THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." - Mt 2:1-2

Holy Family Catholic Church

"We are called as a family to know, love and serve God."

We are one family of faith with many diverse and gifted members. We are many parts forming one Body of Christ. We are called to minister to one another with respect, dignity and compassion.

A NOTE FROM FATHER PHIL

I don't expect to receive any gold, frankincense or myrrh this year. I don't think I'd want any myrrh anyway, although the resin is used medicinally for everything from eye trouble to hemorrhoids. Maybe myrrh should be more widely available for people with a crappy view of life.

I do expect other gifts, however. Fresh hope is one.

The COVID-19 vaccine is in use, bringing with it a sense of optimism. I marvel at how quickly this medicine has been manufactured. A great accomplishment by our doctors and scientists. And, of course, Dolly Parton who donated a million dollars to the cause. I don't have a million dollars, but I do have an arm and a willingness to get the two shots as soon as I am able. It is a charity thing. An opportunity to protect not only myself, but the many people with whom I have contact. It will help create herd immunity so that we can safely gather together and businesses can open fully. Give the economy a shot in the arm, so to speak.

I would like to see Doctor Anthony Fauci canonized some day, but not this year. I feel safer knowing someone of his intellect, experience, and demeanor is advising the country. Plus he is short. I like that in a person.

I pray for good things for our outgoing President and for our incoming one. No easy job that!

Another gift I am looking forward to this year is the Kentucky Derby being run on the first Saturday of May. Watching the race over Labor Day Weekend seemed sick and wrong. The Derby was not alone in that regard. The Stanley Cup Playoffs starting in August, the Masters Golf Tournament played in November, the NBA playoffs taking place in a bubble at Disney World in September, and College and High School schedules made up on the fly all seemed off. This year I hope it will be easier to keep track of not only what day it is, but what month and season of the year it is.

Speaking of Kentucky, I look forward to a nice sip of Knob Creek from time to time. And, soon I hope to finish the Journals of Thomas Merton. Merton was a Trappist monk at Gethsemani Abbey near Bardstown, Kentucky. He was one of the most influential spiritual writers of the last century. I like his journals because they are uncensored and an easy read. Get a better sense of the man: his thoughts, feelings, fears, frustrations, temptations, joys, friends, desires, humor, prayer and the like.

I look forward to making a retreat this year not at Gethsemani, but, rather at another Trappist Monastery, New Melleray Abbey near Dubuque, Iowa. The retreat center has been closed due to the pandemic, but I trust it will open up later this year.

I hope the border with Canada also opens up so I can get to Stratford this summer or fall for its Shakespeare Festival.

I hope that Father Loc has a fruitful year and finds renewed vitality and a clear focus.

My own focus is on retirement at the end of 2021. I am really looking forward to it. Definitely more than I am for some myrrh.

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING:

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. (Is 60:1)

PSALM:

Lord, every nation on earth will adore you. (Ps 72)

SECOND READING:

It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (Eph 2:5-6)

GOSPEL:

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. (Mt 2:10-11)

REFLECT

FIRST READING

In late 6th century BC, the prophet Isaiah proclaimed an unimaginable future of glory for Israel in the wake of their return from seventy years of captivity in Babylon. What message of hope does our nation need today?

SECOND READING

Paul speaks of God's "revelation" to include Gentiles as "coheirs" and "copartners" with Jews in the divine promise fulfilled in Christ Jesus. How welcoming are you to those you consider outsiders?

GOSPEL READING

The magi's visit to discover the "newborn king of the Jews" caused great anxiety for the religious leaders of Jerusalem, including King Herod. Why do you think some people are not open to the good news of Jesus Christ?

GOOD NEWS

January 3, 2021

A friend who is a fundamentalist insists Epiphany happened exactly as it says in the Bible. I say there's no way it could have. Who is right?

Catholics believe each book of the Bible needs to be appreciated according to the principles of its own literary genre. We don't look to the Gospels for modern critical history or unbiased biographical/ reportorial fact-telling.

The four Gospels were written under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Each Gospel writer uses human skill to craft a true story, presenting the saving mystery of our Lord's life, death, and resurrection so that readers may come to know Christ, share his life, and be saved.

Every story in the Gospels is shaped to communicate saving truth, but not every story is told as a direct "just the facts, ma'am" report of sequential events. So there is a saving sense in which, yes, the Epiphany happened exactly as it says in Matthew 2:1-12. And there is a more literal sense in which, no, the Epiphany probably did not happen exactly as it's recounted.

What is most certain is the Gospel's saving message of the birth of our true king, the light to all nations, before whom we offer homage and who, when we encounter him, will change our lives and send us home in a new path.

Fr. Matthew Allman, CSsR

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Even the slightest flicker of a light helps to properly orient us when we find ourselves in total darkness. Being in darkness can be unsettling and even a bit unnerving. We lose our focus and struggle to find our bearings and achieve balance. On life's journey we may think we are walking in the light but are really lingering in darkness. We do not see the full picture, either because we are distracted, disinterested, or even apprehensive. Sometimes, we even choose to close our eyes when the light is readily available to illuminate our path. Do we really desire to know the truth of who we are? In Jesus Christ, a light has been given to those who dwell in darkness. God's revelation gives us the light to see where we come from, who we are and where we are going. It also tells us that this Good News is not meant for just a privileged few but is intended to go out to all the world. Is this something we want to see?

Be the Beacon of Hope—Donate Blood

Holy Family will be hosting the next Caledonia Community Church blood drive on Tuesday, January 12 from 1:00 to 6:30pm. By sharing 50 minutes of time you could save someone's life. Help your community by giving the gift of life to a patient in need. Masks and social distancing will still be observed.

Streamline your process for check in by doing an online verification ON THE DAY OF YOUR DONATION. Log into <https://bit.ly/CALjan12>, review education materials, complete the online questions and bring printed or mobile confirmation to your scheduled appointment-without this confirmation you will be asked to fill out the questions again.

Appointment times are every 5 minutes. Donors without appointments will be fit into an open time slot. If interested in donating blood you may sign up at <https://bit.ly/CALjan12> or call Char Mello, chairperson 616-901-2803. Please join us for good fellowship, trail mix and snacks.

UPCOMING BLOOD DRIVE DATES

Tuesday's Mar 9, May 11, July 13, Sept 14, Nov 9

AN IMPACT STORY BY EMILY ALANIS

Emily Alanis, and her son, Elliot, were saved thanks to the generosity of blood and platelet donors.

When she was pregnant, Emily was diagnosed with Immune Thrombocytopenic Purpura (ITP), a rare blood disorder that causes low platelet levels. With low platelets, Emily's blood could not clot – and the condition was passed on to her baby. Both of their lives were at risk.

Emily underwent a C-section to deliver Elliot, after which both of them received blood and platelet transfusions. Elliot spent a week in the NICU, but thanks to three transfusions, his bleeding stopped. Now, he and his mom both have bright futures ahead together.

"It brings tears to my eyes. My newborn received the gift of life from blood donors," says Emily. "I have always been passionate about blood donation, but now I am at a whole new place of understanding and appreciation."

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

"Where is that thing?" mumbled Bob as he searched frantically on his dimly lit desk for the current electric bill. "I know I put it right on top of these papers this morning!" Growing in frustration and bordering on anger, he flies stuff around, moves books and opines why simple tasks need to be so hard. Enter his wife, who calmly says, "Maybe it would help if you put the light on, dear." The desk light goes on and lo and behold, there is the electric bill right where Bob left it earlier. All it took was a little light!

We stubbornly refuse to turn on the lights! Either we are distracted, determined, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Or perhaps, we fail to do the obvious. We would rather live our lives with the dimmest of lights or even in total darkness. Why are we afraid to do something so that we can actually see? It might help us to find quicker and better answers to problems, the meaning of life, relationships, happiness, and what is ultimate truth. Yet, we stumble along, moving things from one side to the other, getting angry, feeling cheated, being unsettled, resigning ourselves to the agony of defeat once again.

"And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was." The light has come into the world in the person of Jesus Christ! We no longer have to fumble in the darkness. We have been gifted with the illumination we need to see our way through things and find what we really are looking for. All these years later, however, so many are still reluctant to accept him. Perhaps they are unconvinced, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Everyone has their own reason for not wanting to turn on the switch.

But there are so many answers to so many of our problems in this humble Child of Nazareth. A simple birth teaches us about God's tender wedded relationship with humanity. It speaks to the expanse of God's salvation across the globe, and the incarnate Divine wonders and blessings that are a part of our life moment to moment. It calls us to understand the design of world order God intended as found in the Beatitudes, the sacredness of every human life and all of creation and the meaning of things we struggle with most, like suffering and death. We

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A CHASTISEMENT AND A PUNISHMENT?

The distinction between chastisement and punishment is, in many ways, a subtle one, but which is still relevant in our Catholic tradition.

First, chastisement is a concept that is grounded in Sacred Scripture. Here, we see chastisement as a response by God to people's actions that is intended to teach a lesson. As St. John Paul II observed, "chastisement appears to be ... a kind of divine pedagogy, in which the last word is reserved to mercy: He scourges and then shows mercy, casts down to the depths of the nether world, and he brings up from the great abyss" (Tobit 13:2). The idea here is that in order to capture our attention or to highlight how we have not lived out our covenant-relationship with God as we should, there are times when God uses events in life to draw us back to the quality of relationship or faith that we should have.

The concept of punishment, however, has a different sense. The Catechism of the Church observes that punishment is the consequence of a damaging action that "has the primary aim of redressing the disorder" and to protect the community and the common good from further damage or harm (see no. 2266). Although we always hope that someone who is being punished for a crime or some other harmful action will learn from their actions, punishment isn't necessarily intended to teach a lesson in the same way that a chastisement is.

Ultimately, how we make the distinction between chastisement and punishment is a matter of discernment. As with almost everything in life, our experiences can be an opportunity for grace — or for something less — depending on how open we are to recognizing the movement of God's Spirit within them.

WISE MEN SEE GOD IN THE SIMPLE THINGS

If you're on social media, you have probably seen a meme going around that features this quote: "God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace."

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God's and Herod's. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn't entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn't say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I'll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod's charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe.

The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it's enough to remember this: God's plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let's have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration.
