SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING

Gn 18:1-10a

The LORD appeared to Abraham by the terebinth of Mamre, as he sat in the entrance of his tent, while the day was growing hot. Looking up, Abraham saw three men standing nearby.

When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them; and bowing to the ground, he said: "Sir, if I may ask you this favor, please do not go on past your servant. Let some water be brought, that you may bathe your feet, and then rest yourselves under the tree. Now that you have come this close to your servant, let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves; and afterward you may go on your way." The men replied, "Very well, do as you have said." Abraham hastened into the tent and told Sarah, "Quick, three measures of fine flour! Knead it and make rolls."

He ran to the herd, picked out a tender, choice steer, and gave it to a servant, who quickly prepared it. Then Abraham got some curds and milk, as well as the steer that had been prepared, and set these before the three men; and he waited on them under the tree while they ate.

They asked Abraham, "Where is your wife Sarah?"

He replied, "There in the tent."

One of them said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah will then have a son."

PSALM

Ps 15:2-3, 3-4, 5

He who does jus-tice will live in the pres-ence of the Lord.

One who walks blamelessly and does justice; who thinks the truth in his heart and slanders not with his tongue.

R. He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

Who harms not his fellow man, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbor; by whom the reprobate is despised, while he honors those who fear the LORD.

R. He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

Who lends not his money at usury and accepts no bribe against the innocent. One who does these things shall never be disturbed.

R. He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

SECOND READING

Col 1:24-28

Brothers and sisters:

Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church, of which I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God, the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past.

But now it has been manifested to his holy ones, to whom God chose to make known the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory. It is he whom we proclaim, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone perfect in Christ.

GOSPEL

Lk 10:38-42

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said,

"Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me."

The Lord said to her in reply,

"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things.

There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

ST. BRIDGET OF SWEDEN - JULY 23

Saint Bridget or Birgitta was born in 1303, the daughter of Birger Petersson, governor of Uppland and his wife Ingeborg Bengtsdotter. She was married to Ulf Gudmarsson, who became governor of the province of Nericia. They had eight children, all of whom survived past infancy which was rare for the 12th century. One of their daughters would become St. Catherine of Sweden.

Saint Bridget was hailed as a mystic and her visions, which began in her early childhood when she had visions of Christ Crucified, made her somewhat of a Middle Ages celebrity. Her vision of the Nativity of Jesus even influenced the art of the Nativity through the Baroque era! She is said to have predicted the Vatican State. Saint Bridget's Revelations, which she dictated to Peter Olafsson, the prior at the Cistercian monastery of Alvastra near which she retired after her husband's death in 1344, were published in 1492. They have since been published in many languages and can still be purchased today.

Some of her most profound visions regarded the founding of a new religious order which would be primarily for women, ruled by an abbess, but with a separate house for monks who would serve as order chaplains. Her visions detailed everything from the abbey church to the clothing that would be adopted as the nun's habit, and how the order would be ruled. King Magnus II of Sweden granted Bridget land and buildings. The order, called the Bridgettines or the Order of the Most Holy Savior was approved by Pope Urban V in 1370.

Saint Bridget was canonized in 1391 by Pope Boniface IX and in 1999 Pope John Paul II named her one of the Patron Saints of Europe.

We provide many services to the homebound members of our parish. We transport to church, doctor appointments, prescription pick up, grocery shopping or pick up, visits to Assisted Living facilities, Nursing homes, and private homes for prayer and support, if these services can be done safely. If you are aware of any parishioner that could benefit from our services pick up a pamphlet in the back of the church and call the number listed God Bless!

CURRICULUM SALE AND SWAP

The Homeschoolers are having their fourth annual curriculum sale and item swap on August 12. Bring any gently-used clothing items, housewares, books, games, toys, etc. that you no longer need to the General Squire Park pavilion in Dryden at 1PM. No money is exchanged for the swap, take what you like and leftovers will be taken to a local donation center.

We will have a separate area for the curriculum sale so that people can buy/sell curriculum. You will need to man your own table if you plan to sell curriculum and arrive at 10:30AM, but we will set up an area for that and make sure the sale is clearly marked as not part of the free Swap. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Catechists sought for 2022-2023 School Year

“Then since the gifts that we have differ according to the grace that was given to each of us: if it is a gift of prophecy, we should prophesy as much as our faith tells us. If it is a gift of practical service, let us devote ourselves to serving; if it is teaching, to teaching.”

-- Romans 12: 6-7

Even though we've just celebrated Independence Day, it is time to begin preparing for the 2022-2023 Religious Education Program. Won't you please consider helping our children grow in the knowledge of God and His one, holy, Catholic, and apostolic Church? We need teachers and classroom aides to lead Grades Pre-K through 8. We will give you all the materials and the help you need. Our classes begin Wednesday, September 4, from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

As with any volunteers, all catechists and classroom aides must undergo a criminal background check and complete the Archdiocesan "Protecting God's Children" training (or arrange to complete it as soon as possible).

Whether you are a returning catechist or new to our program, we appreciate all the help you can provide. For more information or to sign up, please contact Laura Brestovansky at lbrestovansky@lapeercatholic.org or call 810-664-0808 M-F from 9 a.m.-3 p.m.

ASK DEACON JOE

Why do some deacons wear a black outfit and white collar like a priest? They are not priests. They should not be wearing these vestments!

According to Canon Law: "Clerics are to wear suitable ecclesiastical garb according to the norms issued by the conference of bishops and according to legitimate local customs" (Can. 284). What is meant by "suitable ecclesiastical garb" changes over time and in different places. In 1998, the National Conference of Catholic Bishops approved a complementary norm to Can. 284 which states in part: "Outside liturgical functions, a black suit and Roman collar are the usual attire for priests." So all priests wear the Roman collar, but not all that wear the Roman collar are priests. And this can cause confusion.

Seminarians are allowed to wear Roman collars while at the seminary after being admitted into candidacy. And you have probably observed Protestant ministers, both male and female, wearing Roman collars with shirts of all different colors. But what about deacons?

According to Canon Law, the requirements to wear ecclesiastical garb "do not bind permanent deacons unless particular law establishes otherwise" (Can. 288). So deacons don't have to wear clerical clothing, but are they allowed to? Well this question is left to the bishops to decide. For us in the United States, the National Deacon Directory states: "Because they are prominent and active in secular professions and society, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops specifies that permanent deacons should resemble the lay faithful in dress and matters of lifestyle. Each diocesan bishop should, however, determine and promulgate any exceptions to this law, as well as specify the appropriate clerical attire if it is to be worn" (89).

And so it comes down to the local bishop to decide when deacons

HOMESCHOOL CO-OP

Beginning this September, the Immaculate Conception Homeschool families are starting a co-op on Tuesdays from 9AM-2PM. The day will begin with morning Mass, followed by classes in Science, Art, Music, and P.E. The classes are for grades K-8, with opportunities for high school students, as well as a Preschool classroom.

Registration for the co-op will only be open through the month of July. The cost will be minimal, only to cover materials needed for the classes.

If you would like more information about the co-op, see the "Homeschool" tab on the parish website under "Parish Apostolates". There you can find the complete co-op Mission Statement, get more details, and fill out a registration form to get your students signed up for Fall 2022.

If you have more questions, please contact Jessica Schlaud (schlaudj19@gmail.com) can appropriately wear clerical attire. The policy in the Archdiocese of Detroit has changed over time. It was very restrictive 22 years ago when I was ordained—I never even owned a clerical shirt with a Roman collar until a couple of years ago. Here is the current policy from the 2017 Permanent Deacon Handbook for our diocese:

"Permanent Deacons are allowed to wear the Roman Collar within the Archdiocese of Detroit under the following conditions:

- When presiding at liturgical functions in and outside of the parish.
- While involved in pastoral ministry at hospitals, cemeteries, prisons and other facilities where the Roman collar serves as a valuable witness. Deacons wearing the Roman Collar are to ensure that they are known as deacons and should wear a designator pin or some other type of identity" (3.2)

From the end of the statement, it is clear that the Archbishop is also concerned about people confusing deacons with priests. The statement mentions the Roman collar, but does not comment on the color of the shirt. Because I also share your concern about reducing confusion, I have made the personal decision to only wear a gray clerical shirt on the few occasions that I wear one at all.
