"If you live without God, you die without hope."
Quote from Art dated 1956

As we grow older, and hence wiser, we slowly realize that:
Whether we wear a $300 or $30 watch -- they both tell the same time.
Whether we carry a $300 or $30 wallet/purse -- the amount of money inside is the same.
Whether we drink a bottle of $300 or $30 or $3 wine -- the hangover is the same.
Whether the house we live in is 300 or 3,000 or 30,000 sq. ft. -- the loneliness is the same. And we realize our true inner happiness does not come from the material things of this world.
Whether we fly first or economy class, if the plane goes down -- we go down with it.
Whether we fly first or economy class, if the plane reaches its destination -- everyone arrives at the same time.
Therefore . . . we should realize that when we have mates, buddies and old friends, brothers and sisters, kids, with whom we can chat, laugh, talk, sing, talk about north-south-east-west or heaven and earth -- that is true happiness!

SIX UNDENIABLE FACTS OF LIFE

1. Don't educate your children to be rich. Educate them to be happy, so when they grow up they will know the value of things, not the price.
2. Best wise words: "Eat your food as your medicines. Otherwise you have to eat medicines as your food."
. The one who loves you will never leave you because, even if there are 100 reasons to give up, he or she will find one reason to hold on.
4. There is a big difference between a human being and being human. Only a few folks really understand that.
5. You are loved when you are born. You will be loved when you die. In between, you have to manage!
6. If you just want to walk fast, walk alone; but, if you want to walk far, walk together!

SIX BEST DOCTORS IN THE WORLD

1. Sunlight
 2. Rest
 3. Exercise
 4. Diet
 5. Self Confidence
 6. Friends
- And, finally:
The nicest place to be is in someone's thoughts, the safest place to be is in someone's prayers, and, the very best place to be is, in the hands of God.

Faith FORMATION

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

ST. CAMILLUS DE LELLIS (JULY 18TH)

Last Sunday's gospel selection taught us the importance of love expressed in action. That message is repeated in today's story from Genesis where Abraham and Sarah spread an elaborate feast for three weary travelers and are rewarded with the promise of the child whom they had never had.

Martha, one of Jesus's dearest friends is involved in the same kind of hospitality; yet it is Mary whom Jesus praises and proposes to us as a model of discipleship. Again, in the midst of life's busyness our actions must flow from our loving relationship with Jesus, and that relationship needs nourishment.

- What keeps you from seeing the needs of others, especially of those close to you?
- How can you help nourish not only other people's bodies but their hearts?
- Where do you need nourishment? How will you find it in others? How will you find it in Jesus?
- How is Christ calling us, the church, the members of his Body, to carry on his mission of suffering in order to bring humanity to completion? What needs to change?

Practice: The word of God is a seed planted in the soil of our hearts over and over. If you do not read the scriptures regularly, you are missing the chance to bear more and more fruit. The daily readings are available online; make it a practice to ponder and pray over at least one of them a day. (Do not skip the psalm!) Share this practice, if possible, with those whom you live with.

COFFEE AND A MOVIE

Join us on Monday, August 29th at 1:00 PM in the parish hall for "Paul Apostle of Christ". The film tells the story of Paul, who was known as a ruthless persecutor of Christians prior to his conversion to Christianity. Paul became Jesus' most influential apostle. Awaiting execution in a Roman prison, he reflects on his life with his friend and physician, Luke--who resolves to write a book detailing the birth of "The Way." Their faith challenges an empire. Will their words change the world? The plot focuses on his becoming a pivotal figure in the formation of the early church before being executed by Emperor Nero in Rome.

St. Camillus de Lellis was born at Bocchianico, Italy. He fought for the Venetians against the Turks, was addicted to gambling, and by 1574 was penniless in Naples. He became a Capuchin novice, but was unable to be professed because of a diseased leg he contracted while fighting the Turks. He devoted himself to caring for the sick, and became director of St. Giacomo Hospital in Rome.

He received permission from his confessor (St. Philip Neri) to be ordained and decided, with two companions, to found his own congregation, the Ministers of the Sick (the Camellians), dedicated to the care of the sick. They ministered to the sick of Holy Ghost Hospital in Rome, enlarged their facilities in 1585, founded a new house in Naples in 1588, and attended the plague-stricken aboard ships in Rome's harbor and in Rome.

In 1591, the Congregation was made into an order to serve the sick by Pope Gregory XIV, and in 1591 and 1605, Camillus sent members of his order to minister to wounded troops in Hungary and Croatia, the first field medical unit. Gravely ill for many years, he resigned as superior of the Order in 1607 and died in Rome on July 14, the year after he attended a General Chapter there. He was canonized in 1746, was declared patron of the sick, with St. John of God, by Pope Leo XIII, and patron of nurses and nursing groups by Pope Pius XI. His feast day is July 18th.

The Sacraments

ASK YOURSELF...

- Do you want to learn more about the Catholic way of life?
- Are you interested in becoming a Catholic?
- Do you know someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Were you baptized Catholic and want to complete the Sacraments of Initiation - Eucharist and Confirmation?
- Do you know anyone that has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?

We offer an opportunity to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights, and your faith story in a warm accepting setting. There is no obligation or commitment. For information, please contact Anna-Marie Wright in the parish office.

ST. MARY MAGDALENE (JULY 22TH)

St. Mary Magdalene is one of the greatest saints of the Bible and a legendary example of God's mercy and grace. The precise dates of her birth and death are unknown, but we do know she was present with Christ during his public ministry, death and resurrection. She is mentioned at least a dozen times in the Gospels.

Mary Magdalene has long been regarded as a prostitute or sexually immoral in western Christianity, but this is not supported in the scriptures. It is believed she was a Jewish woman who lived among Gentiles, living as they did.

The Gospels agree that Mary was originally a great sinner. Jesus cast seven demons out of her when he met her. After this, she told several women she associated with and these women also became followers. There is also debate over if Mary Magdalene is the same unnamed woman, a sinner, who weeps and washes Jesus' feet with her hair in the Gospel of John. Scholars are skeptical this is the same person. Despite the scholarly dispute over her background, what she did in her subsequent life, after meeting Jesus, is much more significant. She was certainly a sinner whom Jesus saved, giving us an example of how no person is beyond the saving grace of God. During Jesus' ministry, it is believed that Mary Magdalene followed him, part of a semi-permanent entourage who served Jesus and his Disciples.

Mary likely watched the crucifixion from a distance along with the other women who followed Christ during His ministry. Mary was present when Christ rose from the dead, visiting his tomb to anoint his body only to find the stone rolled away and Christ, very much alive, sitting at the place they laid Him. She was the first witness to His resurrection. After the death of Christ, a legend states that she remained among the early Christians. After fourteen years, she was allegedly put into a boat by Jews, along with several other saints of the early Church, and set adrift without sails or oars. The boat landed in southern France, where she spent the remaining years of her life living in solitude, in a cave.

St. Mary Magdalene's feast day is July 22. She is the patroness of converts, repentant sinners, sexual temptation, pharmacists, tanners and women, and many other places and causes.

God Appears in the Ordinary

Greetings!

God makes ordinary things sacred. Water. Bread. Wine. Oil. These are simple items, yet they are transformed by God to impart to human beings the gift of God's own life. These gifts attain their highest purpose through God's transforming action.

We are human beings, which is to say that—unlike the angels—we are embodied. Our material nature means that we have need of things we can touch, taste, hear, see, and smell. That is why we need sacraments, which are visible signs of invisible realities. God reaches us through the material world because that is where we can be reached. God comes to us through the ordinary, and in so doing, the ordinary becomes sacred.

To help children understand this, parents and grandparents should reflect first on how they have encountered God's presence. Perhaps you have had the experience of feeling God's presence in nature or over coffee with a close friend. Perhaps you have heard God's voice in an unexpected way, through encouragement or challenge, in moments of suffering or gratitude. God speaks to us in a variety of ways. The sacraments are privileged moments of encounter, yet Pope Francis reminds us that each moment of our lives is an opportunity to grow in holiness.

God is always inviting us.

These moments when we feel God breaking through the ordinary become more apparent when we take time to notice them. You might write down one thing for which you are grateful each day. You might take five minutes to review the day's events to see where God's presence was most apparent. Over a meal with the ones you love, already a place of sacred encounter, you might converse about how God is acting in each of your lives in ways big and small. Making this a part of your regular family routine can yield big results in terms of seeing God's action bursting through the ordinary because, in large part, we only notice what we are looking for.

Conversing with family about how God is acting in our lives can help us more readily see God within our daily routines.

Put down the phone. Make time for silence. Take a walk. Look one another in the eye. It is through the world that God comes to us. It is our task to watch for God there and to listen for his voice. God is always inviting us. We are called to the Lord's table and to the dinner table, to the waters of Baptism and the water we pour for the one in need. We are called to recognize that we are always in the presence of God.

A HOT CUP OF CATHOLIC

Our next session is Thursday, July 28th, 2022 at 9:30 AM in rooms 1, 2, 3. Join us for a short video then discussion with one of our parish clergy on the "True Reformers". Our next saint is "Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd". Saints of the Catholic Reformation, a study crafted to teach about those who led the Church's rebirth from the ashes of confusion caused by the Protestant Reformation.

In these six sessions, participants will learn about the true benefactors of the human race: the saints. The saints of the Catholic Reformation show us just how powerful—and beautiful—is the human heart's free response to God's generous grace. To a Rome ravaged by war and wearied by the decadence of the Renaissance popes, Saint Philip Neri came as an unlikely reformer. Mystic, hermit, prankster, and effortless leader of men, Neri had a great sense of humor and an even greater heart. His creative response to the challenge of the reformation era made him the Apostle of Rome.

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

WHAT IS A SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY (SCC)?

A group of 8 to 10 people meet weekly (or once a month) in someone's home to study Sunday's scripture readings. Each person discovers, at their own pace, how God has been actively loving them and helping them. In this environment, mutual trust grows, and members share their individual faith stories. The group becomes a small church in the large parish, so that everyone experiences the concern, prayer, and emotional support of the Body of Christ.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE PART OF A GROUP CALLED "COMMUNITY"?

This is more than a bunch of people gathering for a meeting every week. SCCs are people of similar beliefs meeting WITH ("com") UNITY. Oneness does not mean alikeness; rather it means agreeing to join in the journey of uniting ourselves to God and His love. Members feel connected to each other due to sharing their faith week after week, but it is more than that. Groups will occasionally gather outside the meetings for social events such as barbecues and pool parties, with all family members invited. During parish missions or retreats, they often attend together and go out for coffee afterward. Why? Because the love flowing between the members cannot be contained within a mere hour and a half meeting per week.

WE ARE CURRENTLY PLANNING FOR THE FOLLOWING TIMES:

- Tuesday, 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM (Hacienda area – this group is full – if another group is needed for this area, we will need another facilitator.)
- Wednesday, 6:30 PM - 8:00 PM (Winifred area)
- 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month, 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (Golfcart friendly area - women only)
- Thursday, 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM (Tierra Del Sol area)
- 3rd Sunday each month, 6:00 PM - 7:30 PM (Tierra del Sol area– this group is full– if another group is needed for this time, we will need another facilitator.)

If interested in joining a SCC group, please sign-up at: <https://forms.gle/mCjg12jti127V1VRA>

We are looking for facilitators; training will be provided. To find out more about leading an SCC, call Anna-Marie Wright at 352-753-0989.

FONTANA REALTY

RENAISSANCE

"I owned hearing aids already but didn't wear them because they didn't help. That all changed with Angelo at RHC. What a tremendous difference! I now wear them from morning til night. These aids have had a positive impact on my life. I can understand conversations and no longer ask people to repeat. Angelo is all about helping people and I can't thank him enough!"
- Judy Hartstein - The Village of Charlotte
