WONDERFUL TIMES ...for all of us!

Medicare Benefits Too Good To Be True?

We have all seen the commercials with that famous football player talking about how much you could save on your supplemental insurance, right? The one where he talks about all the services you could be getting and the extra money back in your pocket? Pay for "meals on wheels" and other health benefits?

While this is a great idea, it is not always factual for everyone receiving Medicare benefits! I know that our readers have received in the mail a small postcard from one insurance company or another also promising money back in your pocket.

Our suggestion is to carefully read the advertisement, particularly the fine print. Or you can call the Michigan Medicare/Medicaid Assistance Program at 1-800-803-7174. They can assist you with reviewing supplemental insurance policies and checking to see if the programs are a good fit for you. This program is a free service and their mission is:

Offices and Activity Centers will be closed for Independence Day Monday, July 5.

To educate, counsel and empower Michigan's older adults and individuals with disabilities, and those who serve them, so that they can make informed health benefit decisions. MMAP, Inc. works through the Area Agencies on Aging to provide high quality and accessible health benefit information and counseling, supported by a statewide network of unpaid and paid skilled professionals.

If you have any questions regarding any information you receive in the mail about saving you money, call 1-800-803-7174 and remember that when it seems too good to be true, it usually is . . .

WELCOME— Department Corner

It is that time of year for fireworks and other time-honored traditions. When celebrating America's birthday this year, we need to keep our veterans and our pets in mind. Did you know that, while we watch those fireworks that fill us with awe and patriotism, a combat veteran is pacing, agitated, panicked, and trying to remember where he/she is, and your beloved pet may try to "escape?"

With every "bang" and "boom" that we find exciting, that same combat veteran is transported, sometimes an ocean away, and is desperately grasping for anything and everything to help him come back to the present and escape the hell of the past.

Then there are those who have lived through a traumatic experience such as a car accident, physical or sexual abuse, or a life-threatening medical scare. All of these individuals, along with our veterans, can develop something called post-traumatic stress disorder or, as we know it, "PTSD."

PTSD causes the sufferer to re-live or re-experience traumatic situations via flashbacks or panic attacks and can be characterized by strong emotional responses, including depression, suicidal ideation, social anxiety, to name a few. "Triggers" vary for each individual but, typically, environmental encounters such as fireworks can set off a PTSD episode.

Many veterans can prepare mentally if they know when you will be setting off the fireworks. If you know you have a combat veteran of the past or present living in your neighborhood, be courteous and inform them of any fireworks you may be setting off. Give them the date and times, so they can prepare themselves. It is the neighborly thing to do.

While fireworks can be hard for veterans, the booms, screeches, and flashes also may be frightening for our four-legged friends. As a result, they may try to escape the loud noises and bright lights, according to the Michigan Humane Society.

The first thing to do is to keep pets inside and secure. Frightened animals may jump tall fences, bolt out gates, or run through window screens during fireworks displays to "escape."

If you know your pet is afraid of loud noises, resist the urge to take your dog to fireworks displays and confine him to a safe quiet room with his favorite toy and comfortable bedding.

Finally, if your dog shows signs of distress, give him something to keep him occupied, like a peanut butter-stuffed toy, chew toy, or bone. This will help distract him and calm his nerves. Playing music or turning the television up to drown out the fireworks noise also may help relieve the animal's stress.

Have a Safe and Enjoyable 4th of July, Everyone!

WELCOME— Department Corner

Does anyone else out there receive WAY TOO MANY telemarketing calls? I think everyone just said "YES." 😊 I wanted to give everyone a reminder about the Michigan "DO NOT CALL" list. Michigan consumers can register for the Federal Trade Commission's (FTC) "Do Not Call Registry" by telephone or on-line. This can include both your cell phone and your landline phones. You should renew this request every five years.

TO REGISTER:

⇒ Call this number from the telephone you would like registered:

1-888-382-1222

⇒ Go On-line at www.donotcall.gov.

Requires an active e-mail address

Requires response to an e-mail to confirm the telephone number

National Do Not Call Registry

This will not completely stop telemarketers, but it should help. Here are some helpful reminders about calls you may receive:

- ◇ Charitable and public safety organizations are allowed to call.
- ◇ Companies to which you have given consent may call you.
- ◇ Political organizations or survey companies may call you.
- ◇ Legitimate callers will give their name and the name of their company first when they call.
- ◇ Michigan's Penal Code makes it a misdemeanor for any telemarketer to make "an unsolicited commercial telephone call" by a person or recording device between the hours of 9 p.m. and 9 a.m.

Jessica Somerlott

Senior Services Manager

Greetings!

Please allow me to take this opportunity to introduce myself as the new Nutrition Services Manager for Department on Aging. My name is Zachary Brunett. I am a 36-year-old resident of Essexville where I have grown up, lived, and went to school my entire life. I have a beautiful wife, Carrie, of 12 years, and two wonderful children, Landyn, age 9, and Caleb, who is 5 years old. I am a 2003 graduate of Garber High School, a 2007 graduate of Delta College where I majored in Criminal Justice and graduated from the Northeastern Police Academy. After that, I went on to attend Ferris State with a concentration in Criminal Justice; however, I made the choice to switch to Public Administration.

I am a very simple person. I am a proud husband, father, and friend of many. My hobbies include being outdoors. I also love to play music.

I have been the drummer for Steve Armstrong and the 25 Cent Beer Band for 11 years. In my time with the band, we have accomplished so many wonderful things, including being signed in Nashville, releasing our first studio album, sending songs to radio, and traveling the Midwest.

My goals are very simple. I am here for you. In heading up this position, I will concentrate on you, our client.

As we continue to evolve our menu and practices, I will be sure that you are heard. If you ever need anything, please do not hesitate to reach out to me at 989-895-4100. In coming weeks, I plan to be doing routes with our drivers and meeting you all.

Cheers!

Zach Brunett

IN THE KNOW...

During the summer, everyone thinks about protecting their skin from UV rays, but how many of you protect your eyes? Protecting your eyes from UV rays is just as important. Ultraviolet (UV) rays are an invisible kind of radiation that comes from the sun, tanning beds, and sunlamps. Exposure to bright sunlight increases the risk of developing cataracts, macular degeneration, and growths on the eye, including cancer.

The most hazardous time for UV rays exposure is during the late spring and early summer, specifically between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. daylight saving time (9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. standard time).

The following are some tips to help keep your eyes healthy:

- Do select sunglasses that block UV rays. This ability to block UV light is not dependent on the price tag or how dark the sunglass lenses are.
- Do make sure your sunglasses block 100% of UV-A rays and UV-B rays.
 - Do choose wrap-around styles so that the sun's rays cannot enter from the side.
 - Do protect your eyes with broad-brimmed hats and sunglasses whenever outside.
 - Do try to keep out of the sun between 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m., when the sun's UV rays are the strongest.
 - Do not be fooled by clouds: Sun damage to eyes can occur anytime during the year, not just when it is sunny.
 - Do not look directly at the sun, including during an eclipse. It can lead to solar retinopathy, damage to the eye's retina from solar radiation.

Follow these simple tips to ensure you have a fun healthy summer. Bring on the sunshine!
