BAPTIZED

“I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

MARK 1:8

“Yo los he bautizado a ustedes
con agua, pero él los bautizará con el Espíritu Santo”.

Pastoral Perspective

A BAPTISMAL BACKUP

BY BRITTANY TOBIAS, COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR

My husband and I learned the hard way that one cannot simply will a child into creation, and when we were finally expecting our son Jack, now 3, the one person I was most excited to tell was Deacon Romolo. I know this sounds ridiculous - but after our marriage was celebrated by a priest we hardly knew, the prospect of having our first child baptized by a dear friend seemed like a pastoral pinnacle.

About halfway through the pregnancy, I stopped Romolo in the hallway upstairs near the rectory dining room and asked him if he would baptize our baby-to-be. He excitedly agreed and said a quick prayer over us (me and the baby). My heart could finally rest. That's the thing about Romolo - he is simply filled with grace. Conversation with him just puts one at ease.

We welcomed Jack a few days before his due date on November 24 and finally scheduled his baptism for early June of the following year. Between Advent, Lent, Easter, and the university academic calendar, it seemed June was the earliest we were all available. Invitations were sent and food was ordered. Surely we would host a party to properly welcome Jack into the Church!

And then, the week before Jack's baptism, Romolo's twin sister became gravely ill. She passed away the day before Jack's baptism. Romolo was already traveling to Philly to preside at her funeral.

Fear not, planners and worriers (of which I am both): Fr. Dennis was miraculously available. He stepped in at a moment's notice and welcomed our son into the church with open arms, and of course, a poem. Since this day, I've lovingly referred to Fr. Dennis as the world's best back-up.

And just last February, Deacon Romolo baptized our daughter Josie into the Church. How fitting that this was the last gathering our family celebrated before the covid-19 pandemic.

Today, as we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, I am reminded of these two beautiful days when my children were baptized by colleagues I am blessed to call friends.

Through our baptism, we are invited to find God in all things and to listen carefully to God's plan instead of our own. We are invited each day to be a presence in the world, a presence like Jesus who cared for and about all people of good will. We are called to reach out beyond those who agree with us, who think like us, and worship like us - no easy feat in today's world.

It is with a heavy heart that I share with all of you that I am stepping down as communications director at St. Mary. I am immensely grateful for all the prayers, friendships, and challenges we have faced together over these last six years and look forward to continuing this journey with you as parishioners and friends. This vibrant community has taught me so much about love, justice, and mercy - my heart is forever changed.

Let us
be renewed by God's mercy.

— Pope Francis

During the winter months in Ann Arbor, the daytime warming center provides warm spaces for those needing shelter, warmth, and community. The warming center will be at First Baptist Church (517 East Washington) for the month of January.

They are needing volunteers/donations to visit with the guests, bring pre-packaged snacks/coffee, or donate a hot lunch or dinner.

If you plan on bringing food, please bring food for 40 guests. There will be someone to greet you in the parking lot at First Baptist Church to receive meals at 11am or 4pm. To volunteer, please see the link below to sign-up and for more information. Thank you so much!

IMMIGRATION SUPPORT

Rooted in Christ's call to recognize Him in one another, St. Mary loves and welcomes our immigrant brothers and sisters. We serve as a safe home and dynamic resource for our immigrant and non-immigrant communities by providing pastoral care, education, and advocacy opportunities all based in mutual companionship.

We invite you to "welcome the stranger" as Jesus has called us to do. Volunteers are needed to tutor at our English as a Second Language (ESL) conversation hours, accompany immigrant parishioners to court or ICE check-ins, and serve on our immigration team to plan educational events, advocacy campaigns, prayer opportunities and more.

HISPANIC/LATINO MINISTRY

Join us in our weekly Spanish mass and many other events and programs offered in Spanish! Our community is diverse, made up of students and resident parishioners hailing from all over the Americas and Spain. While many are fluent Spanish-speakers or bilingual, minimal Spanish is needed to participate in our Ministry.

We welcome you to participate in the Latinx young adults group, serve as a catechist, or help plan annual cultural celebrations, like Día de los Muertos and Our Lady of Guadalupe. Volunteers are also needed in our choir, Children's Liturgy, and in a number of other ways at Spanish Mass.

We hope you join us!

HELP US ENTER THE NEW YEAR

God of all time, help us enter the New Year quietly, thoughtful of who we are to ourselves and to others, mindful that our steps make an impact and our words carry power.

May we walk gently.

May we speak only after we have listened well.

Creator of all life,

help us enter the New Year reverently,

aware that you have endowed

every creature and plant, every person and habitat with beauty and purpose.

May we regard the world with tenderness.

May we honor rather than destroy.

Lover of all souls,

help us enter the New Year joyfully,

willing to laugh and dance and dream, remembering our many gifts with thanks and looking forward to blessings yet to come.

May we welcome your lavish love.

In this new year, may the grace and peace of Christ

bless us now and in the days ahead.

WOMEN OF THE HEART

"WOMEN - BEARERS OF HOPE"

THURS, JAN 14 | 10:15 AM

Women of every age are invited to connect, be inspired, and celebrate our faith with one another. Using a virtual format, we will gather the second Thursday of each month, from September through May, from 10:15 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Given the state of our world at this time, and also because we had to abruptly bring last spring's program to a halt because of Covid-19, we will return to last year's theme entitled, "Continuing the Journey in Hope."

We will devote the winter/spring semester to exploring the theme: "Women - Bearers of Hope," using Sister Barbara Reid's book, "Wisdom's Feast: An Invitation to Feminist Interpretation of the Scriptures." Sister Carol Johannes, O.P. and Nancy Bordley will be facilitating these gatherings.

Come and join us for what promises to be a rich and rewarding experience. We will be gathering via Zoom on the following dates. Please feel free to join us for as many sessions as your schedule allows; February 11, March 11, April 8, and May 13

Please direct any questions to Julie Mussio at jmussio@smspnewman.org. Julie will be coordinating the Zoom gatherings so please forward to her your email address if you are new to Women of the Heart or have an updated email address.

The Busy Person's Retreat allows students and young professionals to commit to daily prayer, then be paired with a spiritual companion who will help them to explore their prayer and their experiences of God.

Sign up for these groups during the first week of February. For more info, contact Rita Zyber. rzyber@smspnewman.org
