ORDINARY TIME

In the liturgical calendar of the Catholic Church, we go back to Ordinary Time. At first, the designation might seem a bit peculiar, since the word “ordinary” is oftentimes associated with things that are unimportant, insignificant, or just downright boring. The Church couldn’t possibly mean these types of things when speaking of the liturgy or a season of liturgies within the year. And so, what exactly is meant by Ordinary Time?

Well, the first answer is very practical. Considering the past several high holy days, today and the next several Sundays are rather uneventful, meaning, without a major event or teaching associated with them. After so many powerful feast days, the Church now returns to a season of typical Sundays and to a normal pace in the liturgy.

With this observation stated clearly, someone could innocently inquire about the focus of the Ordinary Time Masses. What does the Church give to believers who attend the liturgy during this season? This question might even be asked by those who regularly attend Mass but have never paid attention to the different seasons or to the shift in the various emphases of the seasons.

During Ordinary Time, the Church’s prayers, and selections of readings from the Sacred Scriptures have believers accompany the Lord Jesus in his public ministry. The Church selects healings, signs, and essential teachings from the life of Jesus Christ so that followers can be reminded, reaffirmed, consoled, and challenged in how they are living the Christian way of life. Through Ordinary Time, the community of disciples are once again told by the Lord to forgive, accept others generously, be healed and serve as instruments of healing, seek peace, live humbly, pray and trust in his care for them.

With this understanding, an awareness, beyond the practical, can quickly be grasped that Ordinary Time is anything but ordinary. The purpose and benefits of this season are rather extraordinary, indispensable, and fundamental to our following of the Lord Jesus. In fact, the season is one of the sources from which our Christian lives are fed and upon which our celebration of the high feasts is grounded.

If we do not know the way of Jesus Christ, how we can celebrate it? Ordinary Time, therefore, is the continuous echo of the Lord in the life of the church and in the hearts of those who love and follow him.

In approaching Ordinary Time in this way, some helpful spiritual lessons can be discerned from the season. As the Church slows its pace and returns to the public ministry and teachings of Jesus Christ, Christian believers (and people of good will) can see in this an invitation to slow the pace of their own lives, refocus attention on loved ones, evaluate personal convictions, and assess where their life is going and what changes they would like to make.

Ordinary Time can serve as a welcome signpost along the path of our discipleship and of our lives. It can be an opportunity for us to put urgent things in check, so that they don’t dominate our existence, and a sacred time for us renew and cherish important things so that our lives can flourish, and we can enrich the lives of others.

This examination of discipleship and of life, and the resolutions drawn from it, is a favorable chance to live in the present moment. Ordinary Time exemplifies the old Jesuit motto: Age quod agis, “Do what you’re doing.” Namely, we are told, do not worry about tomorrow, or yesterday. Do not worry about this afternoon or this morning. Live here, now. Do what you are doing. Ordinary Time stresses God as the Eternal Now. It humbles us with the lesson that we are most with God when we are in the present moment.

This is a spiritual point frequently made by the world’s most famous Jesuit, Pope Francis, who tells us: “Today does not repeat itself: this is life. Place all your heart, your open heart, open it to the Lord, not closed, not hard, not hardened, not without faith, not perverted, not deceived by sin. We go home with these two words only: ‘How is my ‘today’?’ But how are you, my today, in the presence of the Lord? And how is my heart? Is it open? Is it firm in the faith? Is it led by the Lord? With these two questions we ask the Lord for the grace to which each of us needs.”

As we enter the Sundays of Ordinary Time, we can take that question, “How is my today?” and let it assist us in walking with Jesus Christ, evaluating our lives, slowing our pace, and seeking God and our neighbor with greater sincerity.

*Front the Pastor's DeskParticipating in the Mass from home?

It is important to note here that we are obligated to participate in the Mass when we can do so. We are never obliged to do what is not possible. Many of us were not able to attend Mass because public Masses were not being celebrated. All of us in the Diocese of Venice also have been formally dispensed by our bishop from the obligation to attend Mass. In these cases, we are excused completely from our Mass obligation and do not have to do anything as a substitute.

However, most of us very much want to unite ourselves and our children to God and the Catholic Church during these trying times. And regardless of our ability to attend Mass, Sunday is still Sunday, and every Sunday -- even a quarantine Sunday -- is the Lord's Day.

On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are to refrain from engaging in work or activities that hinder the worship owed to God, the joy proper to the Lord's day, the performance of the works of mercy and the appropriate relaxation of mind and body. Family needs or important social service legitimately can excuse from the obligation of Sunday rest. The faithful should see to it that legitimate excuses do not lead to habits prejudicial to religion, family life and health. (Catechism of the Catholic Church 2185).

So, let us assume that we all want to observe Sunday to the best of our abilities -- in consideration of our circumstance -- and not encourage any prejudicial habits in ourselves and our children.

Canon law tells us that on Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Mass. (Canon 1247)

The words used are "participate" and in other places "assist." Mass is supposed to be an action for us, not something that happens passively in front of us. That is enough of a challenge when we are at a church surrounded by the community of believers. How can we get that feeling at home?

If we are prevented from attending Mass in person, it is recommended that we should watch a Mass on TV or online. Maybe that would work for you, and if so, carry on. But this suggestion that Mass on TV or online is a good substitute for actual Mass can be confusing to people long term and can have unintended consequences.

The suggestion in canon law is that if participation in the Eucharistic celebration becomes impossible because of the absence of a sacred minister or for another grave cause, it is strongly recommended that the faithful take part in a liturgy of the word if such a liturgy is celebrated in a parish church or other sacred place according to the precepts of the diocesan bishop or that they devote themselves to prayer for a suitable time alone, as a family, or, as the occasion permits, in groups of families. (Canon 1248)

As a family you can get dressed in your Sunday best and come together as a family as we would usually come together as a community. Wherever in your home you usually pray as a family (or if you do not have that spot yet, no time like the present to pick one) ideally in front of a crucifix or other religious image. You can light candles, blessed by a priest. You can sing a hymn. For the prayers of the Mass, you can read from the Magnificat.

They are offering free online access to everyone during this crisis, (<https://us.magnificat.net/free>) but it is highly, highly recommend subscribing to the physical version, as well (<https://bookstore.magnificat.net/subscription/index/index>). You can also subscribe to MagnifiKid for your children. It is available online, as well (<https://bookstore.magnificat.net/magnifikids>).

Any time you are not able to receive the Eucharist, you make an Act of Spiritual Communion.

Masses are not cancelled. Masses are occurring everywhere, all over the world. It is just that in many places, the faithful are not allowed or because of the conditions, they are not able to attend those Masses. We are celebrating Mass every day, at St. Catherine. We are celebrating it with you in mind and for your intentions. You can and should unite yourself to those Masses.

A good way to do this any time (not just pandemic time) is to make a morning offering each morning.

So, from your home, you can do your best to actively participate in the Mass, being offered at St. Catherine Church by your priests. Subscribe to our YouTube channels and join us. Invite the people that you know to subscribe.

Anyway, we really must try, especially in these altered circumstances, to make Sunday feel like a day set apart for God.

Fr. José

CARES Act

Around the world and here at St. Catherine, we are witnessing incredible acts of kindness, faith and generosity. People are helping one another, praying for each other and supporting those in need during these unprecedented times. We are so grateful that even during an economic crisis, individuals and families continue to support St. Catherine Parish and School.

As many people are aware of, the Federal Government recently passed the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act). However, most people are not aware that the CARES Act provides some additional tax benefits to those who donate to churches and other charitable organizations in 2020.

One of the new tax benefits will make it possible to take an above-the-line deduction for qualified charitable contributions up to $300 for the 90 percent of taxpayers who do not claim itemized deductions on their federal income tax returns.

The CARES Act also relaxes some of the limits on charitable contributions. There are not many people with the ability to donate most of their income to charities, but for those that do, they can now get an increased federal income tax deduction for qualified charitable contributions. The deduction limit has been increased from 60 percent of their Adjusted Gross Income to 100 percent for 2020. In addition, the limitation on corporate donors has been increased from 10 percent to 25 percent of taxable income. Corporations can also increase their food donations from 15 percent to 25 percent of taxable income.

These income tax changes were included by the Federal Government to help individuals and families continue their support during this pandemic for the charitable organizations about which they care most, including St. Catherine Church and School.

To learn more about the CARES Act or how to support St. Catherine Church and School, please contact Claudia Spradlin at (863)991-3271 or by email at claudia@stcathe.org. You can also visit our website at www.stcathe.org.

RED MEMORIAL CANDLES are in the back of the church adjacent to the Chapel. A Memorial Candle is lit and remains lighted at all times for one year in memory of a person who has passed away. You may commemorate a loved one by lighting a candle for one year with a donation of $150.

Please come to the Parish Office to make arrangements for a Memorial Candle which will be accompanied by a small plaque with the name of the person.
