PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Friends of St. Philip,
 In 1918, on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, the allied powers and German officials agreed to an armistice that was meant to end hostilities of the First World War, ultimately leading to a peace treaty months later. The fact that the shelling in some places continued for hours after this official cease fire, not to mention the fragility of the peace that followed, by some accounts setting the stage for the even bloodier Second World War, demonstrates how elusive our attempts at peace can be.

This past Thursday, November 11, we Americans celebrated Veterans Day in remembrance of those who have served in arms with the hopes of bringing lasting peace. That Veterans Day is also the feast of St. Martin of Tours, the patron of soldiers is more than coincidence. The selfless example of St. Martin, as a Roman officer and as a Christian in service of the poor, represents the ideal of the soldier servant, and is a model for all those who offer themselves in service of their country and their loved ones. It's not too late to thank a veteran.

St. Martin and the veterans we honor remind us too that as Christians we are all called to serve the cause of peace and the just treatment of all. We too honor our country by the service we render to the outcast, abused, and suffering, especially as the cold of winter creeps in. As Christians we also have a responsibility to give witness to that peace that only the Lord can give. The peace that followed World War One was based on the powers of this world and refused to recognize the One Who is greater than this world. It was a fragile peace that ultimately failed. Any peace which rests in this world and cannot call upon that Power beyond this world will turn to authoritarianism or the contest of rival forces. Only that peace which rests in Christ can truly last. May Christ the King bring to us that peace which never ends.
