Salera
- Animals: Noah Hoopingarner, Roman Hoopingarner, Avariana Smith, Evelyn Jarvis, Christopher Houston, Ally Mailloux, Brooklynn O'Connell, and Samuel Scheinpflug
- Pianist: Jacob Hart

Next week on Saturday, January 15th, High School Ministry will meet for MLK Jr. Day of Service to serve the community at bus stops donating scarves. We are meeting in the parking lot at St. Pio at 9:30 a.m.

Young Adult Ministry meets on Wednesday, January 12th at 7 p.m. in the Faith Formation Conference Room. All Young Adults ages 18-30 years are invited to attend.

NO class on Monday, January 17th for Grades K-6 due to Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday. We will resume class on Monday, January 24th.

Blessings,
Roxanne Gronkiewicz,
Faith Formation Director

Musical Notes...

Merry Christmas to my church family of St. Pio!

Today's feast of the Baptism of the Lord concludes the Christmas--Epiphany cycle. I love the following passage from today's first reading, from the prophet Isaiah:

I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice,
I have grasped you by the hand;
I formed you, and set you
as a covenant of the people,
a light for the nations,
to open the eyes of the blind,
to bring out prisoners from confinement,
and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

I have so much to be grateful for because I have seen this Gospel passage in action through the good deeds of the people of St. Pio, especially in the Music Ministry. I owe a tremendous amount of gratitude to all of the Cantors and Instrumentalists for their dedication and service to our church during the Season of Christmas. Each and everyone of you is a blessing. Thank you for all you did to make the Christmas Liturgies so beautiful! Your good deeds truly reflect your commitment to your own baptism.

May the blessings of Christmas be with all of you, now and throughout 2022!

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Thank you, to so many for the incredible work done to share our Holiday Food Baskets. We served 80 families in need of food assistance at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Many volunteers stepped in with donations, packing, shopping, delivering, and a big heart. Teamwork efforts include some old and new faces: Randy Bullis, Phil Thibideau, Carol Goucher, Nancy Levy, Doug Levy, Amelia Shereda, Al Keown, George Thibedeau, Bev Wakeford, Matthew Bullis and Kyle Burley. To the many behind the scenes helpers, your time and gifts are appreciated greatly—you are AMAZING support to Christian Service. Thank you "my go to guys" for moving, boxing, driving, lifting, and setting up; you always serve with happy hearts. We would not have achieved this great success without you!

Wishing you and your family a very Happy New Year

The Gift of Baptism

“We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ.”

-Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of knee-jerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

@LPI

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan?

PRAYER TO Padre Pio FOR HEALING

Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, obedient father, you loved the sick and infirm more than yourself because in them you saw Jesus. In the name of God you performed miracles of healing in body, soul and mind.

Your intercession with God healed the ills of past and present and strengthened people to respond with confidence to future challenges. Those who came to you regained a sense of spiritual integrity as you rekindled hope in their lives, and encouraged them to renew the spirit in their hearts.

Through the intercession of Our Heavenly Mother, may we experience your powerful assistance and be healed in our bodily and spiritual needs. Gratefully give praise and thanks to God for all His blessings.

Amen

Act of Spiritual Communion
My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Pray to St. Michael for protection against the power of evil, and to bring us closer to God.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, And the other evil spirits, who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen
