GO DEEPER into Today's Gospel

Who are you? This question was most assuredly asked of Jesus on the day of resurrection and it is a question asked of each of us. Our identities can be described in so many ways. We can start with our gifts and our talents, expertise and unique personality expressions. We can describe things we like and things we prefer to set aside. As descriptive and captivating as these can be, none come close to our essence, our real and true self. While accurate in their own right, the self who lives and interacts with the world is the self we want others to see, the one we project. But there is much more to us just as there is much more to Jesus.

Jesus could describe himself based on all of the same criteria we use for ourselves. After all, Jesus is totally human. With all that people witnessed and all that Jesus knew about his physical human self, his divinity also shined forth. There was so much more to know about him. Whereas once Jesus was transfigured on top of a mountain before his disciples' eyes, so today he is transfigured before our eyes as he reveals his resurrected self as the Christ. Alleluia, Christ is risen! His glorified presence stands before us showing us that we are all much more than we see ourselves to be and show to others. We have a depth, purpose, and essence that go way beyond the superficial treasures of our existence to the very core of who we are.

Within each one of us is a spark of Divine Love where creature and Creator meet, and we are known uniquely by the name God whispers to us. It is not the earthly name that was given to us but the one that flows from Divine Power and claims us as one who is special and chosen in God's eyes. This is the self that will rise one day with the eternal Christ of God and live eternally as God provides. This is the self that when free from all superficial constraints layered upon it in this life can discover and know freedom in a way never possible before. This is love lifting us up and transforming us into who we really are, not who we want or need ourselves to be. Who are you? A special, unique child of God who has been fashioned in God's image, sustained by the power of God's love and kept eternally with the Blessed Trinity in heaven. Get to know this deeper, truer self as it is who you really are.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Acts	4:32-35
1 John	5:1-6
John	20:19-31

Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!

I wish to extend my Easter Greetings, and rejoice with you in the joy of the Resurrection. I pray that the Easter “Alleluia”, which echoes forth from the Church, will refresh the hearts of all the Faithful.

This Easter Season also brings us the hope that the worst of the Pandemic is somehow behind us and that we are drawing close to the time when our Parish Churches can once again resound with the voices of all the Faithful. Throughout history, God has miraculously provided: new vaccines promise protection from the virus and new therapeutics are beginning to thwart the worst effects of the Coronavirus. In the near future, it is my prayer that we will be able to embrace the full practice of our faith once again together and without fear.

Let us rejoice fully in the Praise of God this Easter. Through the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, we have been made new in the waters of Baptism and become co-heirs to life-eternal. Christ did not forget us during these difficult days, but has been with us! He has strengthened the weak, comforted the dying, and inspired health care workers, scientists, grocery store workers, clergy and others who provide essential services, to help them persevere. Learning from Christ’s compassion has also led us to protect and care for the lonely elderly, sick and vulnerable of our brothers and sisters.

Easter is a time for us to be courageous witnesses to your Faith. Our family, friends, and neighbors need to hear the joyful message of Easter — Jesus Christ is Lord, and we have life in His name! May our hearts be opened to the need for something greater than ourselves. In this time when all things seem virtual, people are hungry for what is real, Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever. Be witnesses of Christ this Easter Season.

Know of my prayer for each of you and your family. I kindly ask the same of you. Let the light of the Risen Christ, symbolized by the Paschal Candle which shines in our churches during the Easter season, shatter any darkness you are experiencing. Allow the joyful Alleluia to refresh your faith, hope, and love.

Have a Happy and Blessed Easter.

Saint Benedict the African 1526 - 1589

Benedict held important posts in the Franciscan Order and gracefully adjusted to other work when his terms of office were up.

His parents were slaves brought from Africa to Messina, Sicily. Freed at 18, Benedict did farm work for a wage and soon saved enough to buy a pair of oxen. He was very proud of those animals. In time, he joined a group of hermits around Palermo and was eventually recognized as their leader. Because these hermits followed the Rule of Saint Francis, Pope Pius IV ordered them to join the First Order.

Benedict was eventually novice master and then guardian of the friars in Palermo—positions rarely held in those days by a brother. In fact, Benedict was forced to accept his election as guardian. And when his term ended, he happily returned to his work in the friary kitchen.

Benedict corrected the friars with humility and charity. Once he corrected a novice and assigned him a penance only to learn that the novice was not the guilty party. Benedict immediately knelt down before the novice and asked his pardon.

In later life, Benedict was not possessive of the few things he used. He never referred to them as “mine,” but always called them “ours.” His gifts for prayer and the guidance of souls earned him throughout Sicily a reputation for holiness. Following the example of Saint Francis, Benedict kept seven 40-day fasts throughout the year; he also slept only a few hours each night.

After Benedict’s death, King Philip III of Spain paid for a special tomb for this holy friar. Canonized in 1807, he is honored as a patron saint by African Americans. The liturgical feast of Saint Benedict the African is celebrated on April 4.

Reflection: Among Franciscans, a position of leadership is limited in time. When the time expires, former leaders sometimes have trouble adjusting to their new position. The Church needs men and women ready to put their best energies into leadership—but also men and women who are gracefully willing to go on to other work when their time of leadership is over.

I live in faith of the resurrection, but such is the nature of my faith that so much of me still remains entombed. Break open the tomb.

Where I've buried my compassion, break open the tomb.

Where I've buried my sense of mercy, break open the tomb.

Where I've buried my humility, break open the tomb.

Where I've buried my love for my heavenly Father, break open the tomb.

Where I've buried my sense of joy, break open the tomb.

Where I've buried my willingness to forgive, break open the tomb.

Lord, in you I've found a Savior no grave can withstand.

Help me to roll away this stone and find the miracle of new life that I may live more fully in your saving grace. Amen.

Imagine what it would be like to have your electricity turned off—no fridge, no a/c, no tv, no lights, no charging cell phones, computers or electronic devices. We have helped many needy families with their past due electric bills enabling their power to be turned back on, like a single mother of 4 children (the youngest just 3 months old) who was laid off from her job at a nursing home due to an outbreak of COVID.

We are so blessed and thankful for your generosity during this pandemic season which allows us to continue to help the needy. You can make donations to St. Vincent de Paul in one of five ways:

1. The green envelopes located in the information boxes at each exit which you can drop in the collection baskets at each door; or
2. On-line at www.sspeterandpaul.org. Click on the line marked "Giving" and scroll down to "Poor Box – St. Vincent de Paul"; or
3. Mailing a check made payable to St. Vincent de Paul to 2850 75th Street West, Bradenton, FL 34209-5395; or
4. Making a donation on our website at www.svdp-bradenton.org; and additionally
5. Pick the Ss. Peter and Paul chapter of the SVdP Society on your Amazon account and they will donate .5% of your eligible purchases to us. Go to: www.smile.amazon.com/ch/30-0589384.

Because we can't have big groups right now, the Easter Bunny brought treats to the kids in their Faith Formation classes.

Many hands made light work of stripping the palms for Palm Sunday.
Thanks to everyone who helped out last Friday!

Thank You

To my parish family...

I can't begin to tell you how much you helped me after the passing of my husband, Claude Parker, in January. All the texts and phone calls were so appreciated, even though at the time I couldn't respond to each one. Numerous cards, Mass intentions and enrollments were sent to me, each filled with compassion, support and love that I could actually feel. You shared my grief.

Claude was in the home hospice program for 11 months. In our back room we have a round table we called the Medicine Table. On it I kept all of his many medicines: some were to help him live, some were just to keep him comfortable.

This same table right now is piled with every card, note and enrollment that you sent to me. I guess you could say that table has become my Medicine Table, because as I glance at it each day I am comforted, supported, and strengthened by the care and love those cards contain.

So I thank you with all my heart for every touch, hug, and kind word — spoken or written — that you have given me. It means more than I can explain.

May we strive to be thankful for the Gift of each day, and be generous with our love every day. Time is precious and full of opportunities.

Your friend and sister in Christ, Sherree Parker

A Happy Ending Isn't the Whole Story

“Is there a happy ending?”

When my kids were young, we never made it past the first whiff of any narrative tension before I got this question. As soon as whatever princess or furry woodland animal who was the hero of the story got into any small scrape, they wanted that reassurance, “Is there a happy ending?”

I can't say I blame them. Don't we all feel that way sometimes? We enter into a relationship with someone or some situation, and we just want to protect ourselves. We want to know it's not going to go badly – or, if it does, that we will be able to come back from it. It's a human instinct, a reflex. Our inclination to protect ourselves makes it so that we sometimes want to press fast-forward on the bad stuff and skip straight ahead to the happily-ever-after.

Easter is the ultimate happy ending. It's the day of miracles. The day when all the stones roll away and all the sins are forgiven. It's the day that puts everything right.

But if we learned anything from this week – from the Passion and death of the Lord – it's that we can't press fast-forward on the hardships of life. That tension, that loss, that fear – it's crucial, isn't it? As Catholics, we are who we are because of Easter. But Easter doesn't happen without Good Friday.

So, does the story of salvation have a happy ending? We know it does. But we also remember that the ending isn't all that matters.
