Weekend Shares with Fr. Lapeyre

So, note on CSA this year because we're hoping to reach our target. One of the features of the Catholic Services Appeal is that Parishes fund the missionary work of the whole Diocese. In our case, that means the services of our Archdiocese of Detroit. Things like Seminary education and outreach to the poor, all these services provided through the Archdiocese come from the Catholic Services Appeal. I would add that it can also benefit the Parish, because funds raised above our target can go directly to our Parish services and important projects. Thank you for supporting our parish!

I also want to thank everyone on the Parish staff and volunteers who have been involved with our Vacation Bible School and Corpus Christi event this June. There was a first-class relic for those visiting Saint Joseph Parish during the past two weeks. We appreciate the AOD Worship office for providing this opportunity for our parishioners to reverence a first-class relic!

Last week, we celebrated Father's Day—a day that, as a kid, wasn't very different from Mother's Day in our household. Neither was marked with much fanfare unless someone reminded us. But as we got older, we started putting in more effort, whether it was pooling money for a gift or picking out a thoughtful card. Here's a bit of advice about gift cards from a priest. If you give a gift card, make sure it's for a place Dad actually shops—I've learned that the hard way!

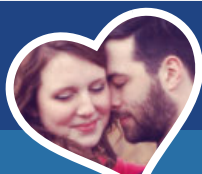

Today, though, is Corpus Christi, a feast that feels like a quiet counterpoint to the more personal celebrations of Father's Day. There's something grounding about the processions, the hymns, the way it stretches beyond just family and into community. After last week's small but meaningful gestures for Dad, today's focus on faith and tradition feels like the right way to step into summer. The Church teaches that the Eucharist isn't just a symbol, but the true Body and Blood of Christ, a gift of love that nourishes and unites us.

"Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the stalwart one who takes refuge in him." -Ps 34:9

God bless you! Fr. Lapeyre
