SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. - Lk 4:28, 30

Al oír esto, todos los que estaban en la sinagoga se llenaron de ira. Pero él, pasando por en medio de ellos, se alejó de allí. - Lc 4, 28. 30

Pastoral Perspective

“Was Blind But Now I See”

BY DANIEL BURNS, LONGTIME PARISHIONER AND MEMBER OF THE PARISH’S ANTI-RACISM WORKING GROUP

Amazing Grace is certainly one of the best known hymns in the English language. The lyrics were composed by John Newton in 1772 and have been sung with many melodies over the years. The one familiar to us in St Mary Student Parish was originally called New Britain and was not associated with the hymn until the 1830’s. Most people know that Newton was a ship’s captain caught in a life-threatening gale on March 21, 1748, when he first came to see the fault of his ways and recognize the grace of God. Fewer know that his sailing was as a slave trader, moving captured humans from Africa across the Atlantic to the Caribbean and the Carolinas in the infamous “middle passage.” And Newton continued his career in the slave trade for at least five more years after he “saw,” making his conversion seem more transactional than transformative. Ironically, he wrote the lyrics to another still popular hymn, How Sweet the Name of Jesus Sounds, while at anchor in port, waiting for a new cargo of enslaved people to be brought onboard. Another irony is that Amazing Grace has not had the influence in its birthplace which it has had in the US. In part this is because Anglicans had a tendency to look down on emotional hymnody, while American Southerners, and especially the African-American slaves, had a deep tradition of such singing. It is they who associated the lyrics with New Britain, and some of the words we now sing (the last verse, “When we’ve been here ten thousand years...”) are due not to John Newton, but to enslaved African-Americans, first seen in published form in Harriet Beecher Stowe’s Uncle Tom’s Cabin.

In fact, Newton did eventually repent his wayward path and studied for the Anglican priesthood, although it was difficult to get a sponsor for his unusual application (he was known to have sympathies with the non-conformist and independent Methodists). He ultimately became a fervent abolitionist, writing many pamphlets and manifestos against the cruelty he had taken for granted and ignored even after his celebrated epiphany. One estimate is that it took 40 years for him to complete his metamorphosis.

So after much time and many gyrations, John Newton seems to have embraced fully the realization a storm had frightened out of him and which he had chosen to ignore for reasons of convenience and economic comfort for years thereafter. His ultimate conversion is reassuring to us now, perhaps, but why focus on him for SMSPP’s reflections on race and racism? What is striking is the distance between his famous cry “was blind but now I see” and when he does something, anything. What does “now” even mean if you can wait many years to do anything about it? We all have our unrecognized collusions with racist structures within our society, yet we can see these now, more or less clearly, but we have a tendency to wait, or evade the consequences of what we now see. And as Newton learned, these structures can even be embedded in our churches. Even today, a Christian website can write seemingly casually: “Though Newton continued in his profession of sailing and slave-trading for a time, his life was transformed” [1]. What low bars we Christians can set for ourselves when we are trying to delude ourselves!

The change of life entailed by what we now see never seems to come easily, and yet it seems true that once you see, blinders can fall from your eyes. Maybe we cannot react as quickly as Paul on the road to Damascus, but if not now, when? At least some small step.

In what seemed to me to be an example in the opposite direction, I was always impressed that George Washington was the only one of the many slave-owning American Presidents who gave his slaves their freedom, albeit in his will, and albeit prescribed for after the death of his wife, Martha. Martha then turned around and released those people from bondage less than a year after George’s death. I had thought that Martha had had a “now I see” moment, how easily and how quickly she had come to this decision: if these men, women and children were to be free, then now is the moment.

Or so I thought. Martha and her family wealth, it seems, were the economic engines of George Washington’s family. George properly owned fewer than half the family’s enslaved people. Martha owned the rest, and even those ascribed to her were controlled by her larger family and were not legally hers to “dispose of.” Under recommendation from trusted family advisors, she gave those people covered by George’s will their freedom immediately because she was persuaded that the terms of George’s will would make it irresistible for the slaves in question to hasten her earthly departure to obtain their freedom sooner! It was not an insight into the moral quandary she faced, but acquiescence in the continuing mythology of Blacks being a danger to Whites, a strong and enduring tale accepted today by many of our countrymen, a cause of fear and deep mistrust. “Now” for Martha Washington presented a fearful specter, and she acted as quickly as possible. If only those who see the way of redemption and God’s love could act so quickly!

MEALS FOR THE HOMELESS AT MERCY HOUSE

Mercy House, located at 805 W. Huron Street in Ann Arbor, is an oasis of hope for people experiencing homelessness, providing meals, showers, clothing and personal care items. We are looking for individuals who could prepare and drop off a meal for 25-30 people on Mondays or Wednesdays, with a 5:45pm drop-off at the house. Typically, one person provides the main dish, and another provides sides and dessert, but some do both. 13 x 9 aluminum pans work best, as they do not need to be returned and will be reused by the community. (Also accepted are grocery gift cards, in any amount, to buy the ingredients to prepare a meal.)

If you are interested in helping out, please go to the following Sign Up Genius link: <https://tinyurl.com/f6p9p3px>

There you will find open dates as well as menu suggestions and a few other details. Questions? Please contact Sonia at soniafrances55@gmail.com. Thank you!

THE ST. MARY'S REFUGEE CO-SPONSORSHIP

The St. Mary's Refugee Co-sponsorship allows our community to directly engage in refugee resettlement efforts. We will provide financial and in-kind contributions, volunteer services, emotional and resettlement support to help newly arrived refugees integrate into life in a new country. We seek to establish a strong, well-organized team with the skills necessary to help refugees access social services, assist with healthcare coordination, education, and employment. We need at least 30 volunteers who can, as a group, devote a total of 40hrs/week for the first two months.

Visit stmarystudentparish.org/parish-life/faith-doing-justice/ for more information and to get involved.

EXPLORING POWER & PRIVILEGE

Please join us this Lent as we participate in the JustFaith Faith & Racial Equity: Exploring Power & Privilege program. This nine session program awakens individuals and groups to the economic systems, public policies, cultural norms, and hidden biases that empower some and oppress others. This material is rooted in scripture and prayer and invites participants to explore how their faith informs their response to their learning. Additionally participants are invited to discern action steps for working toward racial equity in their own communities.

Each session lasts approximately 1 ½ hours and participants commit to 1-2 hours of reading, watching videos, and reflecting between sessions. Depending on facilitator and participant preferences these sessions will meet on Zoom or in person.

If you are interested in joining us this Lent please take a moment to complete this interest survey: <https://forms.gle/y6eC1vy8kM8aSyTN8>

ASB BUCKET DRIVE—SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 6

Twenty-eight of our undergraduate students will put their faith in action through our Alternative Spring Break (ASB) immersion program. Students will immerse themselves into communities both domestic and international to listen, learn, and grow in solidarity.

This year, we will be going to El Salvador, Selma Alabama, and Nazareth Farm in West Virginia. They will be collecting donations after ALL the masses to help defray the costs of the ASB program. This is the only fundraising event for ASB at St. Mary. If you would rather donate online, you can choose the "ASB donation" fund. We also accept Venmo @SMSPumich. Your prayers, support, and generosity are greatly appreciated.

RECORDING AVAILABLE FOR JOHN THORNE TALK

Thanks to all in our parish and the surrounding community who attended or watched the parish's MLK tribute talk by John Thorne on January 23.

His talk, entitled, "All Are Welcome, But Are They?" outlined steps the Church (and all of us) can take to create the welcoming, inclusive place that God intended.

The talk was recorded and is available at this link:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DWTQzzipx5xg>

We'd also be pleased if, after watching the video, you'd fill out this feedback form so we can reflect together and consider next steps toward inclusiveness.

IN THE SPIRIT OF IGNATIUS

FRIENDS OF JESUS

Would you like to have some good advice from me? Look upon Jesus as your friend, as your confidant. Learn to go and see him, to visit him, to "remain" with him, and you will see how many things you will learn. It is a wisdom which he alone can give you, the true knowledge which makes people wise, holy, and even happy. All that we need for our life is gradually attained with a pouring forth from heart to heart.

"Tell me with whom you associate and I shall tell you who you are." If you go with Jesus, if you remain with Jesus, you will certainly become yourself another Jesus. Do you not recall that the principles of your association tell you that you should become personal friends of Jesus and that you should speak with him?

Fr. Pedro Arrupe, S.J.

(Superior General of the Jesuits from 1965 to 1983)

PRAYER:

Let your light be for me like the burning bush for Moses, the light of Damascus for Paul, the Cardoner and La Storta for Ignatius. That is, a call to set out on a road that may be obscure, but that will open up before me, as happened to Ignatius when he was following it.

From Fr. Arrupe's "Invocation to the Trinity"

Note: We are joining with Jesuits around the world to celebrate a special "Ignatian Year." Through July, we will reflect on the conversion of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus, who turned his life toward God after his legs were shattered by a cannonball in battle 500 years ago. We pray that this Jubilee will be a time to reflect on our own moments of conversion. What are the "shattering" changes we experience that can open our hearts to God?

Also: Please see our special Ignatian Table in the upper atrium outside the church door near Thompson Street for more information and resources on the teachings of St. Ignatius.

Sunday Readings

JANUARY 30 — Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Jer 1:4-5, 17-19
 Psalm Ps 71:1-6,15,17
 Reading II 1 Cor 12:31-13:13
 Gospel Lk 4:21-30

“No prophet is accepted in the prophet’s hometown.” Thus did Jeremiah and Jesus encounter opposition and lack of faith; thus did both place their hope in the Lord. Paul speaks eloquently of the greatest of all the gifts: love.

FEBRUARY 6 — Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Is 6:1-2, 3-8
 Psalm Ps 138:1-5, 7-8
 Reading II 1 Cor 15:1-11
 Gospel Lk 5:1-11

Isaiah, a man of unclean lips, beholds the Lord’s glory in the temple and is sent on mission. Simon, a sinner, responds to the mission of Jesus by becoming a disciple. Paul, the persecutor, speaks of his call to preach nothing but Christ crucified and risen.
