THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. - Lk 3:21-22a

The Baptism of the Lord

“We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ.”

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us fear.

After Jesus was baptized, he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and a voice was heard “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.” As we give to the poor, we also can hear these same words. As you help those who are suffering, know in your heart the truth of the words “you are my beloved with whom I am well pleased.”

NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Feast of the Baptism of the Lord:

Who would not want a doctor who, before he cuts, lifts his shirt a little, shows his own scar, and says to the patient, “I had the same. It’s going to be alright”? What soldier would not be just a little braver, stand a little taller, seeing medals for valor on his commander’s uniform? We want our heroes, our leaders, and our guides to lead through personal example. To have been there. To have done that. And we want our Savior to do the same. To empathize. To participate. To identify. To accompany. Actions resonate more than words.

Our sinless God “became” sin, in the words of St. Paul. Jesus identifies with sin but never sinned. Jesus carries sin but is not a sinner. Why? Because to become sin is to become man. In order for God to enter into human reality, He had to identify with all that sin entails. God wanted to stand with us shoulder to shoulder. He did not fake becoming man. He really became man. And if God came to forgive sins and sinners, and to shed His blood for them on the cross, He had to bear the burden they bore yet retain His perfection.

This is why our sinless God was baptised on today’s feast. God lays to the side His perfection and dignity and bows His head in the dirty waters of a river. He lined up with sinners to receive in humility what He did not need. To attend a school whose subjects He had mastered. Our God knew the value of empathy. He knew the power of example. And He knew that His ministry to mankind had to start not on a golden throne but in the mud with other men just trying to start again and again and again.

The fullness of the Holy Trinity, first revealed more subtly at the Annunciation, is present and spoken for at the Lord’s baptism. The Holy Spirit, in the form of a dove, hovers. The voice of God the Father intones favor toward His Son. And the Son enters into the essential Christian pact with man—I will become like you so that you can become like me. Sins will be taken away through water and blood. I will suffer for your benefit. This is the promise. And the Church’s priests will carry on the baptising and forgiving and consecrating until the sun sets for the last time. God comes to us in many ways, but most intensely through the Sacraments. Jesus’ actions prove this.

O Lord, your Baptism shows us that you are not remote. You are at our side. You know sin but are not a sinner. Give us the grace to renew our baptism through a frequent reception of confession and the Holy Eucharist. By receiving one, we strengthen the others. By receiving You, we receive God Himself.

NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION:

I'm Fr Robert Mitchell, and I retired last year as the Pastor of Barefoot Bay, but may be known to some of you as the previous pastor of St. Ann in Haines City. I have now returned to live in Winter Haven. A few years ago I completed the IPF (Institute for Priestly Formation) course in Spiritual Direction and I would like to make this wonderful ministry available to the people of the Western Deanery - Pok County. Thanks to Fr. Tim I have been offered space here at St. Joseph's WINTER HAVEN so I invite anyone interested in exploring what the Lord is doing in their lives (or apparently NOT doing!) Please contact the office 863-294-3144 and we can set up an appointment to meet. Meetings typically last a maximum of an hour and I am available Mon - Fri during Office hours. There is, of course, no charge for this ministry.

God Bless,
Fr. Robert.

GOD BLESS YOU MRS. HOLLAND & MRS. SHEAN

We must say goodbye to two amazing people on our staff. Our beloved art teacher, Mrs. Holland, is retiring and will not be returning in January. We are grateful to her for sharing her strong passion for art with our students. We have been blessed to learn from her and wish her the very best as she embarks on retirement. Mrs. Janmarie Shean, PreK 3 teaching assistant, has been accepted to nursing school and will begin her studies in January. While she has only been here a short time, we appreciate her love and compassion that she shared for her students. We wish her the very best and are happy to know that she will still be a part of our SJCS family as her children remain students here. To both Mrs. Holland and Mrs. Shean, thank you and God bless you on all future endeavors. You will be greatly missed!
