Gospel Meditation

PROVIDED BY REGNUM CHRISTI

Strength in Humility

January 9, 2022, Feast of the Baptism of the Lord
Father Shawn Aaron, LC

Read Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

Introductory Prayer

Almighty and eternal God, you are high above us in the heavens, and yet you are so near to me. I know that you love me infinitely. I rest in your love; I find my strength and hope in you alone. Thank you for loving me despite my sinfulness and complete unworthiness. In return, I offer you my whole self, along with my intense desire to put you first in my life.

Petition: Jesus meek and humble of heart, make my heart more like yours.

- One Mightier Than I Is Coming: John knows who he is not. Proper self-knowledge is an essential step on the path to sanctity. John is attracting the attention of the multitudes in Israel. Many people would be flattered or even intoxicated with this notoriety. Yet John is not grasping for power, nor does he seek to be someone he is not. He is preparing people's hearts for the true Christ. The Evil One will continually try to get us to look to ourselves and our own talents in an attempt to distract our eyes from God and his plan for us. John gives us a shining example of the triumph of humble self-knowledge over the wiles of the devil. When we are totally oriented toward God, we give rise to the desire to eliminate from our personal life any lie, vanity, and inflated opinion of ourselves. We begin to live in the truth, giving all the gifts God has granted us their real value. We use them for the service of his Kingdom, without taking anything for ourselves, since everything is his.
- I Am Not Worthy to Loosen the Thongs of His Sandals: There is no holiness without humility. Simply understood, humility means living in the truth. This humility is born of a proper understanding of our relationship to God. It has nothing to do with a lack of self-respect—Jesus was humble, yet with utter self-possession and strength! Humility is the awareness that even our greatest talents come from God and are meant for his glory. In the end though, even John's humility will pale in comparison to the humility that Jesus models for us in his life. "The one who serves does not consider himself superior to the one served, however miserable his situation at the moment may be. Christ took the lowest place in the world—the cross—and by this radical humility he redeemed us and constantly comes to our aid" (Pope-Emeritus Benedict XVI, God Is Love, 35). Once again, we see that Jesus asks of us only what he himself has been willing to embrace. He is the source of the strength I need to practice this humility in my daily life.
- Jesus Was Also Baptized: By being baptized, Jesus associates himself with sinful humanity. He has taken our flesh in the Incarnation. Now he sets out on the path of taking our sins upon himself so that he might redeem us from them. If it was a scandal for the Jewish people that God would become a man, how much more scandalous was it that he would be baptized, a manifest sign of repentance for sins? So great is God's love for us that even this act is not beneath him. It is one of many steps by which he will allow his love for us to lead him even to the ignominy of the cross. Have I truly contemplated how important I am to Jesus?

Conversation with Christ

Blessed Lord, you went to the extreme of the cross to prove your love for me. You have borne my pride, and with your love and humility, you have proven yourself stronger than my greatest sin. Give me the strength and courage to follow you down the path of self-giving and humble service to those around me. Free me from the shackles of pride.

Resolution

Today I will read and reflect upon the Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraphs 1262-1270.

Saint of the Week

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Arians, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denies Christ's divinity. From Phrygia St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy.

Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.

As the Food Pantry begins our 14th Year of Service, We Thank You for Your Support!

St. Brendan parishioners, Pinecrest Academy, Food for Thought, and Good Shepherd kept the pantry shelves stocked! In addition, your generous financial contributions allowed us to purchase weekly, fresh fruit and veggies. Dedication is the best way to describe our Garden Ministry; their work produced a bountiful harvest last year that delivered our clients healthy options each week!

We also offer a special thanks to a large local store, which delivers food almost every Saturday (always a surprise)! To Publix, we thank you for your weekly donations and for King's Hawaiian Rolls, which is always generous! Other organizations that we're grateful for include American Heritage Girls, who has been a huge help with Christmas and Easter Markets and United Way, for their organization, encouragement and assistance. And to numerous other groups and individuals, we offer our grateful thanks!

Most of all, I thank our pantry volunteers. Your faithful help has kept us going and continue to serve thousands of people.

In these uncertain times, you may know someone who could use a little help with food assistance. Please tell them about the food pantry. We serve the community as well as St. Brendan's Parishioners.

Blessings to all as we begin 2022 with courage and hope!

Right now our only need is cereal of any kind.

thank you

Con la fiesta del Bautismo del Señor se termina el ciclo de la Navidad. El Bautismo del Señor es como una nueva Epifanía o manifestación. “Jesús, el Mesías enviado por Dios”, se manifiesta al pueblo para salvarlo. En este Evangelio se manifiestan dos voces. La voz de Juan que dice: “Detrás de mi viene uno con más poder que yo. Yo no soy digno de desatar la correa de sus sandalias, aunque fuera arrodillándome ante él. “El mensaje de Juan es simple pero muy claro. Desaparecer él para que Jesús crezca. No menciona su nombre, pero sí, su grandeza y la magnitud de su humildad. Juan se considera indigno, inclusive de arrodillarse ante él. Jesús, es el Hijo de Dios. La segunda voz, es la Divina, se escucha desde el cielo. “Al momento de salir del agua, Jesús vio los Cielos abiertos: el Espíritu bajaba sobre él como lo hace la paloma, mientras se escuchaban estas palabras del Cielo: “Tu eres mi Hijo, el Amado, mi Elegido.” (Marcos 1:10-11). Jesús, es el predilecto del Padre. Por eso esas palabras hermosas.

La liturgia de este domingo es un llamado a la comunidad parroquial para no quebrantarse en los momentos difíciles que está pasando. Nuestro compromiso como bautizado, por el contrario, debe salir a flote en cada momento de la vida cotidiana. Como hijo-hija predilecto de Dios debemos seguir a Jesús como único camino. Cada día el deber del bautizado es conocer más y más a Jesucristo, caminando hacia su interior para dar paso al diálogo sincero que torna la vida a Dios. ¡Goza tu bautismo, goza el ser hijo-hija de Dios haciendo el bien!

la tierra y el sol; Hoy, Señor, queremos cantar las grandezas de tu amor.

1. 1. Gracias, Padre, mi vida es tu vida, tus manos amasan mi barro, mi alma es tu aliento divino, tu sonrisa en mis ojos está.
2. Gracias, Padre tú guías mis pasos, tú eres la luz y el camino, conduces a ti mi destino, como llevas los ríos al mar.
3. Gracias, Padre me hiciste a tu imagen, y quieres que siga tu ejemplo, brindando mi amor al hermano, construyendo un mundo de paz.

Sanctuary

Lord prepare me to be a sanctuary
Pure and holy, tried and true
With thanksgiving
I'll be a living sanctuary for You

Responsorial Psalm 29

R/ The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Alleluia (Gospel Acclamation)

The heavens were opened and the voice of the Father thundered:
This is my beloved Son, listen to him.

Offertory:

We Three Kings

We three kings of Orient are
Bearing gifts, we traverse afar
Field and fountain, moor and mountain
Following yonder star

R/ O...star of wonder, star of night
Star with royal beauty bright
Westward leading, still proceeding
Guide us to the perfect light!

Born a King on Bethlehem's plain
Gold I bring to crown him again
King forever, ceasing never
Over us all to reign R/

Frankincense to offer have I
Incense owns a Deity nigh
Prayer and praising, gladly raising
Worshiping God on high R/

Myrrh is mine: its bitter perfume
Breathes a life of gathering gloom
Sorrowing, sighing, bleeding, dying
Sealed in the stone cold tomb R/

Glorious now behold him arise
King and God and Sacrifice
"Alleluia, Alleluia!"
Sounds through the earth and skies R/

Text: Matthew 2:1-11; John H. Hopkins, Jr., 1820-1891.
Tune: KINGS OF ORIENT, John H. Hopkins, Jr., 1820-1891

Communion I:

I Am the Bread of Life

R/ I am the bread of life
All who eat this bread
Will never die
I am God's love revealed
I am broken
That you might be healed

All who eat
Of this heavenly bread
All who drink
This cup of the covenant
You will live forever
For I will raise you up R/

No one who comes to me
Shall hunger again
No one who believes
Shall ever thirst
All that the Father draws
Shall come to me
And I will give them rest R/

Communion II:

Our Savior Born Today

Good news and great Joy
To all the world
Our Savior born today
Asleep in a manger in Bethlehem
He comes to light our way!

R/ Alleluia!

Born is the King of Kings

Alleluia!

The maker of heavenly things

Our Savior is born today!

Lift up your hearts
And praise His name
Our God has sent him forth
Peace on Earth
Goodwill towards men
His star shines from the north R/

He comes to love
And bring us home
The sinners and the saints
Salvation is the gift He gives
To all who seek His grace R/

Jon Hazelwood

Recessional:

Joy to the World

Joy to the world
The Lord is come
Let earth receive her King!
Let ev'ry heart
Prepare Him room
And heav'n and nature sing
And heav'n and nature sing
And heav'n, and heav'n
And nature sing!

Joy to the earth
The Savior reigns
Let us our songs employ!
While fields and floods
Rocks, hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy
Repeat the sounding joy
Repeat, repeat
The sounding joy!

He rules the world
With truth and grace
And makes the nations prove
The glories of
His righteousness
And wonders of His love
And wonders of His love
And wonders, wonders
Of His love!

GOSPEL &

When you were baptized, a priest sprinkled holy water over your head. He said, "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." God said, "This is my child in whom I am well pleased." Tell God you are glad you are his child. Tell him you will obey his laws. Tell him that you love him with your whole heart, soul, body, and mind.

PRAYER

Holy Spirit, I want to be a good child of God.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will talk to God when I first wake up each morning.
