Deacon Jose Moronta

Chapter 3 of 5 about the Eucharist

We now continue with Jesus' bread of life discourse at Capernaum. Last week Jesus had just declared that He is the bread of life; he who comes to Him shall not hunger, he who believes in Him shall not thirst.

«The Jews murmured about him...»

We find several times in the Gospel of John, the word "Jews". We have to understand it in a different way as we do in our time. John didn't use the word as an ethnic term. Every time we read "the Jews" in the gospel of John we must think on the leaders of the contemporary Israelite of Jesus.

"Murmuring" is the same reaction the Israelite had toward Moses before they received manna in the desert; when their stomachs grumbled, so did they. It was because of their lack of belief and trust, even after they had received the manna in the desert.

«...because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven," and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"...»

How can He say that He has come down from heaven? How can He possibly claim to have come from God? After all, they think that they know His genealogy and it's of human, not divine, origin – He's a human being just like them. They are judging Him by preconceived prejudices rather than from the heart.

Jesus doesn't even bother to address their protests. Instead, He reiterates what He has just said to them. Jesus is like saying "By murmuring, you are behaving just like your ancestors in the desert when God provided them with the manna. You have seen enough signs to know that I exercise powers which only God has, yet you are not satisfied."

«...Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life...»

(Truly, truly; I solemnly assure you) A doubled amen; an oath which is sworn in a life and death situation. And then he insists in proclaiming himself as 'bread of life'. Jesus repeats this statement for the second time after repeating the oath; because the audience doubts Him. Having repeatedly identified Himself as one sent by God, Jesus now begins the second part of His discourse where He unveils the mystery of the Eucharist.

«...Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died...I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever...»

This is the third time that He identifies Himself as the Bread of Life. In Hebrew numerology the number three represents completeness. Jesus does not attempt to soften or alter His teaching. It is the literal meaning, not a figurative or metaphorical one, that He is trying to drive home.

«...and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world...»

The Eucharistic theme has been reached! the mystery has been revealed!

Notice that this is in the future tense, something to be accomplished at a later time. The apostles at the Last Supper, a year later, will remember these words when Jesus broke the bread and gave it to them saying "take and eat because this is my body".

We still will have two more Sundays enjoying this banquet of having the Lord explaining the meaning of what He did in the Last Supper, when he instituted the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Bon appetit!

Tax Free Contribution Information

If you are over 70 ½ and have an IRA or similar retirement account you may be required to take annual distributions prescribed by the IRS. These distributions are usually taxed at your ordinary income tax rate.

A new law was passed on 12/15/2015 which may allow you to contribute any part of your IRA including these required distributions to St. Mark TAX FREE!

Example: If you contribute $5000 from your IRA to St. Mark and are in a 20% tax bracket, the church receives the $5000 and you may save $1000 in taxes.

A WIN-WIN for both the church and the parishioner!

If your tax advisor agrees and you want to contribute from your 2021 required annual distribution or even from your current IRA, instruct your IRA custodian to make the check out to: St. Mark the Evangelist Catholic Church.

They can either send it to you or directly to the church.

This is a great way to fulfill your pledge and/or contribute your annual offering in a lump sum.
