SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING

Dt 30:10-14

Moses said to the people:

"If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul.

"For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

SECOND READING

Col1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him.

He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

GOSPEL

Lk 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said,

"Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law?

How do you read it?"

He said in reply,

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live."

But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

Jesus replied,

"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight.

He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.'

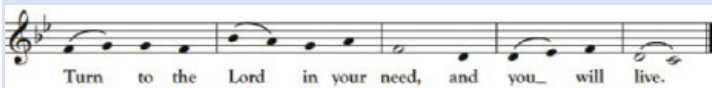

Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?"

He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy."

Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

PSALM

Ps 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

I pray to you, O LORD,
for the time of your favor, O God!
In your great kindness answer me
with your constant help.

Answer me, O LORD, for bounteous is your kindness:
in your great mercy turn toward me.

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

I am afflicted and in pain;
let your saving help, O God, protect me.
I will praise the name of God in song,
and I will glorify him with thanksgiving.

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

"See, you lowly ones, and be glad;
you who seek God, may your hearts revive!
For the LORD hears the poor,
and his own who are in bonds he spurns not."

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

For God will save Zion
and rebuild the cities of Judah.
The descendants of his servants shall inherit it,
and those who love his name shall inhabit it.

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

ST. HENRY - JULY 13

Saint Henry was born in 972 to Henry, Duke of Bavaria, Germany, and his wife Gisela of Burgundy. Saint Henry's early life was permeated with Christianity, among those who guided his education was Bishop Wolfgang of Ratisbon, who became a saint himself. In 995, Saint Henry succeeded his father as Duke of Bavaria, and in 1002, upon the death of his cousin, Otho III, he was elected emperor. In 1014, Saint Henry undertook the long journey from Germany to Rome to be crowned Holy Roman Emperor by Pope Benedict XIII.

In 1022 Saint Henry assisted Pope Benedict VIII in holding the Council of Pavia, which promoted clerical celibacy and sought to end simony (the buying and selling of ecclesiastical goods and offices). During his reign, Saint Henry used his wealth and position for the Church. He confirmed Benedict's authority over Rome, was a patron of churches and monasteries, supported the Cluniac Reforms, restored episcopal sees, and founded the Diocese of Bamberg where he built a cathedral. Saint Henry was married to Cunigunde of Luxembourg, to whom he was incredibly devoted. Although disputed by some historians, some stories of the couple's marriage report they took vows of chastity because their union was childless. Saint Henry died in July of 1024 and was canonized in 1146 by Pope Eugene III.

MASS SCHEDULE CHANGES

Due to our new Family of Parishes grouping, there is no longer Mass on Wednesdays here at Immaculate Conception. Wednesday Mass is now at St. Cornelius in Dryden at 9AM, followed by Confessions.

See the parish website for any other schedule changes due to the Family of Parishes.

FAMILY OF PARISHES

There will be a second family gathering on July 19 at 7PM here at Immaculate Conception. For more information on what this means for our parish, visit familiesofparishes.org.

COME PRAY WITH US

Every Saturday, we say the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3PM, and the Rosary at 3:55PM. Come join us before Saturday Mass to pray for all of the parish intentions.

KICKIN' BACK- SAVE THE DATE

Mark your calendars for Saturday, August 27 at 6PM. The band "Kickin' Back" is playing a concert in the BK Community Room. Stay tuned for more details on this event!

HOMESCHOOL CO-OP FALL 2022

From the Mission Statement

Immaculate Conception Homeschool Group is a group of lay faithful Roman Catholic parents who view homeschooling as a beautiful way to educate our children and understand that being surrounded with like-minded families only aids in the support of the children's' religious, academic, moral, and social formation.

Beginning this September, the Immaculate Conception Homeschool families are starting a co-op on Tuesdays from 9AM-2PM. The day will begin with morning Mass, followed by classes in Science, Art, Music, and P.E. The classes are for grades K-8, with opportunities for high school students, as well as a Preschool classroom.

Registration for the co-op will only be open through the month of July. The cost will be minimal, only to cover materials needed for the classes.

Parents will be expected to volunteer in some capacity, and must be on location during the classes.

The co-op is open to any homeschool parishioners of Immaculate Conception and other regular Mass attendees at the parish as space permits.

If you would like more information about the co-op, see the "Homeschool" tab on the parish website under "Parish Apostolates". There you can find the complete co-op Mission Statement, get more details, and fill out a registration form to get your students signed up for Fall 2022.

If you have more questions, please contact Jessica Schlaud (schlaudj19@gmail.com)

ASK DEACON JOE

Why are there votive candles to light?

The Merriam-Webster dictionary defines the adjective votive: "consisting of or expressing a vow, wish, or desire." And so we have votive candles to light to express a prayer intention or in thanksgiving for a prayer that was answered. The light of the candle flame symbolizes our prayer and an acknowledgement of the presence Jesus in our lives. At baptism we "receive the light of Christ" in the form a candle lit from the Paschal Candle, itself a symbol of Christ. We are instructed that the light is to be "kept burning brightly" throughout our lives.

Lighting votive candles is in some way reminiscent of the burnt offerings of the Old Testament and in some ways similar to the use of incense during liturgical celebrations. Our petitions go up to Heaven with the rising smoke. The candle is consumed like the animal sacrifice that was consumed on the altars of the Israelites. By making a donation for the candle we are offering our sacrifice to God.

We light a candle and offer our prayer. While we cannot stay in church all day, or all week, our candle stays alit as a symbol of our continued prayer. My wife, Jenni tells a humorous story from her childhood. Growing up, she lived down the street from St. Joan of Arc Church in St. Clair Shores. One day, when she was about 7 or 8, she rode down the street and wandered into the church by herself. She saw the display of votive candles with only a few of them lit and thought how lonely Jesus must be. It would be so much more beautiful for Jesus if all of the candles were lit. And then she proceeded to do just that. She proudly went home and told her grandmother who was babysitting at the time. A look of panic came over grandma's face saying, "Oh no, were going to go to Hell!" She gave Jenni $10, a huge sum at the time, and sent her back down to the church to make a donation.
