Traveling Vocation Chalice

April: Meg & Kevin Morrin

May: Laura Cousino

June: Paul & Julie Burgard

July: *Host Family Needed***

Please remember that we are called to celebrate Mass to receive Jesus Christ in Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. If we have no Priests, we have no Eucharist, and we have no Sacraments. You can do this. There is nothing to be afraid of. Please host the Traveling Vocational Chalice. If you are interested in hosting please text David Imbrogno at 419-467-2925.

Palm Sunday Schedule

- Sat. 5:00 PM & Sun. 7:30 AM: The blessing of palms and the proclamation of the Gospel of the Lord's entrance into Jerusalem will take place before Mass in the vestibule.
- Sun. 10:30 AM: The procession will take place starting in the school cafeteria, where you will receive your palms for the blessing.
- Sun. 4:30 PM: Palms will have already been blessed and may be taken after Mass.

There is both great joy and terrible sorrow associated with this day, the Sunday that begins Holy Week, the Sunday that portends the crucifixion of Our Lord.

For children ages 4-10

Over twenty years ago, I left the Civil Air Patrol. At the time, I was a community college student, eager to move on from the familiar faces and shared struggles of adolescence. This past year, curiosity led me to revisit old photos from those days, and I reached out to an old friend who still kept in touch with some members.

The idea of reconnecting with people I hadn't seen in over two decades—almost half my life—once seemed daunting. Back then, priesthood was the furthest thing from my mind. My dreams leaned toward the Air Force, a reflection of youthful ambition rather than a disciplined calling. Since then, my journey has been marked by milestones, setbacks, and profound conversions. What could we possibly have in common now?

Yet, as we talked and caught up, I was surprised by the flood of good memories and the warmth of rekindled connections. Names I hadn't spoken in years came back effortlessly, and I marveled at the diverse paths everyone had taken. Some built families, while others faced challenges that reshaped their lives. In my priesthood, I've encountered countless stories of similar journeys—each unique yet bound by shared human struggles.

Palm Sunday, this next week, offers a powerful lesson for our era, especially in a world obsessed with curated online personas. It reminds us that true worth isn't measured by appearances or achievements, as social media might suggest, but by humble faith and the willingness to bear life's burdens. We imagine kings riding in triumph, yet Christ entered Jerusalem on a donkey, embracing humility. His example teaches us that the merit of life lies not in our accomplishments, but in how we carry the weight of God's grace.

He worked with human hands. He thought with a human mind. He acted with a human will, and with a human heart he loved. Born of the Virgin Mary, He has truly been made one of us, like us in all things except sin. As an innocent lamb He merited life for us by his blood which he freely shed. In Him God reconciled us from the bondage of the devil and of sin, so that each one of us could say with the Apostle: "the Son of God gave himself for me." (Gal 2:20)—Gaudium et Spes, 22

As we navigate the complexities of modern life—marked by rapid change, division, and the pressure to appear perfect—Palm Sunday calls us back to the heart of faith: humility, perseverance, and trust in God's plan.

Teach us to count our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart. (Ps 90:12)

God bless you, Fr. Louis Lapeyre
