LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

It all really boils down to a matter of the heart, and actions do speak louder than words. We cannot hide from the truth. A problem with religion is that it is possible for someone to make everything appear to be right when actually it is not. We can say all of the right prayers, perform all of the proscribed rituals, claim that we adhere to orthodox doctrines and still lead a distorted, empty and sometimes pitiful life. Only actions springing from true and deep sacrifice demonstrate true integrity. Without sacrifice, even the noblest looking actions can amount to nothing. It is no wonder, then, that the widow who contributed from her poverty received great admiration from Jesus. While it may not always appear to be the case, God has a special care and regard for those who depend upon him in times of trouble and want. Only the person who is truly poor is the only one who can see this. Because of a lack of trust, the one who has much is afraid to take a risk and sees only what they possess as their only security.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

You may recognize the name St. Frances Xavier Cabrini (1850 – 1917) as the first United States citizen to become a saint. Known for her deep trust in God, she was a courageous woman doing the work of Christ.

Her life of service began when she was first refused admission to the religious order which had educated her to be a teacher. Not one to take things face value, she instead focused her charitable work at the House of Providence Orphanage in Cadogno, Italy, and in 1877, professed vows there and took the religious habit.

When the bishop closed the orphanage in 1880, he named St. Frances Xavier Cabrini prioress of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. However, she had a dream she was determined to fulfill. Since her early childhood, she had dreamed of being a missionary in China. Pope Leo XIII, however, urged her to see the need in the west. She traveled with six of her fellow religious sisters to New York City, where they worked with the thousands of Italian immigrants residing there.

Although she experienced many disappointments during this time, she persevered. When she arrived in New York, the house intended to be her first orphanage in the United States was not available. Rather than come back to Italy and the order she oversaw, she instead found a way to establish that orphanage elsewhere — plus a few more. Throughout her life, she is known for founding 67 institutions dedicated to caring for the poor, the abandoned, the uneducated, and the sick. She died of malaria in her own Columbus Hospital in Chicago in 1917.

A Note from the Pastor...

Fr. Roy Horning

Here is a short recap of the last two Sunday's homilies. The godlessness and the great falling away from the faith experienced in the Catholic Church and Protestant denominations is a result our fallenness and the worldliness, materialism, consumerism, etc. of our times. The point was that modern technology (television, internet, social media, etc.) is saturating our waking hours with worldly values and messages that are contrary to our Catholic faith. These cultural and worldly values are having influence on all of us, especially those under 40 years of age who were inundated with this messaging during their formative years; pre-teen, teen and young adulthood. How can we, the Church, respond to this cultural crisis? First, we must raise awareness of the powerful influence of media (especially marketing and advertising) on our values and behavior. Second, how do we as believers counter this influence? I propose three things: 1) Living lives rooted in Virtue. 2) Consciously keep Jesus and the Kingdom of Heaven constantly before our eyes. 3) Remain in and with Jesus through prayer, the Sacraments, devotions, and spiritual reading.

There is no holiness without virtue. Jesus told his disciples and us, "Be holy as your heavenly Father is holy." Virtue is the foundation on which we can stay rooted in Christ. The Theological Virtues are faith, hope and charity (love) and are gifts from God for which we must pray for an increase. The Cardinal Virtues are prudence, justice, fortitude and temperance. These are the human virtues which we can increase by their practice until they become habits. Jesus is the embodiment of these virtues and taught them in his Sermon on the Mount; the Beattitudes are the virtues lived out in our daily lives. I will put an excerpt from the Catechism of the Catholic Church on a different virtue each week for our review. I encourage you to read them and reflect on them asking for insight from God on how they will help us grow in our relationship with God and our neighbor.

St. Ignatius of Loyola had one over-arching imperative for the Jesuits: Always keep Jesus before your eyes. What Ignatius meant by this was to keep Jesus on our mind throughout our waking hours. He understood that we will come to desire what is before our eyes, and that our desire will increase until the only thing that will satisfy us is to possess what we desire. Constantly keeping Jesus before our eyes will increase our desire for Him; until being with him forever in the Kingdom of Heaven becomes the whole goal of earthly lives. As our desire for Jesus grows, he will increase our capacity to receive his love. This grace will be like putting fertilizer on our flowers and garden, our whole lives will bloom and bear fruit in abundance; every relationship we have will grow and be mutually life-giving. The Kingdom of Heaven not only becomes a reward for a life lived in faith, but it also bears an abundance of life to our short time in this world.

A life lived in pursuit of Jesus begins with the basic fundamentals of the faith. We must have a disciplined and consistent life of prayer, spending time each day talking to and listening to the Lord. We will only know His voice if we spend time with Him. The Sacraments are the visible signs of the hidden reality of our salvation in Christ. The seven sacraments are the signs and instruments by which the Holy Spirit makes Jesus present to his people. We encounter Jesus in and through the sacraments. Devotions play a significant role in the lives of the saints. A common theme to their holy lives were spiritual practices that kept their minds on Jesus and the mystery of our salvation in Christ. The Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, the Stations of the Cross, Holy Hours, etc. keep us mentally and spiritually connected throughout the week to One who loves us. Spiritual reading fosters desire and instruction in the faith. The New and Old Testament are filled with the accounts of what God has done on our behalf. The wisdom and assurances of faith contained and transmitted to us in the Sacred Scripture remind us of the goodness and providence of God in our lives. The writings and lives of the Saints themselves inspire and encourage us to persevere in faith; their words and teaching help to guide our footsteps on the path of holiness.

These are perilous times for the Church. The Enemy (the flesh, the world, and the devil) has never been stronger or more filled with pride. It is pride that led to Satan's fall, and it was his seduction that led to Adam and Eve's Fall in the Garden. Humility before God and man is the appropriate response to these challenging times. These three proposals (virtue, Jesus and the Kingdom of Heaven, and lives rooted in prayer, the Sacraments, devotions and spiritual reading) set the table for the mysterious interaction of God's grace and our cooperation that is the eternal life that Jesus has promised to those who trust and believe in Him. They are his gifts to us that ultimately lead us back to Him. Let us be on our way

Holy Rosary Catholic School

We made it through round 1 of 4. Today signifies the end of the first quarter of the 2021-2022 school year. Has it been perfect...Absolutely Not! There are only a few things in life that are perfect, and the reality is that we will encounter more trials and tribulations along the way.

However, the mark of a successful first quarter is the work students have put in, the results that they have achieved, and dedication to overcoming the obstacles that we faced. The first quarter saw a somewhat normal school year, followed by a few weeks' reminder that we are still in the midst of a Pandemic. However, while families, staff and students were faced with the reality that we would indeed need to pivot to both e-Learning and Hybrid instruction, these challenges were met head on with great vigor and determination by all parties involved.

We did not survive, rather we thrived through this situation. Looking back on the past two years, in regards to e-Learning, what previously took 3 days to get organized took 24 hours or less to roll out. Plans were made, instruction was delivered, learning occurred. Like the mystery of the Trinity in which three Divine persons work as one, we too had a trinity of partnership as Teachers, students, and Parents worked together to provide the necessary learning environment for students to continue their educational journey uninterrupted. It did not come easy, as it required many sacrifices by all parties to make this a success. However, one can look to the sacrifices that Christ made and unite our struggles with his.

Thus, let us look back on the great achievements of our entire community. Let us give thanks for the sacrifices and partnership each of you parents make to provide your child with the gift of a Catholic Education. Let us be thankful for the tireless efforts of our dedicated and passionate staff who always give the entirety of themselves to their students. Let us give thanks to the flexibility and drive of our students to take on any challenge they are faced with. Lastly, let us give thanks to God for his guidance, strength, serenity and love that he shares with each of us EVERY DAY.

Onwards and Upwards to the 2nd Quarter.
Mark Callahan, Principal

Greetings from the Prayer Center!

We are in urgent need of help!!

The Prayer Center is in the process of reorganizing our Bed Ministry. Are you someone who would like to help children and parents by delivering a bed for them to sleep in? We are looking to gather delivery teams that will work together – 1 or 2 days a week or even 1 or 2 days a month. You must be able to lift mattresses, box springs, frames, dressers, night stands, or shelving units. This ministry benefits so many people (especially children). We pray you feel the same way. We also need someone to place orders at the Food Bank of Eastern Michigan and see to the pickup with a Prayer Center truck – on a Mon. or Tues. morning. Please contact St. Francis Prayer Center at 810-787-5330 to volunteer or email stfrancisflint@comcast.net. With Fr. Solanus, we thank you in advance.

The Virtues

A virtue is an habitual and firm disposition to do the good. It allows the person not only to perform good acts, but to give the best of himself. The virtuous person tends toward the good with all his sensory and spiritual powers, he pursues the good and chooses it in concrete actions.

The Human Virtues

Human virtues are firm attitudes, stable dispositions, habitual perfections of intellect and will that govern our actions, order our passions, and guide our conduct according to reason and faith. They make possible ease, self mastery, and joy in leading a morally good life. The virtuous man is he who freely practices the good. The Moral virtues are acquired by human effort. They are the fruit and seed of morally good acts; they dispose all the powers of the human being for communion with divine love.

The Cardinal Virtues

Four virtues play a pivotal role and accordingly are called "cardinal"; all the others are grouped around them. They are: prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance. "If anyone loves righteousness, [Wisdom's] labors are virtues; for she teaches temperance and prudence, justice and courage. These virtues are praised under other names in many passages of Scripture.

Please look at this space each week for more on virtues. We will begin with the Virtue of Prudence next week.
