Pope Francis's Universal Intention for April: Fundamental Rights

We pray for those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis.

EMHC (Eucharistic Ministers of Holy Communion) to the home bound ministry is calling you because you are needed. What better way to serve God than to bring the “true presence” of our Lord to those who are unable to attend Mass here at St. Brendan’s. Please contact Steve/Robi: (678) 906-9561, or richeysteve@yahoo.com to inquire about becoming part of the team!

The Al-Anon Family Groups that meet at St Brendan invite you to an Open House and Public Outreach Event on Saturday, April 24, from 1:00-3:00 p.m. Tour the new meeting space in the Learning Center and visit the Al-Anon/Alateen literature table. Members will be on hand to guide you through the space and to answer any questions you might have about Al-Anon and Alateen.

Our Electronics Recycling Event in March collected 6,302 pounds of electronics including 167 laptops, computers and tablets!!

Maximizing Mass

COMMUNION

Eucharistic Prayer I describes the reception of Communion as filling us “with every grace and blessing,” and the Catechism teaches that because of this Communion is an anticipation of heavenly glory (n. 1402). It goes on to remind us that receiving Communion, “increases the communicant’s union with the Lord, forgives his venial sins, and preserves him from grave sins” (n. 1416).

Its very name describes its importance in the life of a believer. Through receiving Communion we strengthen our communion with God, with the saints, with our fellow Catholics, and with our fellow Christians, even when we do not share full communion with us due to the wounds and divisions in Christian unity.

When we fall out of communion, due to mortal sin, we strive to regain it as soon as possible. Even as our earthly life draws to an end we receive Communion to prepare us for the definitive journey to eternal life, the crowning moment, God-willing, of a lifetime receiving it, since the day of our first reception of Holy Communion, to help us in our journey to our true home.

“May the Body of Christ keep me safe for eternal life.”

Holy Communion begins with the priest celebrating Mass, which is why music for the distribution of Communion begins as the celebrant receives it, but doesn’t end with him. In a concelebrated Mass all the bishops and priests concelebrating receive the Body of Our Lord in Holy Communion simultaneously whenever possible, and then quietly line up or await the chalice (or chalices) containing his Precious Blood.

It is a great privilege and responsibility. It is necessity that requires the celebrant to give Communion to himself. The Body and Blood of Christ are something received, and the celebrant consecrates and receives them for himself and for everyone participating. In this way the Church grows and consolidates: through Holy Communion her communion grows and deepens, continuing a sacramental communion that began on the night of the Last Supper with the Apostles. As St. John Paul II reminded us in his encyclical letter, Ecclesia de Eucharistia: “The Apostles, by accepting in the Upper Room Jesus invitation: ‘Take, eat’, ‘Drink of it, all of you’ (Matthew 26:26–27), entered for the first time into sacramental communion with him. From that time forward, until the end of the age, the Church is built up through sacramental communion with the Son of God who was sacrificed for our sake: ‘Do this in remembrance of me ... Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me’ (1 Corinthians 11:24–25; cf. Luke 22:19)” (n. 21).

The Apostles, their successors, and every sacred minister, even before ordination, had a moment where they received the Eucharist through the mediation and ministry of another. Now the celebrant receives it for his own spiritual growth as well as that of his flock.

As the celebrant partakes of the chalice he is completing the sacrifice of the Mass. Even in cases when the celebrant becomes incapacitated before this moment, another priest fulfills this duty, because without receiving the Body and the Blood the sacrifice is incomplete, and so is the Mass. After receiving the Precious Blood in Holy Communion the celebrant is now ready to give the Body and Blood of Christ to others.

FIRST COMMUNION RETREAT: Spring's arrival means our children are getting close to celebrating their First Communion. In preparation for the big day, a First Communion workshop was held last weekend. The children enjoyed hearing the story The Weight of a Mass with Fran Keller, learned about the importance of Mass, practiced Communion with Jackie Banks, and made their First Communion banners with their moms and dads. What a joyful day for all!

THE GARDEN MINISTRY is off to a good start for our 2021 season. Everyone is welcome to join in getting the beds and general area ready on our Work Day scheduled for Saturday, April 17 starting at noon.

The Spark of Divine Love

Who are you? This question was most assuredly asked of Jesus on the day of resurrection and it is a question asked of each of us. Our identities can be described in so many ways. We can start with our gifts and our talents, expertise and unique personality expressions. We can describe things we like and things we prefer to set aside. As descriptive and captivating as these can be, none come close to our essence, our real and true self. While accurate in their own right, the self who lives and interacts with the world is the self we want others to see, the one we project. But there is much more to us just as there is much more to Jesus.

Jesus could describe himself based on all of the same criteria we use for ourselves. After all, Jesus is totally human. With all that people witnessed and all that Jesus knew about his physical human self, his divinity also shined forth. There was so much more to know about him. Whereas once Jesus was transfigured on top of a mountain before his disciples' eyes, so today he is transfigured before our eyes as he reveals his resurrected self as the Christ. Alleluia, Christ is risen! His glorified presence stands before us showing us that we are all much more than we see ourselves to be and show to others. We have a depth, purpose, and essence that go way beyond the superficial treasures of our existence to the very core of who we are.

Within each one of us is a spark of Divine Love where creature and Creator meet, and we are known uniquely by the name God whispers to us. It is not the earthly name that was given to us but the one that flows from Divine Power and claims us as one who is special and chosen in God's eyes. This is the self that will rise one day with the eternal Christ of God and live eternally as God provides. This is the self that when free from all superficial constraints layered upon it in this life can discover and know freedom in a way never possible before. This is love lifting us up and transforming us into who we really are, not who we want or need ourselves to be. Who are you? A special, unique child of God who has been fashioned in God's image, sustained by the power of God's love and kept eternally with the Blessed Trinity in heaven. Get to know this deeper, truer self as it is who you really are.

Join the Vocation Ministry's Elijah Cup Program and deepen your family's prayer life as you pray for vocations.

The Elijah Cup is a blessed vessel used during prayer as a tool to remind us of what we are praying for: vocations to the religious life.

At the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass and the 7:00 p.m. Saturday Spanish Mass, an Elijah Cup will be given to a household to pray for religious vocations during the following week. The cup is then returned by the household to the sacristy before the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass /7:00 p.m. Saturday Mass.

To sign up online, please visit St. Brendan's website www.StBrendansATL.com or <http://bit.ly/elijahcup>. You may also stop by the Welcome Desk during regular Parish Office hours to sign up.

Recently some parishioners have reported receiving email and/or text messages requesting money and are purportedly sent from Fr. Matthew. These types of communications are scams. Fr. Matthew will not text or email a parishioner individually asking for donations in such a manner.

Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss, Alleluia!

Hymns of praise then let us sing, Alleluia!
Unto Christ our heavenly King, Alleluia!
Who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
Sinners to redeem and save, Alleluia!

But the pains which he endured, Alleluia!
Our salvation have procured, Alleluia!
Now above the sky he's King, Alleluia!
Where the angels ever sing, Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!
Praise eternal as his love, Alleluia!
Praise him, now his might confess, Alleluia!
Father, Son, and Spirit blest, Alleluia!

Communion I:

At The Lamb's High Feast We Sing

At the Lamb's high feast we sing
Praise to our victorious King,
Who has washed us in the tide
Flowing from his pierced side.
Praise we him, whose love divine
Gives his sacred Blood for wine,
Gives his Body for the feast:
Christ the victim, Christ the priest.

Where the Paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.
Praise we Christ, whose blood was shed,
Paschal victim, Paschal bread;
With sincerity and love
Eat we manna from above.

Mighty victim from on high,
Hell's fierce pow'rs beneath you lie;
You have conquered in the fight,
You have brought us life and light.
Now no more can death appall,
Now no more the grave enthrall;
You have opened paradise,
And in you our saints shall rise.

Easter triumph, Easter joy,
This alone can sin destroy;
From sin's pow'r, Lord, set us free,
Newborn souls in you to be.
Father, who the crown shall give,
Savior, by whose death we live,
Spirit guide through all our days:
Three in One, your name we praise.

Communion II:

Worthy Is the Lamb

R/ Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive honor and glory.
Worthy are the ones who believe,
to receive the goodness of God.

Worthy are you, O Paschal Lamb.
Wisdom and strength belong now to you.
You laid down your life
and died upon the cross:
we've become a people of hope. R/

Worthy are you, O Bread of Life.
Salvation and joy belong now to us.
By conquering death and rising to new life,
we've become a people of praise. R/

Worthy are you, O risen Christ.
Wonders and signs, revealing your might.
Your power and glory shine upon our lives:
We've become a light for the world. R/

Communion III:

Gift of Finest Wheat

R/ You satisfy the hungry heart with gift of finest wheat;
Come give to us, O saving Lord,
the bread of life to eat.

As when the shepherd calls his sheep,
they know and heed his voice;
so when you call your family, Lord,
we follow and rejoice. R/

With joyful lips we sing to you
our praise and gratitude,
that you should count us worthy, Lord,
to share this heavenly food. R/

Is not the cup we bless and share
the blood of Christ outpoured?
Do not one cup, one loaf, declare our oneness in the Lord? R/

Communion IV:

I Am the Bread of Life

I am the bread of life.
You who come to me shall not hunger;
and who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

R/And I will raise you up,
and I will raise you up,
and I will raise you up on the last day.

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live forever, you shall live forever. R/

Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, and drink of his blood you shall not have life within you. R/

I am the resurrection, I am the life.
If you believe in me, even though you die,
you shall live forever. R/

Yes, Lord, we believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who has come into the world. R/

Recessional:

Christ the Lord is Risen Today

Christ the Lord is risen today, Alleluia!
All on earth with angels say: Alleluia!
Raise your joys and triumphs high, Alleluia!
Sing, O heav'ns and earth reply: Alleluia!

Lives again our glorious King, Alleluia!
Where, O death, is now your sting? Alleluia!
Once he died our souls to save, Alleluia!
Where your victory, O grave? Alleluia!

Love's redeeming work is done, Alleluia!
Fought the fight, the battle won, Alleluia!
Death in vain forbids him rise, Alleluia!
Christ has opened paradise, Alleluia!

Soar we now where Christ has led, Alleluia!
Foll'wing our exalted head, Alleluia!
Make like him, like him we rise, Alleluia!
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies, Alleluia!

Text: Charles Wesley, 1707-1788, alt. Tune: LLANFAIR, 77 77 with alleluias; Robert Williams, 1781-1821

Processional:

Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss, Alleluia!

Hymns of praise then let us sing, Alleluia!
Unto Christ our heavenly King, Alleluia!
Who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
Sinners to redeem and save, Alleluia!

But the pains which he endured, Alleluia!
Our salvation have procured, Alleluia!
Now above the sky he's King, Alleluia!
Where the angels ever sing, Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!
Praise eternal as his love, Alleluia!
Praise him, now his might confess, Alleluia!
Father, Son, and Spirit blest, Alleluia!

Text: St. 1, Surrexit Christus hodie, Latin, 14th c.; st. 2, 3, The Compleat Psalmist, c. 1750, alt; st. 4, Charles Wesley, 1707-1788. Tune: EASTER HYMN, Lyra Davidica, 1708.

Responsorial Psalm 118

Response:

This is the day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad.

Verse after the Gospel

Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this,
God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him
the name which is above every name.

Easter Sequence:

Ye Sons and Daughters

Ye Sons and daughters, let us sing!
The King of heav'n, the glorious King,
O'er death today rose triumphing. Alleluia!

That Easter morn, at break of day,
The faithful women went their way
To seek the tomb where Jesus lay. Alleluia!

An angel clad in white they see,
Who sat, and spoke unto the three,
"Your Lord has gone to Galilee." Alleluia!

O FILII ET FILIA, 888 with alleluia's, Chant, Mode II Arranged by Josh Blakesley.

Sprinkling Rite:

Song Over the Waters

R/ God, you have moved upon the waters,
you have sung in the rush of wind and flame;
and in your love,
you have called us sons and daughters,
make us people of the water and your name.

Waters of the sea, waters of the earth: Renew us!
Waters of the skies, waters of our birth: Renew us!

Rivers of the earth, gentle flowing streams: Renew us!
Spirit of our hopes, spirit of our dreams: Renew us!
R/

Offertory:

Above All

Above all powers, above all kings
Above all nature and all created things
Above all wisdom, and all the ways of man
You were here before the world began

Above all kingdoms, above all thrones
Above all wonders the world has ever known
Above all wealth and treasures of the earth
There's no way to measure what you're worth

R/ Crucified, laid behind a stone
You lived to die, rejected and alone
Like a rose, trampled on the ground
You took the fall and thought of me
Above all (repeat verses and refrain ad libitum)

Communion I:

Body of Christ

This is the Body of Christ,
Beautiful, broken and blessed;
Miracle of the greatest of loves,
Presence of God in our midst.
This is the Cup that he shares,
Endlessly emptied and poured;
Sacrifice made so that we might be saved
Now and forevermore.

Amen, amen! We are healed by the Bread of Life.
Amen, amen! We are one in the Body of Christ.
We are one in the Body of Christ.

This is the Body of Christ,
Word become flesh by his grace;
Miracle of a myst'ry no tongue
Ever could fully explain.
This is the Blood of the Lamb,
Gift of a heart open wide,
Poured from the Cross to the altar
Where love comforts and fills and provides.

This is the Body of Christ,
Gathered in hope and in faith;
Bound by this love, this Body and Blood
He offers again and again.
All of the hunger we have,
Satisfied only by this;
So we receive, we remember, believe
And share so that others may live.

Communion III:

Bread of Heaven

R/ Bread of heaven, Savior broken,
Cup of life out poured;
We your people thirst and hunger.
Come renew us, Lord; come renew us, Lord.

From the mountain, blessing spoken
Where we came to pray;
With the simple truth before us;
Love them in my name;
Love them in my name. R/

From the garden dark with sorrow,
From the tears you wept,
Bloomed the flower of salvation:
New life born of death,
New life born of death. R/

From the hill where love was lifted
On the heavy wood,
Flow the blood and streams of mercy
Where your Mother stood,
Where your Mother stood. R/

From the tomb that could not hold you
In the dark of night,
Broke the morning of redemption,
Raising us to life, raising us to life. R/

Recessional:

Alleluia! Love is Alive

People of God see the morning is new
Rise from your sleeping and run to the tomb.
Come and see, come and see! He is alive!
A grave that is empty, a promise fulfilled,
God who was with us is here with us still.
He is here! He is here! He is alive!

R/ Alleluia! Love is alive!
Conquered the grave and defeated the night.
Alleluia! Love is alive!
The Son has arisen for all your people.
Sing alleluia!

People of God let your fear fall away.
Your chains have been broken,
Abandon your shame. Lift your hearts!
Lift your hearts! He is alive!
Here now is mercy embracing your soul,
Here the fulfillment that once was foretold.
It is true, it is true! He is alive! R/

People of God now rejoicing in Christ,
Carry your joy to the darkness of night.
Tell the world, tell the world! He is alive!
Hear the good news of this glorious day,
Every heart singing as heaven proclaims
He is Lord, He is Lord! He is alive! R/
