"If you live without God, you die without hope."
Quote from Art dated 1956

BLESSING FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY

There is a saying, "To those whom much is given, much is expected." That saying is from "Uncommon Wisdom of John F. Kennedy: A Portrait in His Own Words." That saying should sum up our thoughts as we celebrate the founding of our country. As we look at our history, we may easily see that much has been given to this country, and many have sacrificed to make sure we have kept those gifts. However, our faith informs us that a gift reaches its ultimate good only when it is given away freely. We have many gifts, and our country has a long tradition of giving many gifts to other nations. Moreover, sometimes it seems as if those gifts are not appreciated. Nevertheless, we continue to give. Let us pray for this great country of the United States of America:

God our Father, from whom all good gifts come, we are thankful for rest and food.

Grant that, in all we do or say, we keep your goodness always in our thankful hearts.

We entreat you to bless all those who work to keep us safe, and ask your blessings on all those who work to share our blessings with others around the world.

We ask all this in the name of our brother and Savior, Jesus. Amen.

Faith FORMATION

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Sometimes we have to distinguish between what we want and what we need. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to recognize the difference between what we want and what we need. Jesus sends out 72 of his disciples and tells them to "Go on your way" with no money, no sack, no sandals; nothing. Although the world tells us that we need many things in order to be happy, Jesus is telling us that all we need for the journey is his grace and the knowledge that we are doing his work.

A key theme of today's Gospel and last Sunday's Gospel is discipleship—its challenges, its difficulties and its rewards. Sharing in the mission of Jesus is difficult, but everyone is called to do it, not just some professionals trained for ministry. Even for us today, the harvest is plentiful. We should pray to the master of the harvest to send out workers for his harvest.

- When you think of the word "evangelization", what images or phrases typically come to mind?
- What qualities make a good evangelizer?
- How can we embrace the formula for evangelization that Jesus provides his disciples in our lives as well?

Practice: Pray this week for the strength to overcome the temptation to be too individualistic and to recognize the need for working together as we serve the mission of the kingdom of God. Also, reflect on what you do in your daily life to embrace that central Christian mission, and ask Jesus to show you what more can be done to bring the kingdom of God to all peoples.

COFFEE AND A MOVIE

Join us on Monday, July 11th, at 1:00 PM in the parish hall for "Francis of Assisi".

An inspirational story of one man's journey. Born into a life of privilege, passion and extravagance, Francis of Assisi would become one of the most beloved and revered saints in history. Francis hears the voice of God and answers by abandoning his secular life.

Trading in his sword for a cross, he rises to glory only to see his life's work threatened by a corrupt and jealous Church hierarchy.

SAINT ANTHONY ZACCARIA (JULY 5TH)

At the same time that Martin Luther was attacking abuses in the Church, a reformation within the Church was already being attempted. Among the early movers of the Counter-Reformation was Anthony Zaccaria. His mother became a widow at 18, and devoted herself to the spiritual education of her son. He received a medical doctorate at 22, and while working among the poor of his native Cremona in Italy, was attracted to the religious apostolate. He renounced his rights to any future inheritance, worked as a catechist, and was ordained a priest at the age of 26.

Called to Milan in a few years, he laid the foundations of three religious congregations, one for men, one for women, and an association of married couples. Their aim was the reform of the decadent society of their day, beginning with the clergy, religious, and lay people.

Greatly inspired by Saint Paul—his congregation is named the Barnabites, after the companion of that saint—Anthony preached with great vigor in church and street, conducted popular missions, and was not ashamed of doing public penance.

Anthony encouraged such innovations as the collaboration of the laity in the apostolate, frequent Communion, the Forty Hours devotion, and the ringing of church bells at 3:00 p.m. on Fridays. His holiness moved many to reform their lives, but as with all saints, it also moved many to oppose him. Twice his community had to undergo official religious investigation, and twice it was exonerated.

While on a mission of peace, Anthony became seriously ill and was brought home for a visit to his mother. He died at Cremona at the age of 36.

Congratulation to Ezra, son of Karissa and David, who was baptized on Sunday, June 26, 2022. "The soul is regenerated in the sacred waters of baptism and thus becomes God's child." - St. Maximilian Kolbe

ASK YOURSELF...

- Do you want to learn more about the Catholic way of life?
- Are you interested in becoming a Catholic?
- Do you know someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Were you baptized Catholic and want to complete the Sacraments of Initiation - Eucharist and Confirmation?
- Do you know anyone that has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?

We offer an opportunity to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights, and your faith story in a warm accepting setting. There is no obligation or commitment. For information, please contact Anna-Marie Wright in the parish office.

SAINT ELIZABETH OF PORTUGAL (JULY 5TH)

The Catholic Church celebrates St. Elizabeth of Portugal, a queen who served the poor and helped her country avoid war during the 13th and 14th centuries.

Elizabeth of Portugal was named for her great-aunt, St. Elizabeth of Hungary, who was canonized in 1235. Their lives were similar in some important ways: both of them were married at very young ages, they sought to live the precepts of the Gospel despite their status as royalty, and finished their lives as members of the Third Order of St. Francis. The younger Elizabeth was born in 1271, the daughter of King Pedro III of Aragon and his wife Constantia. Even in her youth, Elizabeth showed a notable devotion to God through fasting, regular prayer, and a sense of life's seriousness. While still very young, she was married to King Diniz of Portugal, a marriage that would put her faith and patience to the test. King Diniz was faithfully devoted to his country, known as the "Worker King" because of his diligence. Unfortunately, he generally failed to live out the same faithfulness toward his wife, although he is said to have repented of his years of infidelity before his death. Diniz and Elizabeth had two children, but the king fathered an additional seven children with other women.

Many members of the king's court likewise embraced or accepted various forms of immorality, and it would have been easy for the young queen to fall into these vices herself. But Elizabeth remained intent on doing God's will with a humble and charitable attitude. Rather than using her status as queen to pursue her own satisfaction, she sought to advance Christ's reign on earth.

Like her namesake and great-aunt Elizabeth of Hungary, Elizabeth of Portugal was a devoted patroness and personal friend of the poor and sick, and she compelled the women who served her at court to care for them as well. The queen's bishop testified that she had a custom of secretly inviting in lepers, whom she would bathe and clothe, even though the law of the land barred them from approaching the castle. Elizabeth's commitment to the Gospel also became evident when she intervened to prevent civil war in the kingdom on two occasions. Alfonso, the only son of Diniz and Elizabeth, resented the king's indulgent treatment of one of his illegitimate sons, to the point that the father and son gathered together rival armies that were on the brink of open war in 1323.

On this occasion, St. Elizabeth placed herself between the two opposing armies, insisting that Diniz and Alfonso come to terms and make peace with one another. In 1336, the last year of her life, she intervened in a similar manner to prevent her son from waging war against the King of Castile for his poor treatment of Alfonso's own daughter. Following King Diniz's death in 1325, Elizabeth had become a Franciscan of the Third Order, and had gone to live in a convent that she had established some years before. The testimony of miracles accomplished through her intercession, after her death in 1336, contributed to her canonization by Pope Urban VIII in 1625.

SAINT MARIA GORETTI (JULY 6TH)

July 6 marks the feast day of St. Maria Goretti, a young virgin and martyr whose life is an example of purity and mercy for all Christians.

St. Maria Goretti is best known for her commitment to purity and the courageous defense of her faith at the young age of eleven that made her willing to undergo death rather than participate in a sin against God. She is also remarkable for the forgiveness she willingly granted her attacker as she lay on her deathbed.

Maria was born in Corinaldo, Italy on October 16, 1890. Her father, a farmer, died of malaria when she was young, and her mother had to work to support their six children.

Maria took care of the younger children while her mother worked, and she prayed the Rosary every night for the repose of her father's soul. She grew in grace and maturity, and her cheerful obedience and piety were noticed by those around her.

On July 5, 1902, a neighboring farm hand, Alessandro Serenelli, tried to rape Maria. On several prior occasions, Alessandro had harassed Maria with impure advances, all of which she has vehemently rejected. This time, he locked her in a room and tried to force himself upon her. She fought against him, shouting, "No! It is a sin! God does not want it!" and warning him that this was the path towards hell. When Maria declared that she would rather die than submit to this sin, Alessandro angrily grabbed her and stabbed her 14 times with a knife.

Maria was found bleeding to death and rushed to the hospital. As she lay dying, she forgave Alessandro for the crime he had committed against her, saying, "Yes, for the love of Jesus I forgive him...and I want him to be with me in Paradise."

Although the doctors tried to save her, she died two agonizing days later, only eleven years old.

Alessandro was sentenced to 30 years in prison. He remained unrepentant until one night, eight years into his prison term, when Maria appeared to him, dressed in white, gathering lilies in a garden. She smiled, turned towards Alessandro, and offered him the flowers. Each lily he took transformed into a white flame. Then Maria disappeared.

From that moment, Alessandro converted and found peace. He repented of his crime and changed his life. He was released from prison three years early and begged forgiveness from Maria's mother, which she duly granted.

Alessandro moved to a Capuchin monastery, working in the garden as a tertiary for the remainder of his life. He was one of the witnesses who testified to Maria's holiness during her cause of beatification, citing the crime and the vision in prison.

Many miracles were attributed to Maria Goretti after her death. In 1950, she was canonized by Pope Pius XII, becoming the youngest Roman Catholic saint officially recognized by name. Her feast day is celebrated by the Church on July 6, and she is the patron saint of purity, rape victims, young women, and youth in general.

On her feast day in 2003, Pope John Paul II spoke about St. Maria Goretti at his Sunday Angelus, noting that her life provides an exemplary witness of what it means to be "pure of heart."

- "What does this fragile but Christianly mature girl say to today's young people, through her life and above all through her heroic death?" asked the Pope.
- "Marietta, as she was lovingly called, reminds the youth of the third millennium that true happiness demands courage and a spirit of sacrifice, refusing every compromise with evil and having the disposition to pay personally, even with death, faithful to God and his commandments."
- "How timely this message is," the Holy Father continued. "Today, pleasure, selfishness and directly immoral actions are often exalted in the name of the false ideals of liberty and happiness. It is essential to reaffirm clearly that purity of heart and of body go together, because chastity 'is the custodian' of authentic love."

A HOT CUP OF CATHOLIC

Our next session is Thursday, July 14th, 2022 at 9:30 AM in rooms 1, 2, 3. Join us for a short video then discussion with one of our parish clergy on the "True Reformers". Our next saint is "Saint Philip Neri: The Apostle of Joy". Saints of the Catholic Reformation, a study crafted to teach about those who led the Church's rebirth from the ashes of confusion caused by the Protestant Reformation. In these six sessions, participants will learn about the true benefactors of the human race: the saints. The saints of the Catholic Reformation show us just how powerful—and beautiful—is the human heart's free response to God's generous grace.

BIBLE STUDY WITH ALLEN

Join us on Wednesdays in rooms 1, 2, & 3 at 1:30 PM for "The Footprints of God" an exciting, biblically based series exploring salvation history from Abraham through Augustine. This series is an engaging course of biblical apologetics. If you have any questions, please contact Allen at (352) 533-1718

WHAT IS A SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY (SCC)?

A group of 8 to 10 people meet weekly (or once a month) in someone's home to study Sunday's scripture readings. Each person discovers, at their own pace, how God has been actively loving them and helping them. In this environment, mutual trust grows, and members share their individual faith stories. The group becomes a small church in the large parish, so that everyone experiences the concern, prayer, and emotional support of the Body of Christ.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE PART OF A GROUP CALLED "COMMUNITY"?

This is more than a bunch of people gathering for a meeting every week. SCCs are people of similar beliefs meeting WITH ("com") UNITY. Oneness does not mean alikeness; rather it means agreeing to join in the journey of uniting ourselves to God and His love. Members feel connected to each other due to sharing their faith week after week, but it is more than that. Groups will occasionally gather outside the meetings for social events such as barbecues and pool parties, with all family members invited. During parish missions or retreats, they often attend together and go out for coffee afterward. Why? Because the love flowing between the members cannot be contained within a mere hour and a half meeting per week.

WE ARE CURRENTLY PLANNING FOR THE FOLLOWING TIMES:

- Tuesday, 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM (Hacienda area)
- Wednesday, 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM (Winifred - starts in August)
- Thursday, 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (Golfcart friendly area TBD - women only)
- Thursday, 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM (Tierra Del Sol)
- 3rd Sunday each month, 6:15 PM - 7:30 PM (Tierra del Sol)

If interested in joining a SCC group, please sign-up at:

<https://forms.gle/mCjg12jti127V1VRA>

Watch the bulletin every week for more answers to common questions about Small Christian Communities. We are looking for facilitators; training will be provided. To find out more about leading an SCC, call Anna-Marie Wright at 352-753-0989.

NOTICE FROM ORLANDO DIOCESE

It has come to our attention that individuals may be receiving texts or emails from clergy or leaders within our parish asking for gift cards or financial assistance with travel. Please know that the Diocese does not allow anyone to solicit financial contributions or assistance for an individual or approves of solicitation for personal business as a representative of the Church. If you are approached by a leader, whether clergy, employee or volunteer, within your parish for any cause regarding financial assistance and you choose to respond, always require a contract and receipt upon completion of the transaction.

HEARING AIDS AND GLASSES

If you have unwanted hearing aids or glasses and would like to donate them to someone who could use them. You can drop them off in the Parish Office.

RENAISSANCE

"I owned hearing aids already but didn't wear them because they didn't help. That all changed with Angelo at RHC. What a tremendous difference! I now wear them from morning til night. These aids have had a positive impact on my life. I can understand conversations and no longer ask people to repeat. Angelo is all about helping people and I can't thank him enough!"
