Life of Your Church

06.20.21

Pastor Jack is retiring next Sunday, June 27. Please join us to celebrate the legacy of Jack and Sharon Stephenson in all 3 worship services on June 27. There is no longer a drive-thru event but instead, we invite you to give your well wishes in person!

If you want to give to the Love Offering for Jack & Sharon, you can give online, with cash, or by check (please make payable to Anona UMC and indicate Jack love offering on the memo line).

Pastor Jack will be missed but we will see him on campus continuing to support and be present for Anona! Thank you Pastor Jack Stephenson for your heart and dedication to this church community and beyond!

Our next summer event is the beach cleanup and cookout on Saturday, June 26, 9-Noon at 1700 Gulf Blvd (Indian Rocks Rd access). If red tide or weather becomes an issue, we may end up canceling this event. Check the app, website, or Facebook pages for updates throughout the week. Lunch reservations and details are online: www.anona.com.

Anona Kids and families, we will have a jam-packed summer of fun! Be sure to check out the website, app, and social media for more information. Anona Youth, invites 6th-12th grade students, to begin 'Summer Hangs & Bible Study' on Wednesdays, 5-7 pm. For youth questions or more information on summer events, email Megan@anona.com.

Vitamins continue to be collected all of June! Needed are infant drops, chewable children's vitamins, and adult multi-vitamins. These vitamins are crucial to Guatemala families struggling with food shortages. Thank you!
