Questions for the Week

First Reading

We hear in today's reading how the prophet Isaiah suffered for his commitment to his call and for his fidelity to the Lord. And yet, Isaiah never lost his faith in God. When has your faith been put to the test?

Second Reading

Paul recites an early Christological hymn to the Philippians describing Jesus' human and divine nature. The hymn states that Jesus "did not regard equality with God something to be grasped." What do you think this assertion is teaching us about Jesus' dual nature?

Gospel

In his account of the passion narrative, we hear how Luke emphasizes the innocence of Jesus, noting both Pilate and Herod (Antipas) find Jesus innocent. Why do you think Luke highlights the verdict of Jesus as "not guilty" of any capital crime?

Preguntas de la Semana

Primera Lectura

Escuchamos en la lectura de hoy cómo sufrió el profeta Isaías por su compromiso con su llamado y por su fidelidad al Señor. Y, sin embargo, Isaías nunca perdió su fe en Dios. ¿Cuándo ha sido puesta a prueba tu fe?

Segunda Lectura

Pablo recita un himno cristológico primitivo a los filipenses que describe la naturaleza humana y divina de Jesús. El himno dice que Jesús "no consideró que debía aferrarse a las prerrogativas de su condición divina." ¿Qué crees que nos está enseñando esta afirmación sobre la naturaleza dual de Jesús?

Evangelio

En su relato de la narración de la pasión, escuchamos cómo Lucas enfatiza la inocencia de Jesús, señalando que tanto Pilato como Herodes (Antipas) encuentran a Jesús inocente. ¿Por qué crees que Lucas destaca el veredicto de Jesús como "no culpable" de ningún crimen capital?

Live the Liturgy

Vivir la Liturgia

Hailed one moment and rejected the next. This seems to be the pattern that repeats itself not only throughout history but in our own lives as well. Jesus wants to be triumphantly welcomed into our hearts with joy! And welcome him we do! Then come the times when we do exactly the opposite and we reject the teachings of the Gospel and turn our backs on God's friendship. The one who at one time is a friend now becomes an enemy. Jesus understands our ambivalence. He lived it on the way to the cross. Understanding the full array of human emotion, God accepts us where we are. There is a great deal of drama on the road to Calvary. Our lives can be dramatic as well. In all of those whirlwind moments it can be difficult to find God's presence and understand his will. We walk with Jesus this week seeking inspiration and hope, the essential keys needed to unlock the door to God's presence in our lives.

Aclamado un momento y rechazado el siguiente. Este parece ser el patrón que se repite no solo a lo largo de la historia, sino también en nuestras propias vidas. ¡Jesús quiere ser recibido triunfalmente, en nuestro corazón, con gozo! ¡Y le damos la bienvenida! Luego llegan los momentos en que hacemos exactamente lo contrario y rechazamos las enseñanzas del Evangelio y damos la espalda a la amistad de Dios. El que alguna vez fue amigo, ahora se convert en enemigo. Jesús comprende nuestra ambivalencia. Lo vivió camino a la cruz. Comprendiendo toda la gama de emociones humanas, Dios nos acepta donde estamos. Hay mucho drama en el camino al Calvario. Nuestras vidas pueden ser dramáticas también. En todos esos momentos de torbellino, puede ser difícil encontrar la presencia de Dios y comprender su voluntad. Caminamos con Jesús esta semana buscando inspiración y esperanza, las llaves esenciales necesarias para abrir la puerta a la presencia de Dios en nuestras vidas.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGÉLIO

APRIL 10, 2022 | PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

En el Domingo de Ramos, también llamado de la Pasión del Señor, la Iglesia recuerda la entrada triunfante de Cristo nuestro Señor a Jerusalén para consumir el Misterio Pascual. Hoy, se bendicen las palmas que llevamos a casa después de la Misa. Ya en casa las colocamos en un lugar especial para recordar y celebrar la Semana Santa que se avecina. También, se escuchan dos lecturas del Evangelio. La primera para la procesión de entrada y la segunda de la Pasión del Señor. La Cuaresma fue un tiempo de meditación y conversión que nos guio hasta este Domingo de Ramos.

Ahora, debemos acompañar al Señor en su Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección con la celebración del Triduo Pascual. El Papa Francisco aun en este tiempo de recuperación del sufrimiento causado por la pandemia nos da un impulso a seguir confiando en la esperanza y alegría de la Resurrección. “Jesús es nuestro amigo, nuestro hermano. Él nos ilumina en nuestro camino. Y así lo hemos acogido hoy. Esta es la primera palabra que quisiera decirles: Alegría. No sean hombres y mujeres tristes: un cristiano jamás puede serlo. Sigamos a Jesús. Nosotros acompañamos, seguimos a Jesús”. Palabras, que nos consuelan y animan en cada circunstancia de nuestra vida. ¿Qué haremos durante esta Semana Santa para acompañar a Jesús en su Pasión? ¿Cómo celebraremos la alegría de la Pascua? De cualquier forma que lo hagamos reflexionemos en la frase del Evangelio de hoy. “¡Bendito el que viene como Rey en el nombre del Señor!” (Lucas 19:38).

GOSPEL MEDITATION

APRIL 10, 2022 | PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, “To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it runs contrary to what others are saying. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, in order to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues.” Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved and unjust death are all played out in dramatic fashion today. Jesus spoke of God’s unconditional love, mercy, and forgiveness. Who doesn’t like hearing about love, especially God’s? Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering, and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God’s love. All of those things occurred because of the implications of actually believing in God’s love.

God’s love comes with an intimate and equal bond with love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to truly see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God’s kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy, and forgiveness. Sometimes, people want to keep God’s love to themselves and use it solely for their own benefit. When they only want to use God’s love to justify their own intentions and for their own projects, problems occur.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look very attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that the sin expounds. This is what happened on Calvary. When you begin actually doing what Jesus is saying and translate love into action, it inevitably will upset popular and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these serve to protect status, foster personal gain and success, and further divide those who have from those who do not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear, at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cower back in fear and join the throngs shouting, “Crucify him!” There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough “to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues.”

It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to then accept the consequences of doing so.

I will say good words about my family and friends each day.

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion • Luke 22:14-23:56

Sharing the Gospel / Compartiendo el Evangelio

The friends of Jesus made a special parade just for him. The people liked Jesus. He fed them. He healed them. They wanted to crown him king. They were sure that with Jesus in charge, they could live in peace. When you praise God, and when you put Jesus in charge of your life, you really can live with peace in your heart!

Los amigos de Jesús hicieron un desfile especial solo para él. A la gente le gustaba Jesús. Él los alimentó. Él los sanó. Querían coronarlo rey. Estaban seguros de que con Jesús a cargo, podrían vivir en paz. Cuando alabas a Dios, y cuando pones a Jesús a cargo de tu vida, ¡realmente puedes vivir con paz en tu corazón!
