LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

The human heart will always find itself wanting unless it finds its rest in God. Many people haven't yet figured out that pursuing purely secular ideologies and interests and side stepping their relationship with God causes them to fall short of their potential. When we seek our satisfaction, seek our strength, and establish priorities based entirely on the things of this world, we come up empty. There is never enough and we are always reaching for more. We develop distorted senses of justice, lose our moral axis, and lower our benchmarks for change, growth, and development. That is why knowing the beatitudes and God's vision they contain is so important. They remind us that our consumption, success driven lives can actually hurt and exploit others; quickly moving us away from God's idea of how things need to look. God ultimately will set things straight. We can assist in that mission now by trusting, hoping, and looking to God for our cues for how to live, set goals for ourselves and discern the best way to share this world with our brothers and sisters.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The history of St. Conrad of Piacenza is quite fascinating. A member of one of the most noble families of Piacenza, he was known for his utmost honesty. One day while out hunting with friends, he thought he saw some game in an area of brush and ordered his attendants to set fire to the brush in order to scare it out of hiding. Unfortunately, the dry brush quickly ignited, and fire started to spread. Soon, the surrounding area was engulfed in flames.

Unfortunately, a known arsonist happened to be in the same area as the fire. This man was later imprisoned, tried, and condemned to death for the damage. But on his way to his execution, St. Conrad of Piacenza, full of guilt, stopped the proceedings and confessed to the fire. To make restitution for the damages, Conrad had to sell all his belongings, which reduced him to poverty. Soon after, he decided to retire to a hermitage, where he became a hermit of the Third Order of St. Francis, and his wife entered the Order of Poor Clares.

NOTES FROM THE PASTOR...

Fr. Roy Horning

I've been reading a a little book titled Daily Readings with St. Teresa of Avila published by Templegate Publishers and can be purchased for $5.95. In it, St. Teresa shares with the reader the spiritual insights she gained about prayer, living out her vocation as a religious sister. As I read an article last month saying that half of the people who will be in churches this weekend do not pray each day, which is disconcerting for many reasons. So, knowing this and realizing that all of us want to be better at praying I thought I would just share a few of her helpful insights with all of you.

Prayer is a great blessing. “How great is the good God works in a soul when He gives it the disposition to pray in earnest, though it may not be well prepared as it to be. If that soul perseveres in spite of temptations and relapses, brought about in thousand ways by Satan, our Lord will bring it at last - I am certain of it – to the harbor of salvation. He who gives himself to prayer is in possession of a great blessing, of which many saintly men have written – I am speaking of mental prayer – glory be to God for it!”

Take God as your Friend. “In prayer there is nothing to be afraid of, but everything to hope for. Granting that someone does not advance, nor make an effort to become perfect, yet little by little he will attain to knowledge of that road that leads to heaven. If he perseveres, I hope in the mercy of God for him, seeing that no one ever took him for his friend that was not amply rewarded; for mental prayer is nothing else, in my opinion, but being on terms of friendship with God, frequently conversing in secret with Him who loves us.”

Prayer is the door. “Prayer is the door to those great graces which our Lord bestowed upon me. If this door be shut, I do not see how He can bestow them; for even if He entered into a soul to take His delight therein, and to make that soul also delight in Him, there is no way by which He can do so. If we put many hinderances in the way, and take no pains whatever to remove them, how can He come to us, and how can we have any desire that He should show us His mercies?”

Why persevere in prayer? “It is essential to the practice of prayer with a firm resolution of perseverance in it. Since we have resolved to devote to God this short space of time (which we should otherwise bestow on ourselves or our friends who would not thank us for it) let us yield it to Him with thoughts that are free and withdrawn from all else. Let fully resolve never to take it back, whatever crosses it may bring us, and in spite of all aridities” (spiritual dryness).

Prayer and the Bridegroom. “Before prayer, endeavor to realize Whose Presence you are approaching and to Whom you are about to speak, keeping in mind Whom you are addressing. If our lives were a thousand times as long as they are we should never fully understand how we ought to behave towards God, before Whom the angels tremble, Who can do all He wills, and with Whom to wish is to accomplish. Ought we not, my daughters, to rejoice in these perfections of our Bridegroom, and to learn to know Him and what our lives should be? God bless me! When a girl is going to be married she knows who her husband is to be and what are his means and position, shall not we think about our Bridegroom before He takes us home on the wedding day? Should I not desire to know how best to please Him, what are His tastes, and how to bring my mind to harmonize with His? To understand these truths is to practice mental prayer.

To summarize St. Teresa of Avila: 1) Prayer is a great blessing in which we need to persevere. 2) We need to become friends with God, for indeed only with that intimate relationship we will attain the goal of true mental prayer. 3) Prayer is the door that opens us to receive all spiritual graces. 4) Perseverance is essential to achieving our goal of friendship and heaven. 5) Prepare yourself mentally with all earnestness to realize Whose Presence you are approaching and to Whom you are about to speak with in prayer. If we can think of these things before our daily time for prayer, the Good Lord will fill us with an abundance of His grace, and over the course of our lives he will transform us into the saints He has called to be. And then it will truly be said that all glory and praise is rightfully His.

Holy Rosary Catholic School

Well, it happened again! God blesses us with snow each and every Catholic School's Week! I guess He thinks we need the break, so we get the snow days! I'm not sure we've ever completed it in a week. After having three snow days and the weekend off, we definitely needed to get back to the routine!

The Kindergarten and 1st Grade students did an excellent job in helping with the celebration of the 6PM Mass on January 30th. Thank you to all who attended and participated in this Mass. Hope you join us each week.

We completed Service Projects in conjunction with our Catholic Schools Week. Diapers, wipes, blankets, and more were collected for the Greater Flint Area Right to Life, along with donations from our bake sale. They were ecstatic with all that we collected! Thank you to all who helped us in this endeavor. We also made snack bags for the Patrons of Catholic Charities Warming Center. The students decorated the bags, collected all sort of snacks and made prayer cards for each bag. The bags were then assembled and sent to Catholic Charities Warming Center. Thank you to all who helped in any way with our service projects!

Our scrapbooking event was a huge success! Thank you to Mrs. Kallas and her team for providing a great atmosphere, and delicious lunch, dinner and snacks for our scrapbookers. Thank you to Ms. Esther for always preparing and organizing the food! We appreciate all who help make this a wonderful event for our community!

Our boy's basketball team is 2-0! We are so proud of our team, winning over St. Robert, Flushing 24-8, and St. John, Fenton 20-9. Keep up the great teamwork and sportsmanship! We are proud of you!

Last but not least, please let your family, friends and neighbors know about our upcoming Kindergarten Round-up! We will have a great open house, full of fun and information! Let us show you what Holy Rosary School has to offer your children/grandchildren!

Since it is an OPEN HOUSE, all students are welcome in any grade to attend this open house!
