The Catholic Services Appeal is an opportunity for the faithful to respond to Christ's command "to love one another" (John 14:12) by helping to fund services that proclaim the Gospel of Christ throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit. Currently we have received generous pledges totaling $93,734.98! This is a great blessing, however, we still face a shortfall of $11,684. Every donation helps! They bring us closer to our goal of $105, 419 ensuring that essential programs throughout the Archdiocese continue.

Contributing to the CSA helps the mission to share the Gospel at St. Mary and beyond our parish. Our seminarian, Jake Rapanotti, and Deacon

Benjamin Schroder benefit from the CSA as it supports their preparation for the priesthood. Thank you to all who have given to the CSA this year. If you have not yet given, I invite you to prayerfully consider supporting the good work of the CSA in our Archdiocese.

Please visit <https://smro.givecsa.org/> for more information and to make a donation.

Last week, our seminarian Jake celebrated his birthday. Please keep him and all our seminarians in your prayers as they continue to discern God's will for their lives.

Oh God, hear our prayer for the men you have chosen to follow in your Son's footsteps. Teach them humility and fidelity to unselfishly help others. May their devotion to Our Blessed Mother, Queen of Vocations increase, enabling them to do your will. Strengthen their prayer life that they may grow spiritually without worldly distractions. Give them courage and perseverance in their studies. May the Holy Spirit lighten their struggles with their vocations, until they know the joy of being a priest. We ask this through Christ your Son. Amen.

St. Mary School is Hiring!

St. Mary Catholic School is looking for part time assistants for our aftercare shift (3:30pm-6pm). We are looking to fill positions in both our Preschool Latchkey and our K-8 Latchkey. This is a wonderful shift for students, retirees, anyone looking for part time work. Please reach out to pre-school@st-mary.org. Introduce yourself and let us know what days you are hoping to work!

The new mass setting can be found on the sheets in the pews.

First Reading | Numbers 11:25-29

The LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses.

Taking some of the spirit that was on Moses, the LORD bestowed it on the seventy elders; and as the spirit came to rest on them, they prophesied.

Now two men, one named Eldad and the other Medad, were not in the gathering but had been left in the camp. They too had been on the list, but had not gone out to the tent;

yet the spirit came to rest on them also, and they prophesied in the camp.

So, when a young man quickly told Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp,” Joshua, son of Nun, who from his youth had been Moses’ aide, said, “Moses, my lord, stop them.”

But Moses answered him, “Are you jealous for my sake?

Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets! Would that the LORD might bestow his spirit on them all!”

Responsorial Psalm | Psalm 19:8, 10, 12-13, 14

R. (9a) The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul; the decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the LORD are true, all of them just.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

Though your servant is careful of them, very diligent in keeping them, yet who can detect failings? Cleanse me from my unknown faults!

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

From wanton sin especially, restrain your servant; let it not rule over me. Then shall I be blameless and innocent of serious sin.

Second Reading | James 5:1-6

Come now, you rich, weep and wail over your impending miseries.
Your wealth has rotted away, your clothes have become moth-eaten,
your gold and silver have corroded,
and that corrosion will be a testimony against you;
it will devour your flesh like a fire.
You have stored up treasure for the last days.
Behold, the wages you withheld from the workers who harvested your fields are crying aloud;
and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.
You have lived on earth in luxury and pleasure;
you have fattened your hearts for the day of slaughter.
You have condemned;
you have murdered the righteous one;
he offers you no resistance.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Your word, O Lord, is truth;
consecrate us in the truth.

Gospel | Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

At that time, John said to Jesus, “Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us.”

Jesus replied, “Do not prevent him.
There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name
who can at the same time speak ill of me.
For whoever is not against us is for us.
Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink
because you belong to Christ,
amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.

“Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea.
If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off.
It is better for you to enter into life maimed
than with two hands to go into Gehenna,
into the unquenchable fire.
And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off.
It is better for you to enter into life crippled than with two feet to be thrown into Gehenna.
And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out.
Better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye
than with two eyes to be thrown into Gehenna, where ‘their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.’”

Offertory

Great Are You Lord

Verse

You give life. You are love. You bring light to the darkness. You give hope. You restore every heart that is broken. And great are You, Lord.

Bridge

And all the earth will shout Your praise.
Our hearts will cry, these bones will sing, “Great, are You, Lord! “

Communion

I am the Bread of Life

1. I am the Bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger; and who believe in me shall not thirst. No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread, you shall live for ever, you shall live for ever.

3. Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, and drink of his blood, you shall not have life within you.

4. I am the Resurrection, I am the life. If you believe in me, even though you die, you shall live for ever.

5. Yes, Lord, we believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, Who has come into the world.

4:30pm & 11am Communion Reflection

I Shall Be Healed

1. Oh, precious Father, tell me what good have I done? This gift You offer, that of Your precious Son, and yet, before His real presence now I feel I am not worthy, I am bruised and I am bent, I am so worldly and You are so heaven sent, sent from the Father, from the Son and sent to me.

2. Oh, blessed Mother, will you please pray for me? Is there another so pure and so holy except for He, except for He, except for He? I can't believe it, that You would shed Your blood and I receive it, I who was once a broken cup, but now I'm healed, but now I'm healed, but now I'm healed.

Bridge

Oh, my Lord, if you are willing I can be. You are willing... I can see the face of God; it's looking lovingly on me, and I am healed. How I love you, Lord, how I love you, Lord, how I love you, my precious Lord.

Sacred Heart Major Seminary Halloween Candy Donations

It's that time of the year again! Halloween is just around the corner, and Sacred Heart Major Seminary needs your help. Each year the seminary community opens their doors and their hearts to over 2000 children from the surrounding Detroit neighborhood so that the kids can have a fun and safe place to play games and trick-or-treat. But they need your help to make this year a success! They are asking for donations of Halloween candy that will then be passed out to the many kids. If you are willing to participate in this important ministry by donating bags of candy, please bring them to the Parish Office or the Church vestibule.

Catholic High School Information Night

October 2 | 6:30 - 8:30pm | St. Mary Fellowship Center

All middle school families interested in learning more about local Archdiocesan Catholic High Schools are invited to attend.

We go through many stages in our lives as women. Some are joy-filled and uplifting, while others bring trials that challenge who we know ourselves to be. As sisters in Christ, we look to our faith and community to strengthen us. Join us as we celebrate the gift of being women called to be witnesses of God's love to the world.

Speaker Judy Maten will be leading our evening of reflection! Judy has been in ministry for over thirty years. In 2013, Judy co-founded Via Maria Consulting, LLC working with individuals and parishes to form disciples prepared for mission.

Judy earned her Master's in Pastoral Studies from Sacred Heart Major Seminary. She completed the Ignatian Spirituality and Listening Ministry internship through Manresa Jesuit Retreat Center and is a commissioned spiritual director. She is also trained to lead the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises and is a spiritual director. Judy and her husband John are members of the National Shrine of the Little Flower. They have four children and eight grandchildren, with one on the way.

Held at St. Mary Catholic Church
730 S. Lafayette Ave, Royal Oak

MERCY IN ACTION DAY OF SERVICE

Whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me. (Matthew 25:40)

Greetings from the folks of Evangelical Charity! Mercy in Action Day is upon us! St. Mary will celebrate the annual Day of Mercy on Saturday, October 19. Whether you wish to feed the hungry, clothe the destitute, shelter the homeless, bring smiles to the elderly or nurture the infants, we have opportunities for you. You may volunteer by shopping for needed items and bringing them to the Fellowship Center between 8:00 and 11:30 the morning of October 19 or by taking a more active role and signing up for one of the volunteer positions (sandwich making, writing letters to seniors, cemetery clean up, or yard clean up). Items for infants, the homeless, the hungry and the lonely will be listed. We ask that you choose a few items and bring them to the Fellowship Center on October 19 where they will then be distributed to those in need. In addition to the list below, we will be collecting fresh meats and produce that will be distributed to needy families within a couple of days. These items should be brought to the fellowship center on October 19.

Sharing Our Gifts

Stewardship Thoughts from the Archdiocese of Detroit

Department of Development–Mission Advancement

In today's Second Reading, St. James reprimands the rich for unjustly withholding earnings from their workers, selfishly storing up treasures, and living in excessive luxury on earth. Wealth itself is not bad. But as faithful stewards who profess Christ, we must always be mindful that all gifts come from the Lord; we are to nourish and use them in a spirit of gratitude to build His Kingdom. In his Gospel, the evangelist St. Mark describes how providing someone a drink of water is witness to discipleship in Christ. In that spirit of stewardship, we are inspired to return a generous portion of our God-given resources back to the Lord through service to our parish and those in need. We can give back our monetary gifts to the Lord through our generosity to the weekly parish offertory, the Catholic Services Appeal, and other worthy causes. If you struggle with family finances, read Phil Lenahan's 7 Steps to Becoming Financially Free for guidance on reducing debt and increasing giving.
