FR. ERIC'S CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

From a theological point of view, Easter is the culmination and highlight of the Church year, and for good reason. But Christmas is the one that most often touches our hearts in surprising and unsuspecting ways. The imagery, pageantry, and symbols of the Christmas story continues to resonate deeply with our childlike self and sense of wonder. The consolation of the message of Christmas is unlike any other. Awe at the humility of a God who desires to be with us and become one of us, Emmanuel. God has not abandoned His people. A joining in the angels' joyful song of Peace! to people of good will. Christ is our Peace. Thanksgiving as the news goes out to all, near (the poor shepherds) and far (the magi). Hope that our salvation has finally come.

Christmas is near! Christ is coming! Are you ready? As we come to the close of the Advent Season and approach the celebration of Christmas, we may look back at the month of December and wonder at how quickly it all flew by. Was it a time of deeper prayer and intimacy with the Lord? A time where we renewed our hearts, longing for the God who can truly fulfill us? Or more likely for most of us, we were busy with holiday parties, shopping, traveling, and the many daily tasks that crop up. I love the Advent Season, but how difficult it can be to enter into during this busy time of the year! I am sure you can relate. It's ok though as we still have a few days to complete our journey to Bethlehem. A few more days to enter into the mystery, wonder, and grace of Christmas; to remind ourselves why and for Whom we celebrate this beautiful season. "For today in the city of David a savior has been born…"

Wishing you a Merry and Blessed Christmas!
Fr. Eric

"God's sign is His humility. God's sign is that he makes himself small; he becomes a child; he lets us touch him and he asks for our love. How we would prefer a different sign, an imposing, irresistible sign of God's power and greatness! But his sign summons us to faith and love, and thus it gives us hope: this is what God is like." ~ Pope Benedict XVI

Greetings to the Members & Potential Members of the Woman's Club

Don't give up - we will be getting together as soon as it is safe for us to do so. We look forward to seeing members at church on weekends and First Fridays. But what joy it will be for us to all get together and get back to our meetings once again.

Thanks to all who contributed the gifts to the Pines and the St. Vincent de Paul Giving trees. We are fulfilling our mission in spite of not being together. In the meantime, we wish you all a very joyful and blessed Christmas. We pray that you are all safe from the COVID-19 and will continue to remain so.

May the coming Christ Child fill your hearts with Peace, Love and Joy this Christmas and always ~ From the Officers and Members of the Incarnation Women's Club.

What's Been Happening @ ICS

We welcomed Bishop Frank J. Dewane at our school Mass on December 10th. It is a tradition that Bishop Dewane always takes time after the service to speak with our 8th grade students. The students had several interesting questions to ask, including how he became a bishop and when he knew he wanted to become a priest.

Pictured on the left is our principal, Dr. Chavez, reading to 1st grade students in the library.

Hope you enjoyed a live stream of the ICS Christmas play 'All About the Baby'.
Stay tuned for scenes from the play.

Penitential Act
I confess to almighty God and to you my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and what I have failed to do. (strike the breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask Blessed Mary, ever-Virgin and all the angels and saints to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria
Refrain: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Refrain

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us, you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

Refrain

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Refrain

Amen

Nicene Creed
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow head) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his Kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Preparation of the Gifts
May the Lord accept the Sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his Holy Church.

Invitation to Communion
Behold the lamb of God…
Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

O Salutaris Hostia
O salutaris Hostia
Qua caeli pandis ostium:
Bella premunt hostilia,

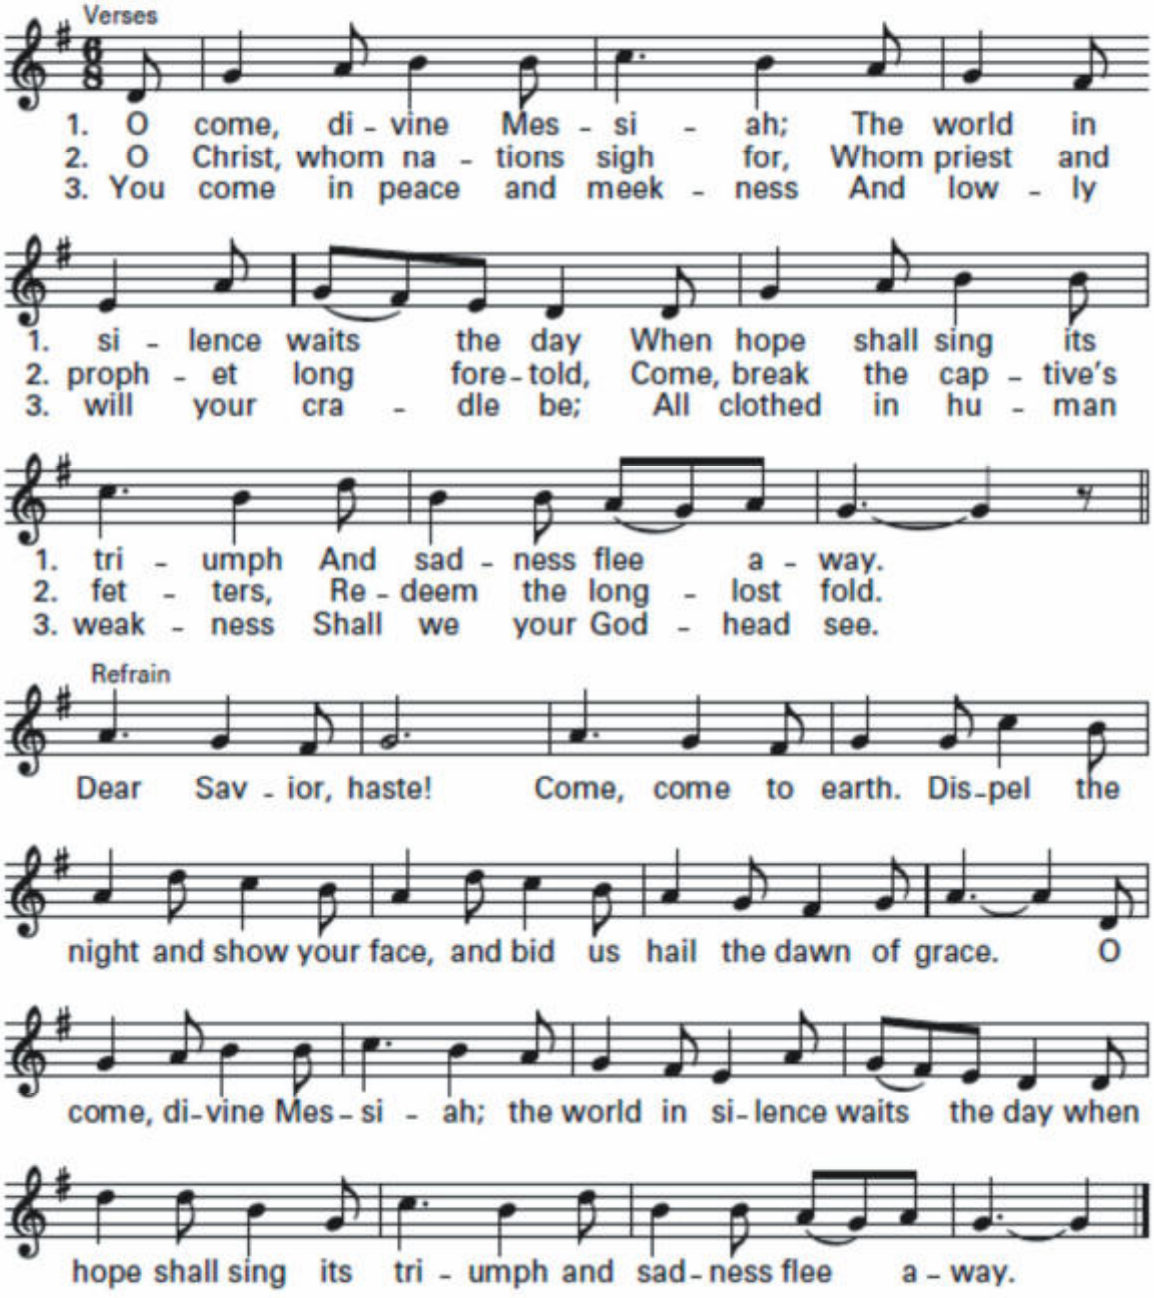
VENEZ, DIVIN MESSIE



Text: 78 76 with refrain; Abbé Simon-Joseph Pellegrin, 1663–1745; tr. by S. Mary of St. Philip, 1877.
Music: Trad. French Carol, 16th cent.

A Reading from the Book of the Second Samuel 2 SM 7:1-5, 8B-12, 14A, 16

When King David was settled in his palace, and the LORD had given him rest from his enemies on every side, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am living in a house of cedar, while the ark of God dwells in a tent!" Nathan answered the king, "Go, do whatever you have in mind, for the LORD is with you." But that night the LORD spoke to Nathan and said: "Go, tell my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD: Should you build me a house to dwell in?'" "'It was I who took you from the pasture and from the care of the flock to be commander of my people Israel. I have been with you wherever you went, and I have destroyed all your enemies before you. And I will make you famous like the great ones of the earth. I will fix a place for my people Israel; I will plant them so that they may dwell in their place without further disturbance. Neither shall the wicked continue to afflict them as they did of old, since the time I first appointed judges over my people Israel. I will give you rest from all your enemies. The LORD also reveals to you that he will establish a house for you. And when your time comes and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your heir after you, sprung from your loins, and I will make his kingdom firm. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. Your house and your kingdom shall endure forever before me; your throne shall stand firm forever.'"

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 89

R\. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

The promises of the LORD I will sing forever; through all generations my mouth shall proclaim our faithfulness. For you have said, "My kindness is established forever"; in heaven you have confirmed your faithfulness.

R\. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

"I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to David my servant: Forever will I confirm your posterity and establish your throne for all generations."

R\. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

"He shall say of me, 'You are my father, my God, the Rock, my savior.' Forever I will maintain my kindness toward him, and my covenant with him stands firm."

R\. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

A Reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Church in Rome RM 16:25-27

Brothers and sisters: To him who can strengthen you, according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery kept secret for long ages but now manifested through the prophetic writings and, according to the command of the eternal God, made known to all nations to bring about the obedience of faith, to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ be glory forever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to Luke Lk1:26-38

The angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary. And coming to her, he said, "Hail, full of grace! The Lord is with you." But she was greatly troubled at what was said and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. Then the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. "Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." But Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I have no relations with a man?" And the angel said to her in reply, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God. And behold, Elizabeth, your relative, has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren; for nothing will be impossible for God." Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Is 52:7-10

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings glad tidings, announcing peace, bearing good news, announcing salvation, and saying to Zion, "Your God is King!" Hark! Your sentinels raise a cry, together they shout for joy, for they see directly, before their eyes, the LORD restoring Zion. Break out together in song, O ruins of Jerusalem! For the LORD comforts his people, he redeems Jerusalem. The LORD has bared his holy arm in the sight of all the nations; all the ends of the earth will behold the salvation of our God.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 98

R\. All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God.

Sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done wondrous deeds; his right hand has won victory for him, his holy arm.
R\. All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God.

The LORD has made his salvation known: in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice. He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.
R\. All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God. Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands; break into song; sing praise.
R\. All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God

Sing praise to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and melodious song. With trumpets and the sound of the horn sing joyfully before the King, the LORD.
R\. All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God.

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Heb 1:1-6

Brothers and sisters: In times past, God spoke in partial and various ways to our ancestors through the prophets; in these last days, he has spoken to us through the Son, whom he made heir of all things and through whom he created the universe, who is the refulgence of his glory, the very imprint of his being, and who sustains all things by his mighty word. When he had accomplished purification from sins, he took his seat at the right hand of the Majesty on high, as far superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say: You are my son; this day I have begotten you? Or again: I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me? And again, when he leads the firstborn into the world, he says: Let all the angels of God worship him.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to John

Jn 1:1-18

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be. What came to be through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

A man named John was sent from God. He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the light but came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, but the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, but his own people did not accept him. But to those who did accept him he gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in his name, who were born not by natural generation nor by human choice nor by a man's decision but of God.

And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth. John testified to him and cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'The one who is coming after me ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.'" From his fullness we have all received, grace in place of grace, because while the law was given through Moses, grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God. The only Son, God, who is at the Father's side, has revealed him.
