This Week's Reflection

When Pope St. John Paul II added the Luminous Mysteries to the rosary, some people were taken aback. This appeared to be an attack on traditional practices. Actually, it wasn't. Prayer beads had been used in the Church for some time before St. Dominic created the rosary with which most of us are familiar. Other prayer beads had been used with prayers in adoration of Jesus. He wanted to provide a prayer form he could use in evangelization at a time when most people were illiterate, which included the Blessed Virgin Mary, and as an alternative to the Liturgy of the Hours. The Liturgy of the Hours involved praying all of the 150 psalms in a week, and so his rosary involved praying 150 Hail Marys in each complete recitation. In order to keep to that 150 model he only created 3 sets of 5 mysteries each, i.e. Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious. This rosary was given increased prominence when Pope St. Pius V, who had been a Dominican friar, asked everyone to pray it when Europe was under Muslim attack.

With the reforms of Vatican II the Liturgy of the Hours underwent significant and much needed redesign. It was no longer limited by maintaining the 150 psalm model, but now included canticles and hymns from other parts of the Bible, longer readings from sacred scripture, and selections from the works of great spiritual writers. Therefore, the Holy Father enhanced the scope of the rosary's reflection on the Gospel message by including these mysteries concerning Jesus' ministry.

The rosary continues to be a wonderful way many people have found to reflect on the mysteries of our faith and to join Mary in opening their minds and hearts to her Son.

*Have you been worshiping with us, but never officially taken the step to become Catholic?
Have you been away from the Church, and have now returned, but want to know more?
Have you been a Catholic all your life, but never celebrated all the Sacraments of Initiation
(Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist)?
Have you joined us from a different background and would like to find out more about the Catholic Church?
Do you just want to learn more about your Catholic faith?*

If you (“or someone you know”) answers YES to any of these questions, you are invited to find out more through a process called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). It is a journey that begins with your questions. There is no obligation to join us as you discover more about your Catholic faith.

RCIA Classes are held Tuesdays at 7:15pm.

I want to extend an invitation to everyone in the parish, whether you have been Catholic your entire life or are new to the faith, to join us on Tuesday nights for our RCIA sessions. RCIA is the program through which those interested in becoming Catholic can learn about the teachings, rituals and practices of the Church, but it can also be a great program for those who are already Catholic to learn more about their faith, to grow in their relationship with our Lord and to re-ignite their spiritual life. The topic of discussion for the RCIA will be listed each week in the bulletin. If there is a topic that is of interest to you or one that you feel may be of value, please join us!

The topic for Tuesday, August 23 will be “Why Be Catholic? / What It Means To Be Catholic”

Gospel Meditation for 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The serious disciple knows the necessity and value of discipline. Thinking of discipline as something punitive in nature, we underscore its place in our spiritual lives. Discipline is really about a radical trust in God and his guidance. “When you are conducted by a guide who takes you through an unknown country at night across fields where there are no tracks, by his own skill, asking no advice from anyone, giving no inkling of his plans, what choice do you have but to give yourself completely to his guidance? If you are convinced that he is a good guide, you must have faith in him and abandon yourself to his care (Jean-Pierre de Caussade).”

If someone wants to be physically fit, they readily find a competent trainer who sets them on a rigorous schedule. Determined to reach their goals, they sacrifice personal pleasure and trust in his guidance. Why should it be any different with God? In order to remain true to the way Jesus places before us, we have to listen, learn, and be willing to change. Falling in love with God and maintaining that relationship requires an investment of time, energy, and hard work. Putting personal preferences aside in pursuit of the Gospel and giving proper attention to our spiritual lives is challenging work. At first, “all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it (Hebrews).”

“What God does is essentially good. It does not need to be reformed or controlled...If you would live according to the Gospels, give yourself completely and simply to the action of God (Jean-Pierre de Caussade).” Submission to the holy will of God is not a submission to a set of pre-ordained set of circumstances. Rather, it is an abandonment and trust in God’s creative, life-giving, and salvific power. God brings light out of darkness and life out of death. Nurturing this bond of trust and seeking God in all things creates an intimate and particular relationship and bond between our Creator and us. When He comes, there will be no issue with us recognizing Him or Him recognizing us. We will have met before.

Tour of St. Benedict Catholic Church

Monsignor Terry Young will be leading a small tour at St. Benedict Catholic Church in Johns Creek on Tuesday, August 23rd. For those who would like to join us, we will be carpooling from St. James the Apostle at noon. If you would like to meet us at St. Benedict, please be there at 1:30pm.

Msgr. Terry was the 2nd Pastor of St. Benedict and instrumental in designing the stained glass windows installed there, with the history of the church in mind.

We will get to hear from Msgr. Terry why he chose these depictions of the prophets, apostles and saints that adorn the church.

Month of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

The Church dedicates the month of August to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It is a dogma of the Catholic faith that Mary is the Immaculate Conception; that is, in preparation for the Incarnation of the Second Person of the Holy Trinity in her womb, she was conceived without the corruption of sin through the foreseen and infinite merits of her Son, Jesus Christ. Over the centuries, as saints and theologians reflected on how Mary pondered and treasured the sacred events from the life of Christ in her holy heart, as attested in Scripture, her pure heart was recognized as something to be imitated. Devotion to Our Lady's purity of heart began to flower - so much so that in the 17th century, St. John Eudes promoted it alongside the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The devotion rose to a new level after the apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima, when Mary revealed an image of her Immaculate Heart to Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco.

Have you considered leaving a lasting legacy that will benefit the parish forever? Parishioners can make planned gifts to the parish endowment fund which will provide funding for our parish ministries long after we are gone. This is a wonderful thing you can do for your parish!

A planned gift is a gift that requires forethought, as it comes from assets or from a will or estate plan. Many find that making a gift in their will (also called a bequest) is the easiest way to support the future of the church for generations to come. The goal of planned giving is to help you plan your estate and charitable giving in a way that benefits you, your family, and the causes you care most about.

To learn more, go to the Catholic Foundation planned giving page or contact Juliet Greco at jgreco@cfnga.org.

NEW BEGINNINGS MINISTRY NEWS

To all those who stopped by our table at the Ministry Fair, thank you for allowing us to talk about the ministry with you. We also are very grateful for those of you who came to our meeting on August 8th. We are preparing to move ahead with all of our plans for future events.

This past week, we helped a gentleman with hotel rent. He was caught in a situation beyond his control; his roommate decided to go home to his family and left this man with the responsibility of the apartment. Our client could not afford the rent by himself and was sleeping in his car. He has a job and our aid helped him save some money for a new place to live. We thank all of you for your donations which helps us help others!
