A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Today's Gospel contains the third major Epiphany of Jesus Christ. Two weeks ago we heard of the magi's visit, which reveals God's plan to save everyone, no matter where they're from, through this newborn child. Last week we heard about Jesus' baptism in the Jordan River, where God publicly revealed that Jesus is His Beloved Child (and by extension so are we).

Today we hear about the wedding at Cana. Yes, it's miraculous that Jesus transforms water into wine, which foreshadows how He will later transform wine into His own blood. But what does this scripture passage reveal to us about who Jesus is?

First of all we should notice that it is His mom who sees the problem and brings it up to Him. Mary intercedes for those she cares about, bringing our concerns to her Son. And while it might sound to us like Jesus is brushing her off with an "ugh not now, mom!" that's not what really is going on.

In the Gospel of John, Jesus is presented to us as someone who is in control and who knows His purpose. Later on, in the 12th Chapter, as Jesus is preparing to be crucified, He says The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. So when He says to His mother my hour has not yet come, we should realize He knows that as soon as He reveals who He is and what He can do, He will be on a path that leads to His glorification: the crucifixion and resurrection. I bet Mary knew this, too.

And yet she immediately turns to the servers at the wedding feast and says do whatever he tells you. We should listen to Mary and trust that her Son is in control. He is God's beloved Son who came to save the entire world.

Fr. Victor Amorose

SCHOOL APPEAL REMINDER

This weekend there will be a second collection for the School Appeal. Thank you for your support!

When a Catholic School is supported well, and the students are engaged in learning and service to God and neighbor, there is no limit to the great things they can accomplish. (Father Sean Horrigan)

PRO-LIFE SUNDAY

Last Sunday was Pro-Life Sunday.

This month's Rose for Life was presented by the Knights of Columbus Council 5131 in memory of John Shevenell and ask us to pray for women who are faced with an unplanned pregnancy to choose motherhood or adoption over abortion.

If you would like to volunteer to bring up the Rose for Life during Mass, you may sign up in the Rose for Life book located in the front lobby of the church.

The normal traffic flow will return at 10 a.m. Runners will pass St. John Vianney between 7:50 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. Please allow for extra time while traveling to Mass. For more information go online to www.stpetebeachclassic.com.

CATHOLIC MINISTRY APPEAL

Our old friend, the Annual Pastoral Appeal, is changing. Actually, it is going away and something new is taking its place. For several years the Diocese has been studying the overall funding plan and asking for feedback from parishioners and pastors. As a result, APA was retired as of December 31, 2021.

The new plan is based on true discipleship. Instead of one large appeal that covers all the expenses of the Diocese, there will now be three new sources of funding:

1. The Catholic Ministries of the Diocese will be funded directly by you and me. The more we give, the more services these ministries can provide each year.
2. The administration of the Diocese will now be funded by a 2% Cathedraticum (a fancy word for tax) that every parish in the diocese has to pay.
3. Funding for services provided by the diocese to all parishes and schools will come from the earnings of a new Parish Support Trust the Diocese is establishing.

Your donations to the Catholic Ministry Appeal will go in the first "bucket", the one for Catholic Ministries. This means your donation goes directly and only to ministries and will not be used for any of the administrative costs that come with running the Diocese. Like in the past, each parish has a goal based on a "fair share" formula. Our goal for this year is $143,848.

We hope we can count on you to help meet this goal. In fact, knowing how generous our parishioners have been in the past, we suspect we will exceed our goal and the ministries of the Diocese of St. Petersburg will be able to expand their services. Next week there will be more details about each of the three categories and how this change will affect the parish.

Thank you for your stewardship. God bless you.

we love having you
as part of our flock!

FOR THE SAFETY OF SOLDIERS

Almighty and eternal God, those who take refuge in you will be glad and forever will shout for joy. Protect these soldiers as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
 Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE UNBORN

Heavenly Father, in your love for us, protect against the wickedness of the devil, those helpless-little ones to whom you have given the gift of life.

Touch with pity the hearts of those women pregnant in our world who are not thinking of motherhood. Help them to see that the child they carry is made in your image-as well as theirs-made for eternal life.

Dispel their fear and selfishness and give them true womanly hearts to love their babies and give them birth and all the needed care that a mother alone can give. We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns in the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and every. Amen.

Depression and guilt. Sadness and anger. Drug and alcohol abuse. Feeling unforgivable. As Shawna Arnold explains, these symptoms of post-abortion trauma can be overwhelming—but they cannot withstand the love and mercy of God, who makes all things new. In this moving talk, Shawna describes her life experiences, and how she found her way back to the church and the loving embrace of the Father.

Various CD’s, booklets and/or books are available in the main entrance of the church. We kindly ask for a $2 donation for each booklet, $3 donation for each CD and $5 for each book to continue this ministry. Make checks payable to St. John Vianney.
