When Jews celebrate the Passover, they always tell the story of the Exodus in present terms, as if they themselves experienced those events: when we were prisoners in Egypt; when God brought us out of slavery and through the waters of the sea. We would do well to follow their example and see the works of Jesus and his sacrifice as being in the present, as happening to us now.

We believe that Christ’s work, his teachings, and his sacrifice on the cross were not just for his followers in the past, but for all people at all times. When we think of this in our prayers, we become one in faith with that great cloud of witnesses, the saints.

We have been striving through Lent to repent of our sins and failings, and to follow Jesus more closely. Today in the story of the woman caught in adultery, we see Jesus forgiving the woman, saving her from a horrible death, and urging her not to sin any more. This is new, and brings out something for which the law had not allowed—forgiveness. Of course one can sin no more if one is dead, caught in one’s sins forever. But Jesus introduces the concepts of forgiveness and reconciliation.

I don’t think you’ll ever be able to penetrate the mystery of God’s revelation in Jesus until it strikes you that the major part of Jesus’ life was hidden and that even the “public” years remained invisible as far as most people were concerned. Whereas the way of the world is to insist on the things that really matter seldom take place in public. . . . Maybe, while we focus our whole attention on the VIPs and their movements, on getting maximum exposure, God prefers to work in secret. You must let that mystery of God’s secrecy, God’s anonymity, sink deeply into your consciousness because, otherwise, you’re continually looking at it from the wrong point of view. In God’s sight hidden and that even the “public” years remained invisible as far as most people were concerned. Whereas the way of the world is to insist on the things that really matter seldom take place in public...

GOOD FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 2019
Hi Everyone,

Can you believe Easter is right around the corner? Throughout Lent, our Music ministry has tried to help our parishioners in their Lenten journey, and at Easter, we will celebrate with great joy the fact that our Lord is risen from the dead!

Some of the earliest Christian hymns were written to give praise to the risen Christ. It’s not surprising, because music can help us express our devotion and praise to God in ways that lift the soul. Hopefully our own soul will be lifted by the music of our choirs, and everyone in our music department, as we celebrate this most sacred season.

It is my honor to serve as your music director. When I hear your voices singing and praising the Lord each week, you lift my soul.

I thank you for joining us for all the concerts this past season, for supporting our music program and our CFA. I really encourage you to join me, all my musical friends, and our wonderful adult and children’s choirs for our last concert of the season on Monday, April 22 or Tuesday, April 23 at 7:00 p.m. in our parish hall. It is going to be a wonderful evening of all styles of music. “A Thank You for the Music” send off for the end of winter season and my way of thanking all of you and all my musical friends for your support and a job well done. Please, come and thank them for their gift of music!

My entire family and I would also like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for your support during this difficult time as we have lost my beautiful wife Dawn to cancer. Your outpouring has been so comforting, and we are so grateful. You are truly a blessing to all of us. Thank You!

We are so blessed here at St. Agnes. May the Lord richly bless and keep you during this Lenten season and the Easter celebration to come.

Paul Todd

Pray the Stations of the Cross and meditate on the meaning of Easter with CRS Rice Bowl

Walk alongside Christ on the journey of his Passion and remember our brothers and sisters both around the world and in our own cities who experience suffering and poverty each day.

Watch the video of Thomas Awiape’s powerful testimony of how our Lenten sacrifices save lives like his as he gives a glimpse of how our Lenten fasting can turn into Easter joy for those most in need around the world.

Holy God, be with us now as we meditate on your Son’s journey to Calvary. Remind us that still, in this present day, many of your children continue that walk to Calvary, carrying heavy, difficult crosses. May we be Simon to those whose burdens are too heavy to be borne alone. May we be Veronica to those who need the touch of love and comfort. And may we, struggling with our own crosses, always remember your promises of justice, mercy and peace. Amen.

Find this and more Lenten resources at crsricebowl.org or through the app.
