"If you live without God, you die without hope."
Quote from Art dated 1956

Slow down for three minutes to read this. It is so worth it. Touching words from the mouth of babes. A group of professional people posed this question to a group of 4 to 8 year-olds,

'WHAT DOES LOVE MEAN?'

The answers they got were broader and deeper than anyone could have imagined. See what you think

'When my grandmother got arthritis , she couldn't bend over and paint her toenails anymore.. So my grandfather does it for her all the time , even when his hands got arthritis too. That's love.'

Rebecca- age 8

'Love is when my mommy makes coffee for my daddy and she takes a sip before giving it to him , to make sure the taste is OK.'

Danny - age 7

'Love is when you kiss all the time. Then when you get tired of kissing , you still want to be together and you talk more. My Mommy and Daddy are like that. They look gross when they kiss'

Emily - age 8

'Love is what's in the room with you at Christmas if you stop opening presents and listen.'

Bobby - age 7 (Wow!)

And the final one

The winner was a four year old child whose next door neighbor was an elderly gentleman who had recently lost his wife.

Upon seeing the man cry , the little boy went into the old gentleman's yard , climbed onto his lap , and just sat there. When his Mother asked what he had said to the neighbor , the little boy said , 'Nothing , I just helped him cry'

When there is nothing left but God , that is when you find out that God is all you need. Take 60 seconds and say this short prayer.

Heavenly Father , please bless all my friends in whatever it is that You know they may be needing this day! And may their life be full of Your peace , prosperity and power as he/she seeks to have a closer relationship with You. Amen .

God Bless You!

Faith FORMATION

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel, Jesus is "resolutely determined" to journey to Jerusalem even though he knows that suffering will be the cost of his victory there. And he invites us to that difficult journey with him—but only if we are willing to make that mission the first priority in life.

Jesus tells the three people that following him means making the choice to put him first, above all else. His responses (that the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head; let the dead bury their dead; and you can't put your hand to the plow and look back) may sound harsh, but he is making an important point that helps us understand that to make a commitment is to embrace certain choices and to let go of others.

The Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles are a two-volume set. Jesus's journey to Jerusalem for his death, resurrection, and ascension that is followed by the apostles' mission in the power of the Spirit to go out from there to the very ends of the earth. And that is still our mission!

- What frightens you about Jesus's invitation to follow him?
- What attracts you about joining him on this journey?
- What might be the biggest obstacle that might waylay you?
- Which people are your greatest support on the way?

Practice: Pray this week that you, or a family member, will recognize that choosing a relationship with Jesus involves some sacrifices but also gives us the best thing we could possibly ask for: life with God.

COFFEE AND A MOVIE

Join us on Monday, July 11th, at 1:00 PM in the parish hall for "Francis of Assisi".

An inspirational story of one man's journey. Born into a life of privilege, passion and extravagance, Francis of Assisi would become one of the most beloved and revered saints in history. Francis hears the voice of God and answers by abandoning his secular life. Trading in his sword for a cross, he rises to glory only to see his life's work threatened by a corrupt and jealous Church hierarchy.

THE FIRST MARTYRS OF THE HOLY ROMAN CHURCH (JUNE 30TH)

First Martyrs of the Holy Roman Church

These “proto-martyrs” of Rome were the first Christians persecuted en masse by the Emperor Nero in the year 64, before the martyrdom of Saints Peter and Paul. Nero was widely believed to have caused the fire that burned down much of Rome in the same year. He blamed the fire on the Christians and put them to death, many by crucifixion, being feeding to the wild animals in his circus, or by being tied to posts and lit up as human torches.

Today, the site of Nero's Circus, also the location of St. Peter's martyrdom, is marked by the Piazza dei Protomartiri Romani (Square of the Roman Protomartyrs) in the Vatican next to St. Peter's basilica.

These martyrs were called the “Disciples of the Apostles” and their firmness in the face of their gruesome deaths were a powerful testimony that led to many conversions in the early Roman Church.

SAINTS PETER & PAUL (JUNE 29TH)

In June 29 the Church celebrates the feast day of Sts. Peter & Paul. As early as the year 258, there is evidence of an already lengthy tradition of celebrating the solemnities of both Saint Peter and Saint Paul on the same day. Together, the two saints are the founders of the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there.

Peter, who was named Simon, was a fisherman of Galilee and was introduced to the Lord Jesus by his brother Andrew, also a fisherman. Jesus gave him the name Cephas (Petrus in Latin), which means 'Rock,' because he was to become the rock upon which Christ would build His Church.

Peter was a bold follower of the Lord. He was the first to recognize that Jesus was "the Messiah, the Son of the living God," and eagerly pledged his fidelity until death. In his boldness, he also made many mistakes, however, such as losing faith when walking on water with Christ and betraying the Lord on the night of His passion.

Yet despite his human weaknesses, Peter was chosen to shepherd God's flock. The Acts of the Apostles illustrates his role as head of the Church after the Resurrection and Ascension of Christ. Peter led the Apostles as the first Pope and ensured that the disciples kept the true faith.

St. Peter spent his last years in Rome, leading the Church through persecution and eventually being martyred in the year 64. He was crucified upside-down at his own request, because he claimed he was not worthy to die as his Lord.

He was buried on Vatican hill, and St. Peter's Basilica is built over his tomb.

St. Paul was the Apostle of the Gentiles. His letters are included in the writings of the New Testament, and through them we learn much about his life and the faith of the early Church.

Before receiving the name Paul, he was Saul, a Jewish pharisee who zealously persecuted Christians in Jerusalem. Scripture records that Saul was present at the martyrdom of St. Stephen.

Saul's conversion took place as he was on his way to Damascus to persecute the Christian community there. As he was traveling along the road, he was suddenly surrounded by a great light from heaven. He was blinded and fell off his horse. He then heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He answered: "Who are you, Lord?" Christ said: "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting."

Saul continued to Damascus, where he was baptized and his sight was restored. He took the name Paul and spent the remainder of his life preaching the Gospel tirelessly to the Gentiles of the Mediterranean world.

Paul was imprisoned and taken to Rome, where he was beheaded in the year 67.

He is buried in Rome in the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls.

In a sermon in the year 395, St. Augustine of Hippo said of Sts. Peter and Paul: "Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith."

Will be on break for July and August.

Please check out www.formed.org

To increase your knowledge of Jesus so that you can grow closer to Him. Become more enlightened about your faith journey. Not sure where to start, please contact Anna-Marie Wright in the parish office.

WHAT IS A SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY (SCC)?

A group of 8 to 10 people meet weekly (or once a month) in someone's home to study Sunday's scripture readings. Each person discovers, at their own pace, how God has been actively loving them and helping them. In this environment, mutual trust grows, and members share their individual faith stories. The group becomes a small church in the large parish, so that everyone experiences the concern, prayer, and emotional support of the Body of Christ.

ARE SCCs BIBLE STUDY GROUPS?

No. Although the weekly meetings are built around a guided study of the readings from the weekend's Masses, the focus is on being community. The experience is not so much the study of scripture; rather it is the sharing of insights and experiences THROUGH the scriptures. It is a time of faith growth. It is journeying with people who care about you as you take new strides in your spiritual walk. It is discovering from the insights of friends what God is doing in your life. And it is a time of making a difference in the faith growth of others.

WE ARE CURRENTLY PLANNING FOR THE FOLLOWING TIMES:

- Tuesday, 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM (Hacienda area)
- Wednesday, 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM (Winifred - starts in August)
- Thursday, 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (Golfcart friendly area TBD - women only)
- Thursday, 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM (Tierra Del Sol)
- 3rd Sunday each month, 6:15 PM - 7:30 PM (Tierra del Sol)

If interested in joining a SCC group, please sign-up at:

Watch the bulletin every week for more answers to common questions about Small Christian Communities. We are looking for facilitators; training will be provided. To find out more about leading an SCC, call Anna-Marie Wright at 352-753-0989.

RENAISSANCE

"I owned hearing aids already but didn't wear them because they didn't help. That all changed with Angelo at RHC. What a tremendous difference! I now wear them from morning til night. These aids have had a positive impact on my life. I can understand conversations and no longer ask people to repeat. Angelo is all about helping people and I can't thank him enough!"
- Judy Hartstein - The Village of Charlotte
