SUNDAY OF ADVENT

And the angel said to her in reply, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God." - Lk 1:35

El ángel le contestó: "El Espíritu Santo descenderá sobre ti y el poder del Altísimo te cubrirá con su sombra. Por eso, el Santo, que va a nacer de ti, será llamado Hijo de Dios". - Lc 1, 35

LETTER FROM FATHER

Dear Parishioners,

Once again, the Christmas Season is upon us. We have decorated our homes, done our shopping, and hopefully we have made good use of the Advent Season and have prepared ourselves spiritually to celebrate the birth of that tiny baby born in Bethlehem over two thousand years ago, who would become the greatest man who ever walked on this earth, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

It is hard to believe that an entire year has passed, and what a year it has been. As I reflect on the events of this past year, I am almost in disbelief at all of the things that have occurred. It has certainly been a year of unprecedented events which have affected absolutely everyone. No one could have predicted 2020.

The year began in the normal fashion, but we soon became aware that a deadly virus was rapidly spreading around the country and throughout the world. In order to help prevent the spread of this virus it became necessary for us to isolate ourselves from one another. Non-essential businesses were forced to close and we were required to wear masks and limit our social interaction. Schools were closed and some families even had to separate for health reasons. We were even forced to shut down our churches, a first-time experience for all of us. Locked church doors however, did not prevent us from praying and practicing our Catholic faith. Through the magic of modern technology, we were able to participate in the Mass. Even though there was no congregation present, Mass was celebrated every single day, and confessions were available by appointment for anyone wishing to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

In spite of the fact that the church buildings were closed to the public, we were able to move forward with some of our planned work projects. Since we had to close our Pre-school, we used that time to update all of the classrooms and do some renovations to the building. We added stonework to both the Church and the Ministry building. Exterior lighting was improved, a new walkway at the main entrance of the Church was installed and landscaping was added to create an attractive and welcoming atmosphere. A new sign was constructed along Carter Road, and all of the buildings on the campus were given a fresh coat of paint. The statue of our Blessed Mother has been relocated to the southwest area of the Church building and landscaped attractively as well, creating a serene setting for quiet reflection without as much traffic noise...

...When our Church re-opened and we could once again gather as a community for the celebration of Mass, we had to adjust some of our procedures and slightly alter our Mass schedule in order to allow for increased sanitization between Masses. Everyone seems to have adjusted to the changes and we are now using hand sanitizer and wearing masks as part of our daily routine.

The elections in November seemed to cause great controversy and division throughout the nation. Whether the candidate you supported won or lost is not the issue. Regardless of our personal feelings we are all united as Christians and God is still the one who controls our destiny.

How are we going to celebrate Christmas in the midst of all the turmoil that is taking place in the world today? We are going to celebrate just as we always have in the past. Throughout the Season of Advent, we have been preparing ourselves to once again welcome the Baby Jesus into the world. We will recall His humble beginnings and pay homage to the Newborn King. We will give thanks to God for the gift of his only begotten son. We will join our voices with the Choirs of Angels singing "Glory to God in the Highest." We will pray for "Peace on Earth." Like the shepherds in the field on that first Christmas night, and the Kings who followed the star to Bethlehem, we will worship and adore the Christ-child.

The world as we know it today is in a mess, but God has not changed. God still remains faithful. As we celebrate Christmas, let us each do our part to bring peace into the world, peace that only the Lord can bring. May this peace fill your hearts with joy this Christmas.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!!!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Jarek Szybel

4TH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

SUNDAY READING QUESTIONS

First Reading

Today's reading from Second Samuel narrates the context in which God establishes his covenantal promise to King David around the year 1000 B.C. In the birth of Jesus, God fulfills his covenant with David. What does this teach us about the idea of "salvation history?"

Second Reading

Paul concludes his letter to the Romans with a hymn of praise to God for the long-awaited revelation that all are saved and justified through faith in Christ. In what ways are you praising God during this season of Advent?

Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel reading records the angel Gabriel's announcement to Mary of the upcoming birth of Christ. Mary's acceptance of God's will for her life ("May it be done to me according to your word.") models for all of us unconditional faith. How can we encourage others to embrace such faith?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

In Blaise Pascal's work, Pensees, he says: "What else does this craving, and this helplessness, proclaim but that there was once in man a true happiness, of which all that now remains is the empty print and trace? This he tries in vain to fill with everything around him, seeking in things that are not there the help he cannot find in those that are, though none can help, since this infinite abyss can be filled only with an infinite and immutable object; in other words by God himself."

We have a difficult time accepting that fulfillment and happiness are not achieved by our own merits but through a relationship with God. We are hardwired for this relationship and it is in our DNA. The simple fact is that we come from God and are designed to return to God. If our beginning and our end define who we are, why would we not want to seek the One who can truly satisfy? The world does not realize that it is waiting. It is waiting for the birth of God in time, within one's soul and in eternity. We get so confused by seeking other momentary satisfactions that we misinterpret the hunger within. We crave God.

The union of God and humanity, revealed in Jesus Christ, is precisely what sets us on a straight path, orders our relationships, establishes proper focus and goals and tells us whose kingdom we really are meant to serve. We are so lost. God is with us. The prophet Nathan told this to King David, the angel said this to Mary and the birth of Christ brings this Good News to us. We do not need to be busily looking for more things but must learn to find contentment and blessing in the One Presence. This is the beautiful simple message of Advent!

If you are feeling unsettled, anxious, angry, disgruntled, disconnected, unhappy, worried, fearful, off center, becoming overly self-indulgent, unable to spend time alone and without distraction, then there's a good chance you are lost. Now is the time to allow God to find you! Ponder the holy simplicity of Mary's call to be the Mother of God. "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." When we are helpless and at home with our emptiness, God will fill us. Our Savior has come.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

La Primera Lectura nos dice que David deseaba construir un templo de cedro a Dios, pero por medio del profeta Natán, Dios le dice que no quiere que se le construya un templo. Las intenciones de David eran buenas, pero, encerrar a Dios en un templo no era el plan de Dios para la humanidad. Su plan perfecto era la Encarnación del mismo Dios en María. Es decir, Dios afuera. Dios en todos, en cada ser humano. Nosotros somos el templo de Dios; Él desea morar en cada persona. ¡No en un templo, no en la parroquia! Dios está vivo, se mueve en cada ser humano.

María, es el mejor templo escogido por Dios, humilde, sencillo y lleno de amor para el Hijo de Dios. Con su "Sí" ella se entrega toda a él. Ahora, nosotros al rezar el santo rosario afirmamos lo que María es para Dios y para nosotros. Ella es arca de la alianza, puerta del cielo y estrella de la mañana. En resumen: las lecturas de hoy, nos invitan a ver tres puntos claves donde Dios muestra su presencia. 1. Cuando Natán va a casa de David. 2. Cuando el arcángel Gabriel va a casa de María. 3. Y cuando San Pablo dice: "¡A Dios, el único sabio, por medio de Cristo Jesús, a él sea la Gloria por siempre ¡Amén!" (Romanos 16:27). El punto 4, nos toca a cada uno de nosotros, ya sabemos que María es luz que irradia a Cristo en esta Navidad, es un misterio gozoso el ser Madre de Dios. Entonces, ¿Dónde llevare la luz de Dios que habita en mí? ¿Qué tipo de arreglos necesita el templo de mi persona para que Dios nazca en él?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

¿El mundo se da cuenta de que está esperando? A medida que avanzamos en todo el ajetreo de nuestras vidas y entretenemos nuestras distracciones, hay muchos agujeros y brechas en nuestras vidas que deben llenarse. Siempre estamos queriendo más, pero no estamos realmente seguros de qué es ese "más". El cumplimiento, la felicidad, la alegría y las verdaderas satisfacciones son hechos fugaces y a menudo nos llegan de manera ilusoria. Lo que creemos que es la solución definitiva para nuestro vacío ansioso, en realidad, es solo una tendencia elegante que entretenemos. El mundo no se da cuenta hoy más de lo que lo hizo hace más de dos mil años de que está esperando un Salvador. Necesitamos un salvador. Necesitamos ver y abrazar al Dios que ha irrumpido en la historia y se convirtió en uno con nosotros. Es esta unión de Dios y el hombre lo que nos pone en un camino recto, ordena nuestras relaciones, establece un enfoque y objetivos adecuados, y nos dice a qué reino realmente debemos servir. El mundo no sabe lo verdaderamente perdido que está. ¿Te das cuenta de lo perdido que estás y que el que más necesitas está aquí entre nosotros y a tu alcance?

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

Primera Lectura

La lectura de hoy del Segundo libro de Samuel narra el contexto en el que Dios establece su promesa de pacto al Rey David alrededor del año 1000 A.C. En el nacimiento de Jesús, Dios cumple su pacto con David. ¿Qué nos enseña esto sobre la idea de "historia de salvación"?

Segunda Lectura

Pablo concluye su carta a los romanos con un himno de alabanza a Dios por la esperada revelación de que todos son salvos y justificados por la fe en Cristo. ¿De qué maneras alabas a Dios durante esta temporada de Adviento?

Lectura del Evangelio

La lectura del Evangelio de hoy narra el anuncio del ángel Gabriel a María sobre el próximo nacimiento de Cristo. La aceptación de María de la voluntad de Dios para su vida ("Hágase en mí según tu palabra") es un modelo para todos nosotros de la fe incondicional. ¿Cómo podemos alentar a otros a abrazar tal fe?

HOPE Ministry Holiday Fundraiser

HOPE Ministry is holding a second collection during all weekend Masses, which funds will be used to purchase gift cards for needy families in our community for the holidays. Monetary donations can be dropped off in the "Holiday Basket" located in the church sanctuary.
