LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

The offerings of gold, frankincense and myrrh were carried by the magi over many miles of hard travel to be laid at the feet of Jesus. What gifts do we bear through the journey of life to lay at the feet of the King? Do we protect them as we should?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saving over 14,000 Korean refugees during the Korean war in what is still the largest marine rescue in the history of the world, Servant of God Leonard LaRue's bravery and love of the Lord inspired his cause for sainthood to be opened in 2021.

PRAYER

God, our Father, Creator of the seas, Protector of refugees, and all those in need, You called Captain Leonard LaRue to recognize Your Son Jesus Christ in the faces of the Korean refugees, and led him as Brother Marinus to a life of prayer and service in the tradition of St. Benedict.

May his life be an inspiration to us and lead us to greater confidence in Your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the people of the sea, welcoming those who are refugees from war, and deepening all the faithful in their prayer and work of service.

We humbly ask that You glorify Your servant Captain Leonard LaRue/ Brother Marinus, O.S.B. on earth according to the design of Your holy will, and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Notes from the Pastor...
Fr. Roy Horning

The Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord is this Sunday. The Church in the west celebrates the Epiphany by celebrating the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles, as represented in Matthew's gospel by the Magi, or three wise men. The Church in the east celebrates the Epiphany by focusing on the baptism of Christ. Both "lungs of the Church" (JP2) celebrate the visible manifestation of Christ, our Lord and God, to mankind. It is interesting that both themes celebrate a central truth of the Gospel that God's salvation is offered to all peoples, not solely his Chosen People—the Jews. At the Nativity of the Lord, we celebrated our Lord's birth; one like us in all things but sin. St. John the Evangelist taught clearly the truth of the Incarnate Lord when he wrote: Beloved: What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked upon and touched with our hands concerns the Word of life—for the life was made visible; we have seen and testify to it and proclaim to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was visible to us (Jn. 1:1-4). Matthew and Luke make it clear in their gospel accounts that the Son of God became flesh to save sinners and make manifest God's love. The Magi are the first of many, many Gentiles who recognized in the Christ child his divine and human natures united in the person of the Son of God.

Some scoff at the thought that God would lower himself and become like the creatures he formed in his own image and likeness. This is especially true of those who practice Islam. But, far more common is that Jesus is not even an afterthought during the Christmas season. The birth of the Savior having been replaced by mere human sentimentality that focuses on decorated trees, presents, and family gatherings filled with warm memories of Christmas's past; effectively having excised Jesus Christ from Christmas. Xmas has sadly become a reality for many. This is not true of the Church, we boldly proclaim the Christmas message of God's love for his creation. The Magi from the East are essential to understanding God's will that desires that all mankind be saved. It is a point repeated throughout the gospels: the Samaritan woman at the well, the healing of the centurion's son, the exorcism of the Syrophenician woman's daughter, and many more non-Jews were healed. The universal call to salvation is made explicit in the Great Commission given to the eleven apostles by the Risen Lord: Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. From beginning to end the evangelist's put details of Jesus' infancy, ministry, passion, death and resurrection to emphasize the universal nature of the Savior's mission to save his people from their sins.

The Baptism of the Lord is celebrated on Monday, January 9th. A Mass will be celebrated at 8:30AM at Holy Rosary. This feast concludes the Christmas season in the Roman Catholic liturgical year. I mention it here for it is the exclamation point for the whole celebration and message of Christmas. In his baptism, by John the Baptist, Jesus unites himself with sinners. He who never sinned, freely and willingly receives John's baptism for the forgiveness of sins. The early Church fathers saw in his actions that Jesus was in fact consecrating the water, and was giving his future disciples the example to follow. Through the waters of baptism all who follow Him would become a new Creation in Christ. In baptism, we receive the gift the Holy Spirit and become the adopted Sons and Daughters of God. Just as a voice from heaven said, "This is my beloved Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased", so the same applies to us. Christmas began with the love of God made visible and ends with the invitation to all humanity to live in his love. The Church's new year began with the 1st Sunday of Advent and will progress with purpose to the Feast of Christ the King; the feast that points to the end of time and culmination of all things in Christ. Then and only then will we have the fullness of life in God; a life that is an eternal communion of love with the Holy Trinity. If it all seems too incredible, it surely is but nonetheless it is true for all who have faith in God!

Funeral Pre-Planning

We have received many inquiries about pre-planning funerals. We now have a pamphlet in the gathering space and in the office titled,

“Understanding and Planning Catholic Funerals”

Books of suggested readings and songs are also available for your use in the pre-planning of funerals.

We do keep records on file for when the need arises. For more information, please call the office 736-4040.

Holy Rosary Alumni Club

We are starting an Alumni Club and would like to gather names, addresses, e-mails and phone numbers of all our alumni, from both the high school and the grade school.

Information may be e-mailed to Kim (Wascha) Kallas at kkallas@holyroarycatholic.com Class of “74” to Kim (Strzynski) Edwards at holyrosaryflint@yahoo.com Kim (Strzynski) Edwards

If you are interested in serving please contact the parish office for details. (810) 736-4040.

Community Room-Parish Hall Rental Graduations, Showers, Weddings, Parties, Reunions

The Community Room is available for rent to parishioners, and the Parish Hall is available for rent to parishioners and the general public. The Community Room and the Parish Hall are air-conditioned. The Hall has a great kitchen and an ice machine, and there is a keg-o-rater available for your use. There are several set-up plans for the rectangular tables and chairs, depending on the number of guests you have invited. We also have some round tables available as well.

Please call Kim Edwards at 736-4040
or Cathy Stacey at 744-1441.

Altar Flower Fund

If you would like to purchase flowers for a particular time through-out the year for the remembrance of a loved one, or for a birthday or an anniversary, we have made arrangements with a local florist to provide flowers for the altar area. The cost is $32, for a bouquet. Please call the office at (810) 736-4040 with your request, or place a note in the collection basket at Mass.

Funeral Dinner Updates

We would love to continue to be of service with funeral dinners for the family and friends of those who have died.

The families are having their meals catered, as we not longer prepare the food.

However, we are in need of volunteers to help with the set-up and service of the dinners.

Basically we set the tables with plastic coverings, plates, napkins and silverware, make coffee, set up the desserts, (which we could use more volunteers for) and clean up afterwards.

Please call the parish office if you would be willing to help continue to provide this most needed service to others in their time of need at (810) 736-4040.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
