NEW STAINED GLASS IN TABERNACLE

Donor : In Memory of Sylvia Perrien

Table the glass rest upon : Hand Made in Malaysia with carvings to match workmanship in the stain glass

The new stained glass that is now in the tabernacle is very old dating back to 1860. It was originally in Christ Church in Southport, England. It was ultimately removed and placed for sale in a London stain glass store. In 1993 it was shipped to Norway, afterwards it would move from Malaysia, Houston, then the Villages, and now rests in St. Timothy's Church. The Glass art work represents the old testament 1 Samuel 1-26 story of Hannah presenting her son Samuel to Priest Eli.

TRINITY SUNDAY

God is not distant from us but as Proverbs says, has always “found delight in the human race.” Moreover, in baptism, confirmation, and the eucharist the “Spirit of truth” is lavished upon us that daily we might be changed more and more into the image of Jesus.

- How have you found God present in nature?
- How have you found God present in others?
- How have you found God present in yourself?
- How can you help the love of God to be poured forth in your life today?

Practice: Which Person of the Trinity do you feel least connected to? During the coming week, spend some time daily in prayer with that Person that you may grow more deeply in relationship.

Faith FORMATION

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

The fundamental dogma, on which everything in Christianity is based, is that of the Blessed Trinity in whose name all Christians are baptized. The feast of the Blessed Trinity needs to be understood and celebrated as a prolongation of the mysteries of Christ and as the solemn expression of our faith in this triune life of the Divine Persons, to which we have been given access by Baptism and by the Redemption won for us by Christ. Only in heaven shall we properly understand what it means, in union with Christ, to share as sons in the very life of God.

The feast of the Blessed Trinity was introduced in the ninth century and was only inserted in the general calendar of the Church in the fourteenth century by Pope John XXII. But the cultus of the Trinity is, of course, to be found throughout the liturgy. Constantly the Church causes us to praise and adore the thrice-holy God who has so shown His mercy towards us and has given us to share in His life.

TRINITY SUNDAY

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world as to give His only begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions. After Christ's ascension the Holy Spirit, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler. On solemn occasions a thanksgiving Te Deum rises spontaneously from Christian hearts.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity may well be regarded as the Church's Te Deum of gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons; for this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that actually every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God. Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Blessed Trinity is bestowing upon us. The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the "Day of the Lord," the day of His resurrection. The Holy Spirit sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday the Holy Spirit descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.

The Sacraments

ASK YOURSELF...

- Do you want to learn more about the Catholic way of life?
- Are you interested in becoming a Catholic?
- Do you know someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Were you baptized Catholic and want to complete the Sacraments of Initiation - Eucharist and Confirmation?
- Do you know anyone that has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?

We offer an opportunity to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights, and your faith story in a warm accepting setting. There is no obligation or commitment. For information, please contact Anna-Marie Wright in the parish office.

SAINT ANTHONY OF PADUA (JUNE 13TH)

The gospel call to leave everything and follow Christ was the rule of Saint Anthony of Padua's life. Over and over again, God called him to something new in his plan. Every time Anthony responded with renewed zeal and self-sacrificing to serve his Lord Jesus more completely. His journey as the servant of God began as a very young man when he decided to join the Augustinians in Lisbon, giving up a future of wealth and power to be a servant of God. Later when the bodies of the first Franciscan martyrs went through the Portuguese city where he was stationed, he was again filled with an intense longing to be one of those closest to Jesus himself: those who die for the Good News.

So Anthony entered the Franciscan Order and set out to preach to the Moors. But an illness prevented him from achieving that goal. He went to Italy and was stationed in a small hermitage where he spent most of his time praying, reading the Scriptures and doing menial tasks. The call of God came again at an ordination where no one was prepared to speak. The humble and obedient Anthony hesitantly accepted the task. The years of searching for Jesus in prayer, of reading sacred Scripture and of serving him in poverty, chastity, and obedience had prepared Anthony to allow the Spirit to use his talents. Anthony's sermon was astounding to those who expected an unprepared speech and knew not the Spirit's power to give people words. Recognized as a great man of prayer and a great Scripture and theology scholar, Anthony became the first friar to teach theology to the other friars. Soon he was called from that post to preach to the Albigensians in France, using his profound knowledge of Scripture and theology to convert and reassure those who had been misled by their denial of Christ's divinity and of the sacraments. After he led the friars in northern Italy for three years, he made his headquarters in the city of Padua. He resumed his preaching and began writing sermon notes to help other preachers. In the spring of 1231 Anthony withdrew to a friary at Camposampiero where he had a sort of treehouse built as a hermitage. There he prayed and prepared for death. On June 13, he became very ill and asked to be taken back to Padua, where he died after receiving the last sacraments. Anthony was canonized less than a year later and named a Doctor of the Church in 1946.

REFLECTION

Anthony should be the patron of those who find their lives completely uprooted and set in a new and unexpected direction. Like all saints, he is a perfect example of turning one's life completely over to Christ. God did with Anthony as God pleased—and what God pleased was a life of spiritual power and brilliance that still attracts admiration today. He whom popular devotion has nominated as finder of lost objects found himself by losing himself totally to the providence of God.

WHAT KIND OF PERSON MAKES A GROUP FACILITATOR FOR SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES?

Are you a spiritual person? Do you like people? Do you have a desire to serve God? If you answered yes to these three questions, God might be urging you to get involved! Caring about others is more important than having leadership experience. Commitment is greater than knowledge of scriptures and Church teachings. A willingness to be stretched by God as He serves others THROUGH YOU is very necessary. A facilitator is God's instrument of love.

Watch the bulletin every week for more answers to common questions about Small Christian Communities. We are looking for facilitators; training will be provided. To find out more about leading an SCC, call Anna-Marie Wright at 352-753-0989

COFFEE AND A MOVIE

Join us on Monday, June 13th, at 1:00 PM in the parish hall for "Saint Anthony: Miracle Worker of Padua". "This is the first major feature length drama on the life of St. Anthony of Padua, the beloved miracle worker and one of the most popular saints in Christian history. Made in Italy with top-notch acting talent, and superb cinematography, this is an outstanding film on the amazing life of St. Anthony.

It presents Anthony as a dynamic and appealing person who sacrificed wealth, popularity, and family for the Kingdom of God. Born into a Portuguese noble family in 1195, Anthony defied his father's wishes that he become a knight and, instead, followed the call of God to become a monk, eventually joining the Franciscans as a follower of St. Francis of Assisi. Anthony became renowned for his powerful preaching and his miracles that won countless souls to Christ. The film follows his travels through Italy, his mission to Morocco, and his meeting with St. Francis. It beautifully portrays the power of his preaching, the holiness of his life, his love for the poor and oppressed, and the wonders of his miracles. Actor Daniele Liotti gives a truly memorable inspiring and performance as St. Anthony." Source: [formed.org]

WHAT IS A SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY?

A group of 8 to 10 people meet weekly in someone's home to study Sunday's scripture readings. Each person discovers, at their own pace, how God has been actively loving them and helping them. In this environment, mutual trust grows, and members share their individual faith stories. The group becomes a small church in the large parish, so that everyone experiences the concern, prayer, and emotional support of the Body of Christ.

We are currently planning for the following times:

- Monday, 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM (women only)
- Tuesday, 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM
- Thursday, 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM
- Thursday, 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM
- Two more days and times are still being decided if there is a particular day and time that works with your schedule, please call Anna-Marie Wright at 352-753-0989

LAST SUPPER—PERPETUAL ADORATION CHAPEL

The Chapel is available for quiet adoration in the presence of the Eucharist.

Cards with information on how you may access the Chapel are available in the Church Office (9:00 AM-4:00 PM Monday – Friday).

Please, DO NOT leave any items, Rosary, prayer cards, booklets, etc., in the Adoration Chapel.

While at prayer, please pray for an increase in the call to priesthood.

CANDLES

Six-day candles for the candle stands are available in the Church Office 9:00 AM-4:00 PM Monday to Thursday and 9:00 AM-3:00 PM Friday for $5.00 each (please bring exact amount). Other candles burn the red glass at the bottom requiring costly replacement. Please do not burn any candles other than the ones sold in the Gift Shop and Church Office.

If you wish to purchase a candle prior to Mass, please see the Sacristan.

SERVICE ANIMALS

While Service Animals are welcome in Church to accompany disabled individuals, anyone with a service animal should sit in the Narthex by the doors. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

PLEASE BE MINDFUL!

When entering Church, please be mindful that many people are praying. If you wish to greet someone do so in quiet tones so as not to disturb another's prayer time.

HANDICAPPED

The entry on the north side of the Church which is covered with a red awning is handicap accessible.

Handicapped seating is provided in the front pews. If you are unable to enter the lines for reception of Communion, please sit in the very first pews and the Priest/Deacon/Minister of Holy Communion will come to you with Holy Communion.

Thank you for your assistance.

BULLETIN SUBMISSIONS

Bulletin articles must be submitted to bulletin@sttimothycc.com by noon the Wednesday ten days prior to Bulletin publication.

Submissions must be approved by the Ministry Coordinator or Publicity Chairman. We reserve the right to edit any and all items or articles for the Bulletin.

Early submission dates are announced in the Bulletin.

PLEASE BE CONSIDERATE

Many parishioners are extremely sensitive to scented shampoos, perfumes, deodorants, laundry detergent and other scented products. Please do not wear them in Church. Thank you.

"I owned hearing aids already but didn't wear them because they didn't help. That all changed with Angelo at RHC. What a tremendous difference! I now wear them from morning til night. These aids have had a positive impact on my life. I can understand conversations and no longer ask people to repeat. Angelo is all about helping people and I can't thank him enough!"
