Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the Catholic-Christian Community of St. Roch Parish, following the work of Jesus Christ, are dedicated to the faith formation, and spiritual growth of our Parish and neighboring communities. As the people of God, we are called through the Holy Spirit to evangelize, to minister, to provide faith-filled experiences of prayer and devotion and to cultivate the Gospel values of Love, Peace and Justice.

Fr. Ray's X-Rays

Howdy! The summer time has its ups and downs - too much sun, too humid, too dry, or it's too wet too many clouds (overcast) and then, it's September and the season of Autumn Halloween time, Thanksgiving. Soon after, it's December and Christmas and winter and..., winter weather and..., and we can't wait until it's summer (again).

On a similar note, I hear the complaints about the weather and I feel for many, but I have never ordered any weather but try to deal with what comes our way!

In our journey through this summer and the beginnings of the FOP, there will be updates provided to give you and I will offer you some insights into the matters that we deal with, decide upon or discuss. Information and involvement comes from the "to be" created FOP pastoral council. This group of parishioners - 2 reps from each parish - will be your voice and the "go tos." I will sit on this council too as do the other priests and together we discuss and converse. We will come to a consensus in our discussions. I will make it mine to ensure that you have been heard or have spoken. Thus, it is important that you hear the parish announcements, read the bulletin and other handouts, documents that will be made available or provided. These are usually found in the gathering area and made known by signs or other attention grabbers - balloons, streamers, etc....

This weekend, Fr Bill Martin will be present to speak on behalf of UNBOUND. This is missionary or mission of the Church and like Catholic Outreach and Food for the Poor, offers you some insight into the greater work of the Church. Our care for the poor, the vulnerable, those without a voice, helps them find peace in us. Our contributions of time and talent through service and other acts of charities, helps them. Certainly, monetary contribution assist, but it is the acts of love, compassion understanding, that really help. Thus, while you may not directly or physically be comforting someone in need, your thoughts, prayers and mindset in thinking of them and those who do directly mission work and walk with them will be the key to their hope, peace, love and even joy!

Do take care and continue to be safe and wise.

Stewardship Thoughts Cycle B (Mark)
 Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Scripture readings focus on God miraculously feeding the hungry. In the Second Book of Kings, the Lord uses the prophet Elisha as His instrument to supply nourishment for 100 men from 20 barley loaves. In St. John's Gospel, the evangelist tells of a time near Passover, when Jesus multiplies a few loaves and fish to accommodate more than 5,000 followers. Both passages point toward Christ's institution of the Eucharist at His Last Supper with His disciples. The Holy Eucharist is the "source and summit" of our faith. We become what we consume — receiving Christ frequently in Holy Communion can bring us to a deeper relationship with Him. St. Paul reminds us that we have received a calling from the one Lord in one faith and one Baptism. In a spirit of evangelization, we respond to this invitation to discipleship by personalizing Jesus in our life and then sharing our Eucharistic joy with everyone we meet. Please read Archbishop Allen Vigneron's pastoral letter, Unleash the Gospel, at unleashthegospel.org to learn more about evangelization in our Archdiocese.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

It's All in the Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand.

God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

Prayer to St. Roch

Patron of Contagious Illnesses
 O Blessed Saint Roch,
 Patron of the sick, have pity on those who lie upon a bed of suffering. Your power was so great when you were in this world, that by the sign of the Cross, many were healed of their diseases. Now that you are in heaven, your power is not less. Offer, then, to God our sighs and tears and obtain for us that health we seek through Christ our Lord. Amen
 (Repeat the following 3 times)
 Saint Roch, pray for us, that we may be preserved from all diseases of body and soul.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

The prophet Elisha was able to feed a crowd of a hundred people with only twenty barley loaves and some fresh grain. Why do you think God empowered Elisha to perform this feeding miracle?

Second Reading:

Paul taught the Ephesians that as believers we are called to live by the moral imperatives of humility, gentleness, patience, love, and peace. Which of these virtues do you think you do well?

Gospel:

The people mistakenly thought of Jesus as “the Prophet who is to come into world” after the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. What are some times when you have seen others misuse or misrepresent Jesus? ©LPi

Meals on Wheels is available at St. Roch on Mondays and Thursdays for Meal pick-up. Seniors 60 years or older who call one week ahead, may pick-up meals at St. Roch's Parking Lot at 10am. Call Sue at 734-673-2630.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God shows up in unexpected ways! Just when we think we have God’s agenda figured out, another surprise comes. Expecting to find God only in some places hinders us from finding Him everywhere. Who would have thought that a young boy’s few loaves and fishes would feed thousands of people? The disciples were probably just as amazed as everyone else when this feast appeared before them. Sometimes, we find it difficult to believe that God can do amazing things with something small and simple. Yet, grasping this truth is really at the heart of understanding the power of the Eucharist. Having the Body and Blood of Christ made present for us is one amazing wonder. Actually being fed and nourished by that gift is another. Now being able to become what we have eaten, God can do tremendous things with the simple, humble gifts of our lives. All we have to do is realize that God dwells within us. When we do, then everyone we encounter and everything we do has the power to become a sacramental moment. When done with great love even the smallest gesture can be multiplied exponentially. Now, that’s amazing! ©LPi

FIRST READING:

“For thus says the LORD, ‘They shall eat and there shall be some left over.’”
(2 Kgs 4:43)

PSALM:

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs. (Ps 145)

SECOND READING:

One body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all. (Eph 4:4-6)

GOSPEL:

Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. (Jn 6:11)

GOSPEL MEDITATION: ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

St. Oscar Romero said, “We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is the beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord’s grace to enter and do the rest.”

There were a group of ladies many years ago who made quilts. They were beautiful creations reflecting inspirational designs artfully composed from the simple scraps of fabric each woman would bring to their individual pieces. There was no plan for the finished project as each finished work became the combined creation of what each woman contributed. They abounded in vibrant colors and dazzled the beholder with intricate patterns and their myriad textures. They were so beautiful that they became coveted family treasures passed from generation to generation. Those women never realized the power of their work. Countless babies rested in the comfort of those quilts warmly nestled in the legacy of tradition they were fortunate to inherit. They adorned countless homes with their beauty and brought joy and solace to many faces.

We cannot do everything. We are not meant to. Our work in life is to contribute our individual piece, a piece that reflects the unique thumbprint I claim as my own. We only have to do small things well. Then, as St. Oscar Romero reminds us, the Lord’s grace will enter and do the rest. We have to trust that this is true just as those women trusted in the eventual beauty of their final work.

Eucharistic blessings are blessings that start small and multiply. We all come to life with only a few loaves of bread and a few fish. Not any single one of us has all that it takes to transform our world. Who knows what God will do with the little we have and how many will benefit from our kindness, compassion, wisdom, courage, conviction, love, warmth, zeal, faith, and hope? That young lad never dreamed that his few leftovers would do all that they did. God shows up in unexpected ways! Where would life’s adventure and fun be if it were any other way? Being able to be part of bringing God’s creative, transforming, healing to the world opens us up to wonder, awe, and excitement! We can all bring our little piece to the bigger work of God that can result in being a coveted jewel passed generation to generation. This is good news indeed!

Bread and wine transform into Christ’s Body and Blood and we become what we eat. Trust that. ©LPi
