SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together.

And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem.

At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

They were astounded, and in amazement they asked,

“Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans?

Then how does each of us hear them in his native language?

We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia,

Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to

Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God.”

SECOND READING

1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters:

No one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit.

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit;

there are different forms of service but the same Lord;

there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ.

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body,

whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

PENTECOST SEQUENCE

Come, Holy Spirit, come!

And from your celestial home/ Shed a ray of light divine!

Come, Father of the poor!

Come, source of all our store!/ Come, within our bosoms shine.

You, of comforters the best;

You, the soul's most welcome guest;/ Sweet refreshment here below;

In our labor, rest most sweet;

Grateful coolness in the heat;/ Solace in the midst of woe.

O most blessed Light divine,

Shine within these hearts of yours,/ And our inmost being fill!

Where you are not, we have naught,

Nothing good in deed or thought,/ Nothing free from taint of ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew;

On our dryness pour your dew;/ Wash the stains of guilt away:

Bend the stubborn heart and will;

Melt the frozen, warm the chill;/ Guide the steps that go astray.

On the faithful, who adore

And confess you, evermore/ In your sevenfold gift descend;

Give them virtue's sure reward;

Give them your salvation, Lord;/ Give them joys that never end.

Amen, Alleluia.

PSALM

Ps 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!

How manifold are your works, O LORD!

the earth is full of your creatures;

R Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;

may the LORD be glad in his works!

Pleasing to him be my theme;

I will be glad in the LORD.

R Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

If you take away their breath, they perish
and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.

R Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

GOSPEL

Jn 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews,

Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.”

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side.

The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them,

“Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART

June is the Month of the Sacred Heart, because the feast of the Sacred Heart is celebrated each year during this month.

It all started when St. Margaret Mary Alacoque received private revelations from Jesus Christ. Jesus spoke to her on June 16, 1675, and asked her specifically to promote a feast that honored his Sacred Heart.

"I ask of you that the Friday after the Octave of Corpus Christi be set apart for a special Feast to honor My Heart, by communicating on that day, and making reparation to It by a solemn act, in order to make amends for the indignities which It has received during the time It has been exposed on the altars. I promise you that My Heart shall expand itself to shed in abundance the influence of Its Divine Love upon those who shall thus honor It, and cause It to be honored."

The feast of Corpus Christi has been celebrated after Trinity Sunday for many centuries and always falls during the month of June.

The precise date fluctuates each year, as it is determined by the celebration of Easter.

It took until 1856 for the feast of the Sacred Heart to be officially celebrated by the universal Church, and ever since then the month of June has been focused on devotion to the Heart of Jesus and his divine love for humanity. (Aleteia, 2021)

ASK DEACON JOE

At Benediction, when the priest or deacon says, "You have given them bread from heaven," what is the proper response? Everyone seems to say something different and it ends up a mumbled mess each Thursday evening. What is the current translation?

I agree that it is very confusing. As a matter of tradition, I have always responded, "Having within it all sweetness." But I tried to check the official Order for the Solemn Exposition of the Holy Eucharist to see what it says. And I was surprised to find that the exchange between the minister and the congregation is not even mentioned. Apparently, the exchange is actually an addition to the Tantum Ergo hymn which is sung to initiate the Benediction rite. And the response in the original Latin is, "Omne delectamentum in se habentem." So, how should this be translated? I went to a couple of online translators and I found, "Everything delicious in one bowl," and "Having in it every delicious thing," and also "Every dish is delicious." None of these seems very appropriate, so I checked the U.S. Bishops' website and found, "Having all delight within it," which is much more similar to the traditional response. It is also similar to, but still

CEMETERY COMMITTEE

In order to preserve and improve conditions at Mt. Loretto Cemetery for current and future generations; the parish will be organizing a cemetery committee to strategize and plan for the upkeep and maintenance of the graves and grounds.

Please make sure to stay abreast of the committee's activities through the parish website and weekly bulletin.

If you have any questions or concerns; please contact Andrew Sprankle at (706)840-1568, or email office@lapeercatholic.org different from, the text in our missalettes that many use as an accompaniment during Benediction. It reads, "Containing in itself all delight." An 1857 collection of prayers gives us, "And therein was sweetness of every kind." Wikipedia claims that the literal translation is, "Having in itself all delight." But they go on to say that, "Having within it all sweetness" fits better when the response is sung along with Tantum Ergo.

No wonder the response on Thursday evening is so muddled. I have talked with Fr. Hurley and Deacon Butler and we are in agreement that we should use the traditional response, "Having within it all sweetness," since we typically sing the Tantum Ergo and chant the exchange. Let us respond clearly and confidently lifting one voice in praise to the Lord.
