LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

The shepherds returned from Bethlehem "glorifying and praising God." They were affected deeply by the sight of the infant Messiah and the message of the angels. What would the world look like, if we allowed ourselves to be likewise impacted by the word of God?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. John Neumann, patron saint of educators, immigrants, and sick children, was the first male saint to be canonized from the USA. An immigrant himself, he expanded Catholic education in his region from 2 schools to 100 & ministered in 6 different languages!

PRAYER

Prayer for St. John Neumann's intercession

O St. John Neumann, your ardent desire of bringing all souls to Christ impelled you to leave home and country; teach us to live worthily in the spirit of our baptism which makes us all children of the one Heavenly Father and brothers of Jesus Christ, the firstborn of the family of God.

Obtain for us that complete dedication in the service of the needy, the weak, the afflicted, and the abandoned which so characterized your life. Help us to walk perseveringly in the difficult and at times painful paths of duty, strengthened by the Body and Blood of our Redeemer and under the watchful protection of Mary our Mother. May death still find us on the sure road to our Father's house, with the light of living faith in our hearts.

Notes from the Pastor...

Fr. Roy Horning

January 1st marks the first day of the New Year 2023. The Church marks this day with the celebration of the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God—World Day of Peace. It is a Holy Day of Obligation. These are not mere words about another Holy Day, but are words that invite us to contemplate their meaning and breath in deeply the things of God. We must ponder both Mary the Mother of God and the World Day of Peace. There are two profound truths here that can easily be overlooked and misunderstood. So, let us examine the theological truth of Mary's title and the Day of Peace.

Mary's title Mother of God comes to us from the Council of Ephesus (431), which was the third ecumenical council of the Church. The fruit of this Council was the Nicene Creed that we profess every Sunday and Holy Day. The debate arose about whether we could rightly state that Mary was the Mother of God. The Council fathers said "yes", because Mary is the mother of Christ. Jesus is the Logos, the Word, the coeternal Son of God who has become flesh; not that the Word is united to a human nature. The Council taught clearly that the one Christ was born of Mary, truly Son of God and Son of Man, two natures conjoined without the suppression of either the divinity or humanity of Christ. The Council of Chalcedon (451) would define this unity between the divinity and humanity as the hypostatic union. The Council of Ephesus declared that the one Christ was born of the Virgin Mary, suffered and died for us, and is worshiped as Lord. Thus, we profess that Mary is the Mother of God, in Greek Theotokos, the "God bearer" because Jesus is one divine person with two natures—human and divine.

The World Day of Peace can be easily misunderstood, especially for those of us who grew up in the era of the Cold War. In the unending century of conflict that was the 20th century and seemingly our inheritance in the 21st century, we long for world peace. However, I think that this understanding misses the spiritual thrust of World Day of Peace. One of Jesus' titles is Prince of Peace. This comes to us from the prophetic words of Isaiah (9:6): For to us a child is born, to us a son given, and on his shoulder's dominion rests. He will be called Wonder--Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his dominion and peace there will be no end. The Son of God became flesh to bring redemption and salvation to a fallen world, his entire life, death and resurrection ushered in a new era in human history. In Christ Jesus, we have the fullness of life and peace that God wills for mankind. The new life is the life of grace, and all who receive this life experience His peace--God is with us. This new era began with the incarnation and birth of our Lord. We can rightly say that at Jesus' birth the world knew true peace, for the world beheld the Prince of Peace. The Son of God came to restore spiritual peace to a world ravaged by sin. Christians throughout two millennia have experienced the Peace of Christ in their lives in the midst of trials, tribulation and even death. The martyrs were venerated for the peace they possessed even in the face of violent persecution and death. We need to appropriate this sense of peace in our own day and lives. To know Jesus is to know peace. Taken another way we can grasp this spiritual truth by remembering that as sons and daughters of God we are loved and tenderly held in the hands of the Lord. Experiencing the truth of these words we can echo the words of Julian of Norwich: "All shall be well, and all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well." Her words point to God as our true foundation, and may help us to repose in God, our true rest, to stand in him, our true strength, and to be fundamentally rooted in him, our eternal love and true peace. The day will come when the world knows her Savior, and that indeed will be a World Day of Peace. But, if we only think of peace as a time when there is no war—we will surely miss the peace of Christ which is our Father's gift to us in the here and now of this moment. May this New Year be filled with the peace the world cannot give. Let us live boldly the virtues of faith, hope and charity; the fruit of which is peace.

MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child. All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them by the shepherds. And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart. - Lk 2:17-19
