thank you

I would like to thank those of you who helped make our Christmas holiday such a meaningful and beautiful season at our Parish. Your donations to the Christmas flower fund enhanced the altar, Roxanne Gronkiewicz and all her helpers decorated the church beautifully. Tina Bullis' Giving Trees lit up the foyers and your gift cards poured in. The Ushers placed the statues with care, our Lectors, our Sacristans Larry Taylor and Maria Scribner kept the masses running smoothly. The talented Debbie Szeliga and our cantors, choir and musicians provided us with fabulous music. And the children who worked so hard and participated in the entertaining and poignant Christmas pageant deserve praise. Finally, our team leaders in the offices who seamlessly kept the parish running during this very busy time. Thank you all for your support and dedication that helped to make our church a magical Christmas experience.

*God Bless you all,
Fr. Greg*

FAITH FORMATION

As we continue our previous class schedule, we will have Martin Luther King Jr. Day off, Monday, January 17th. This is a great time to learn more about Jesus Christ and the wonderful things he does for all God's people! We also invite all students to participate in Children's Liturgy of the Word each Sunday during the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Come, Listen and Share the "Word of God" with us.

Middle School Ministry (Grades 7 & 8): Meet Sunday, January 21 in Rooms 5 & 6. Parents are invited to participate while students meet in their classrooms for formation. We continue our Encounter, Grow, Witness Program.

High School Ministry (Grades 9-12): Students will be continuing the "Theology of the Body" in the Youth Room.

Souper Bowl of Caring is coming, February 5th and 6th. The "Souper Bowl of Caring" is a national "student led charge" to collect money for those in need leading up to the Big Game on Super Bowl Sunday. Students in St. Pio Middle and High Schools create skits to raise awareness to poverty and homelessness in our own areas which are performed after Communion. Collections are done after Mass and the money collected is given to local charities. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Middle School Ministry Coordinating Team for Catechists will meet on Monday, January 24 at 6:00 p.m. in the Faith Formation Conference Room.

All grades K through 12 will be participating in "Circle of Grace" Program. This is yearly practice contributes to the protection of our young children and affirms them as beloved children of God. A letter will be sent home with day and time this one class program will take place.

Blessings,

Roxanne Gronkiewicz,
Faith Formation Director

Musical Notes...

One of the things that I enjoy most about leading music at St. Pio is discovering new music to share with you. Sometimes, it's not always the music that pulls me in, but rather it's the poetry that is the basis for the song. Such is the case for today's prelude. Today, we offer "In the Silence" by Josh Blakesley and Sarah Hart.

The message of the song is simple, yet profound:

In the silence of the heart, you speak; Lord, you speak.
To the quiet of this room, you come; Lord, you come.
In the stillness of my soul, you know; Lord, you know.

We will find God in every corner of our lives. There is comfort in knowing that He is in the silence, He is in the quiet, and He is in the stillness.

Today, as we prepare for mass, I hope that this song helps reveal God in your midst! I offer you the words of the bridge to pray on...

Silence, fall; oh I am listening.
I am listening; sing to me.
Spirit, fall; oh please stay with me.
I am listening now;
I am listening now.

Blessings to you on this cold January day!
Debi

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The Food Pantry remains busy after the Holiday Season. As the request for food continues and we begin to accept donations to our Pantry, we ask you to consider the suggestions below.

- ALL CANNED ITEMS: SOUP, CHILLI, STEW, TUNA— Pop top lids and pouches are preferred
- HOT COCOA PACKETS, TEA BAGS, COFFEE PODS
- EGGS, SALT AND PEPPER, CEREAL, SNACKS, RAMEN NOODLES, MICROWAVABLE MEALS, APPLES & BANANAS
- PAPER PRODUCTS AND TOILETRIES: bowls, cutlery, tissue, shampoo, soap, gloves, hats etc.

We serve individuals and families, including children, adults, and the elderly. We serve those who are struggling to provide nutritional meals, whether long term or due to recent struggles. Our food allows families to supplement their grocery budget with the items received at our food pantries on a monthly basis.

Thank you to our volunteers, supporters, donors, and the community members who donate food. Your support helps provide nutritional meals to families.

We Have Seen His Glory

... on this Second Sunday of Ordinary Time, the gospel story of the wedding at Cana forms the third part of a sort of Epiphany trilogy and carries the themes of these two Christmastide feasts into the green days of Ordinary Time: Manifestation and Transformation.

These three Epiphany events — the visit of the Magi, the baptism of Jesus by John, and the miracle at Cana — are, as Pope Francis has described them, “the three signs that the liturgy brings in these days in order to speak to us about the manifestation of God: God makes himself known.” As we know, the story of the Magi coming from the East reminds us that the child born in Bethlehem was born for all peoples, and the baptism of Jesus is the revelation that he is the Father’s “beloved Son.” So, then, what do we learn from the miracle at Cana? What truth is revealed in this Sunday’s gospel?

To answer this question, we have to pull back the lens, as it were, to take in a broader view of salvation history. Throughout the Old Testament, we read of how God continually called straying women and men back into right-relationship with Himself. The Hebrew Scriptures are filled with signs and stories that reveal God’s covenant-love — His relationship — with His Chosen People: the rainbow after the great flood (Genesis 9:1-17), Abraham’s star-filled sky (Gn 15), the giving of the Law to Moses (Exodus 15 and 24), and the promises made to King David and his descendants (1 Samuel 7:12-13). Each of these stories remind us that while the People of Israel violated this relationship time and again, God’s love and mercy remained constant. Even the first reading of this Sunday’s Mass reminds us of God’s abiding and merciful love: “As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so shall your God rejoice in you (Isaiah 62:5).”

...Cana marked a beginning and in the transformation of the water into wine we discover that Jesus wasn’t simply another prophet or holy man. He was God’s “Beloved” and he holds the power to transform — to recreate and renew — the elements of earth and, more importantly, the hearts, minds, and souls of his followers.

In the coming weeks of Ordinary Time, we will hear the stories of how this transforming and saving work, begun in Cana, changed the lives of Jesus’ disciples, as we’re invited to reflect on how that transforming power continues to shape us today.

Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

It Takes All Kinds...

“If every flower wanted to be a rose,” wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, “spring would lose its loveliness.”

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of “varieties of tongues” might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, “Do whatever he tells you,” her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God’s instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God’s word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

PRAYER TO Padre Pio FOR HEALING

Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, obedient father, you loved the sick and infirm more than yourself because in them you saw Jesus. In the name of God you performed miracles of healing in body, soul and mind.

Your intercession with God healed the ills of past and present and strengthened people to respond with confidence to future challenges. Those who came to you regained a sense of spiritual integrity as you rekindled hope in their lives, and encouraged them to renew the spirit in their hearts.

Through the intercession of Our Heavenly Mother, may we experience your powerful assistance and be healed in our bodily and spiritual needs. Gratefully give praise and thanks to God for all His blessings.

Amen

Act of Spiritual Communion
My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Pray to St. Michael for protection against the power of evil, and to bring us closer to God.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, And the other evil spirits, who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen
