This Week's Reflection

I love Lourdes, France.

The scenic beauty of the French mountains.
The grotto where Mary appeared to Bernadette.

And the healing that has emerged through the miraculous waters flowing there.

Most of all, I love the crowds. People come from all around the world, making their way to Lourdes seeking the healing balm of sacred water.

All God's children. Every flavor. Every shape. Banded together in the hope of encountering Christ Jesus. And finding healing for their burdens.

Lourdes is a special place. The rock walls of the grotto there are completely smooth. Made that way by millions of pilgrims prayerfully pressing their palms to the stone. In tears. In grace. In hope.

I read about one priest who journeyed with an ill friend for eight days to seek the powerful waters in Lourdes.

During that pilgrimage, the priest met a young man who had no legs. Later, the group shared a foot-washing experience. The priest watched as a woman knelt before the young man. Rather than washing his feet, she gently washed, dried, and kissed his stumps. His body had been maimed by a roadside bomb in Afghanistan.

The man had come with his brother. The priest approached the brother and quietly thanked him for bringing the injured man to Lourdes.

The brother replied, "I didn't bring him. He brought me. He's accepted what happened to him. I am the one full of bitterness and hate."

Forgiving the people who harm you is one thing. That takes courage and grace.

But forgiving the people who harm the ones you love can be another thing altogether. Forgiving the bully who intimidates your child. Or the in-law who degrades your sister. Or the boss who fires your husband. Now that can be tough.

Yet the wounded soldier, maimed for life by someone he'd never met, came to accept and forgive. And in turn he offered a place of peace to his brother, whose own deep injury came from watching his beloved sibling suffer.

Sometimes forgiveness is contagious, like a virus transmitted by inhaling the breath of a nearby person. In the same way, forgiveness can often come from drawing near to someone who has already forgiven and inhaling that grace.

Like the brother, when you struggle to forgive, draw near to someone who's a good forgiver. Breathe in their breath. Inhale the grace.

When you have forgiven a great wrong in your life, don't keep that healing to yourself. Recycle it and offer the resulting grace to the people all around you.

The world will be glad you did.

Allen Hunt

Have you been worshipping with us, but never officially taken the step to become Catholic?
 Have you been away from the Church, and have now returned, but want to know more?
 Have you been a Catholic all your life, but never celebrated all the Sacraments of Initiation
 (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist)?
 Have you joined us from a different background and would like to find out more about the Catholic Church?
 Do you just want to learn more about your Catholic faith?

If you (“or someone you know”) answers YES to any of these questions, you are invited to find out more through a process called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). It is a journey that begins with your questions. There is no obligation to join us as you discover more about your Catholic faith.

RCIA Classes begin August 16th at 7:15pm.

I want to extend an invitation to everyone in the parish, whether you have been Catholic your entire life or are new to the faith, to join us on Tuesday nights for our RCIA sessions. RCIA is the program through which those interested in becoming Catholic can learn about the teachings, rituals and practices of the Church, but it can also be a great program for those who are already Catholic to learn more about their faith, to grow in their relationship with our Lord and to re-ignite their spiritual life. The topic of discussion for the RCIA will be listed each week in the bulletin. If there is a topic that is of interest to you or one that you feel may be of value, please join us!

The topic for Tuesday, August 23 will be “Why Be Catholic? / What It Means To Be Catholic”

Month of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

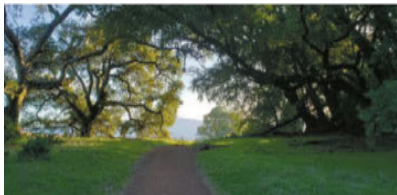

The Church dedicates the month of August to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It is a dogma of the Catholic faith that Mary is the Immaculate Conception; that is, in preparation for the Incarnation of the Second Person of the Holy Trinity in her womb, she was conceived without the corruption of sin through the foreseen and infinite merits of her Son, Jesus Christ. Over the centuries, as saints and theologians reflected on how Mary pondered and treasured the sacred events from the life of Christ in her holy heart, as attested in Scripture, her pure heart was recognized as something to be imitated. Devotion to Our Lady's purity of heart began to flower - so much so that in the 17th century, St. John Eudes promoted it alongside the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The devotion rose to a new level after the apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima, when Mary revealed an image of her Immaculate Heart to Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco.

NEW BEGINNINGS MINISTRY NEWS

Our school supplies collection was wonderfully successful! We combined our donations with those from Best Buy in Morrow and a children’s charity, ICNA Relief, and brought them to the Student Support Center of Henry County Schools. The staff was very grateful for all the items including 80 book bags. Four days after delivering them, a member went back to collect the plastic bins. The liaison between homeless children and the school system, Carolyn Heard, told her that almost all the supplies had been given out to children in need. Last year, a little over 1700 children were classified as homeless (no permanent address); this year that number will be surpassed. Thank you for helping us help these students!

The food pantry is being temporarily housed at the home of member. We meet on the 4th Saturday of each month to assemble grace bags at 10:00 a.m. At this time, we need the following items: toilet paper, combs, hand sanitizer, deodorant, toothbrushes, razors, shaving cream, chips, 2 ½ gallon Zip-lock bags, and fruit cups. Toiletries should be trial size and cans should have pop-tops. Thank you for all that you do for this ministry!

Thank you!
