28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the Catholic-Christian Community of St. Roch Parish, following the work of Jesus Christ, are dedicated to the faith formation, and spiritual growth of our Parish and neighboring communities. As the people of God, we are called through the Holy Spirit to evangelize, to minister, to provide faith-filled experiences of prayer and devotion and to cultivate the Gospel values of Love, Peace and Justice.

Fr. Ray's XRays

Howdy! As the month of October moves about, the color change that we can experience, even in our own backyard, is part of our Autumn season and a wonderful way to praise God for the changing of the season. These last few days and weeks, of late September and early October, have been extraordinary in temperature and in what they offer to all of us - a great opportunity to see God's creation all around us and respond.

As we also move through these Autumn days, the FOP has generated a couple of newsworthy things: first, Fr Marc Gawronski, our FOP Moderator, has named Sue Beidlingmaier (currently Director of Finance and Administration, Sacred Heart Grose Ile) as mission support coordinator. She will become the lay administrator of our parishes. This occurs only under the guise of the FOP. Prior to this implementation, this type of position and role wasn't available to parishes as a stand alone role or position. Yet there were many parishes that had and have administrators, but camouflaged in being Directors of Finance, or called, business managers. Administrators as such were not sanctioned by the AOD.

Nevertheless, these positions are seen in many parishes throughout the AOD for priests or pastors to have someone skilled in these areas of finance, business operations and even marketing as well as maintenance to assume a role in the day-to-day parish operations. The AOD has this structure, e.g., a chief finance officer and others that oversee the work of the AOD - directors of worship, evangelization, catholic schools, etc.... Note well, according to canon law, a priest (or bishop) is to be in place - assigned - to allow this to occur as he is the responsible person, but not realized by the downtown offices. This is unique to FOP.

In time - weeks ahead- we will have a pastoral council in place - like the parish council of the past, that will now be structured towards promoting and developing this FOP in our area.

Parish life

FORMED

My Dear Parishioners,

It gives me great joy to share with you that our parish now has a subscription to FORMED, a premier online platform filled with over 4,000 Catholic studies, movies, audio dramas, talks, e-books, and even cartoons for our children. FORMED has content from over 60 apostolates, including Augustine Institute, Ignatius Press, and the Knights of Columbus, with material that is professionally produced, engaging, and solid in its catechism. Best of all, this material is free to you. It's our gift to you!

Our parish will be using the material on FORMED to support our ministries and provide continuing education for staff members and parishioners, as well as outreach for our sick and homebound members. Much of FORMED's content is available in both English and Spanish.

You have easy access to all of the material on FORMED to support your own faith journey and that of your family members.

Are you hesitant to return to the Sacrament of Reconciliation after a long absence? Watch Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession.

Would you like to be more confident in answering your teenagers' questions about the validity of the Gospels? Watch Lectio: The Case for Jesus.

Do you search for a reliable source of Catholic teaching on current issues? Tune in each week to The Augustine Institute Show with Dr. Tim Gray.

Have you despaired of finding good movies that your family can enjoy together on a Friday night? Start with Mother Teresa, the story of the selfless saint who brought hope and love to the poorest of the poor.

You can enjoy FORMED on your computer or on your television with an inexpensive Roku device or Apple TV. You can even listen on your phone as you commute to work or do chores.

My hope and prayer is that the content on FORMED will enrich, deepen, and inspire your faith. Please pray for our benefactors who have made a FORMED subscription a reality for our parish. Please pray for the people at the Augustine Institute who create this wonderful and much-needed Catholic content for our people.

Cheryl Knapp will be available after all 3 Masses the weekend of October 23 & 24 to do a demo and help you get FORMED on your devices.

May the good Lord bless you and all of your loved ones!

Greetings!

All our classes are currently working on picking a "patron" Saint for their class. And, of course, our Confirmation class will be working on their Saint project as they get ready for the annual Guess the Saint weekend. This will take place the weekend of October 30 and 31 after all the Masses. Also stop in the classrooms and see what the youth of our parish are doing in their classes!

I'm still in need of a couple aides, office helpers, and substitute catechists. Right now, I'm the only substitute. I need additional subs in case more than one catechist will be out. If you can help, please let me know!

As a reminder, Grades 1 through 8 do NOT have class on October 11th or 12th. Classes will resume on October 18th and 19th.

Wishing you all of God's blessings!
Mrs. Cheryl Knapp

The Faith Formation Department would like to start a Pray and Play group for moms with young children. This will take place on Thursdays. Moms along with their youngsters will be invited to join us for daily mass at 9:00 (pray) and then meet afterwards so the children can (play) together and the moms can enjoy a cup of coffee and chat.

I'm looking for a few volunteers to help with this. Some to prepare the coffee and have it ready for the moms—and sometimes cookies, muffins, etc. I am also looking for some volunteers to help with the youngsters after Mass for one hour. My thought is that after Mass they would stay for one hour to let their children play while they chat. After the moms have a chance to get to know each other over a few weeks' time, I will offer a variety of topics if they are interested.

If you are interested in helping with this, please call me at 734-782-4471 or email me at knappe@strochflatrock.com

I thank you in advance for your consideration!
God bless, Cheryl

Pastoral and Sacramental Guidelines

Baptism

Infant baptisms are celebrated on the second Sunday of each month at 11:30 Mass (or after). Parents requesting baptism of their child or children must contact the parish office, be baptized (or at least one parent), registered and active members of the parish. They must attend a baptism class at least one month prior to the baptism. Newly registered members must wait three months prior to a request.

Marriage

Couples seeking to be married at St. Roch's must contact the pastor to secure a date, contacting him at least six months or more, prior to their desired date. One member of the party must be a baptized Catholic, active and registered at St. Roch's (or through their parents). The couple will then be instructed in the marriage preparation program. Non-catholic members (of the party) or previously married members are not restricted from entering into marriage, so long as they are free to marry according to the laws of the Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick

Any member of the parish may be anointed prior to surgery, beginning therapies, suffering chronic illnesses, having reached old age and/or having been hospitalized. This sacrament of healing is for the living (conscious and alert) and can be celebrated in church, at home or in the hospital. Please contact the parish office for a visit to be arranged. Emergencies always take precedence.

First Eucharist and Confirmation

Please contact the religious education office for information regarding these initiation rites, requirements and subsequent celebrations.

Reconciliation

This healing sacrament is celebrated every Saturday afternoon at 3Pm in the church or by appointment.

Catholic School Tuition Assistance

St. Roch Parish is able to assist families who are active members of the Parish, with Catholic School tuition assistance. Contact Fr. Ray and or the Finance Council for more information.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments
IF HEAVEN WERE LIKE HARVARD

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hasty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal.

The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you.

May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Why are Catholics required to get married in a church, and not outside or at a different venue?

Answer: Because the sacrament of marriage is a sacred covenant between the husband and wife, the celebration of the sacrament of matrimony is much more than simply a social or family event. So, the rule that the sacrament be celebrated in a church is a way to help reinforce the deeper meaning of Christian marriage. To help make this clearer, the Church's tradition also normally includes the celebration of the Mass when the marriage is being celebrated between two Catholics, and so a church or chapel is the ideal setting. For special reasons — which vary from diocese to diocese — the local bishop can give permission for the marriage to be celebrated in another suitable place. ©LPi

Dear Parishioners,

Please join us the weekend of October 16, 2021 to hear Rev. Anthony P. Palazzolo speak at all the Masses about a ministry providing direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

Fr. Palazzolo will share personal witness about Food For The Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

Fr. Tony Palazzolo was ordained for the Diocese of Mandeville in Jamaica in 1993 where he served as a Missionary for three years. He subsequently served as an Advisor-Counselor for the Family Life Office for the Diocese of St. Augustine for 20 years. Fr. Tony has preached and led Mission Trips on behalf of Food For The Poor for over 22 years.

Please join me in welcoming Fr. Tony Palazzolo.

Stewardship Thoughts Cycle B (Mark) 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's First Reading from the Book of Wisdom shows us that the spirit of Wisdom is far more valuable than gold and silver. This topic is echoed in St. Mark's Gospel: Jesus tells the rich man that if he desires to be His disciple, in addition to following God's commandments, he must sell all that he has and give to the poor. The rich man is unable to do this, and sadly walks away. This Gospel passage is radically counter-cultural to today's worldly quest for wealth. The Letter to the Hebrews also reminds us that we must give an accounting to God of how we steward His abundant gifts bestowed upon us. Did we use them to build up His Kingdom? If we were in the rich man's place, what would be our response to the Lord's challenge? Are we willing to make generous, sacrificial gifts of prayer, service, and generosity to our parish's ministries and weekly offertory, to the Catholic Services Appeal and those in need, and other worthy causes? Those who do, discover that God's generosity is never outdone. Begin the Biblical practice of tithing by giving a sacrificial percentage of your income back to the Lord. Try to increase that percentage each year until you reach the 10 percent tithe. And then, do more if you are able.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Presumption can be a great sin. We can easily convince ourselves that as long as we do the bare minimum or master the basics, it is sufficient. Love doesn't operate this way. If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to get expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing and in following a voice other than our own. This is what those who are truly in pursuit of wisdom come to realize. Just like any human relationship worth achieving reveals, we never reach a plateau in following the Gospel or growing in wisdom and holiness. Wisdom is the rudder that guides us through all of life's attractions and options. It alone determines what is worth pursuing and what must be left behind. That is why those who are only concerned about checking the boxes and doing the least amount possible often walk away sad when offered God's gift of life eternal. They are not truly in love. ©LPI

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Today's reading presents wisdom and prudence as life's most precious gifts. Why do you think these virtues were held in such high regard by ancient Israel?

Second Reading:

Hebrews connects the power of the word of God with divine judgement — one day we must all “render an account” of our lives before the Lord. How often do you think about your own judgement day?

Gospel:

Jesus teaches the rich man and the disciples that while wealth can often hinder one from entering the kingdom of God, self-sacrifice and discipleship can earn eternal life. How well do you balance these realities in your life? ©LPI

GOSPEL MEDITATION:
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for “love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self.” Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person’s story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God’s work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust. ©LPi
