This Week's Reflection

Gospel Meditation for the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You cannot serve both God and mammon.” Merriam-Webster defines mammon as material wealth or possessions, especially having a debasing influence. While God does not take issue with our need to use money for the business of our lives, there can be a problem with the attitudes we bring to it. We can easily become so preoccupied and obsessed with money that it becomes the real “god” we worship. Do we serve mammon instead of God? In their book, Wealth, Riches and Money, Craig Hill and Earl Pitts outline symptoms of mammon’s influence in our lives. Some of these are worry and anxiety over money, money mismanagement, fear over “never having enough,” an “I can’t afford it” mentality, impulse buying, stinginess, greed, debt, and discontent.

Many of the things on that list can consume us to the point that we are distracted from what we really need to be doing. Many people spend an inordinate amount of time worrying about money and it becomes the source of their worst fears. If we are honest with ourselves, we need to admit that we place far more emphasis on our material securities than we ought. In fact, we have actually convinced ourselves that we cannot live without it. Are we that certain about the presence of God? Many of the world’s problems, especially those involving inequity and injustice, result from conflicts about money. Many equate money with happiness. Those successful in accumulating large amounts of it quickly realize just how wrong they are.

“Your ultimate allegiance is not to the government, not to the state, not to nation, not to any man-made institution. The Christian owes his ultimate allegiance to God, and if any earthly institution conflicts with God’s will it is your Christian duty to take a stand against it. You must never allow the transitory evanescent demands of man-made institutions to take precedence over the eternal demands of the Almighty God (Martin Luther King, Jr.)” This is the point Jesus is trying to make. Unfortunately, when we look around our man-made kingdoms are far more prevalent than God’s kingdom. When we start seeing greater evidence of justice, equity, dignity, respect, opportunity, gentleness, holiness, solidarity, honesty, simplicity, care for creation, and a decrease in ambition, then we will know that God’s kingdom is being served. We will be doing what we are supposed to do.

Archdiocese of Atlanta Fall Discernment Mass

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few;
so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." -Luke 10:2

A recent study by the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate (CARA) places the Archdiocese of Atlanta as the fastest growing Catholic population in the nation. We are blessed with courageous seminarians responding to Lord's call, but there are many more in our pews who need encouragement as they discern God's will for their life. Please pray that more young men respond generously to the Lord's invitation.

If you are one of these men, you are not alone. Join us at our monthly Discernment Masses. These are open to men who are high school seniors and older. You may register at calledbychrist.com/events or by scanning the QR Code below with your smartphone camera. The Borromeo House is located at 813 Dalrymple Road, Sandy Springs, GA 30328.

We also have a seminary visit planned for November 4-6 for men ages 16-25.

If you have any questions, please contact Fr. Rey Pineda at rpineda@archatl.com or

The Little Flower Women's Bible Study

The Catholic Church is extraordinary. It is where we encounter God in his Word, his sacraments, and his saints. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out. It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation.

If you've been Catholic all your life or have converted to the faith, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of this Catholic Church. Filmed in Rome, this brand new study says it all.

All women are invited to join the Little Flower Women's Bible Study Fall 2022 Session, "What we Believe - the Beauty of the Catholic Faith" by Ascension Press. This 10 session study began September 9th. Please contact Diane Scarbrough, (770) 318-2577 or (770) 957-5441 x104 for more information.

NEW BEGINNINGS MINISTRY NEWS

This past week we helped three clients with hotel rent: a woman with mobility issues who was living in her car, a gentleman with stage 4 throat cancer also living on the street in his vehicle, and a single mother with two children who had been evicted from her apartment. We receive at least 3-4 calls a week from people asking for financial aid. With the soaring price of housing, people are finding it hard to find a place to live. Thank you to all who have contributed financially to our ministry and to those who have donated toiletries and food. God bless you!

Our food pantry is in need of combs, hand sanitizer, deodorant, toothbrushes, razors, shaving cream, chips, 2 ½ gallon Zip-lock bags, Vienna sausage, tuna, Beanie Weenies, and fruit cups. Toiletries should be trial size and cans should have pop-tops. Remember to please check the expiration dates on food items; we do not want to distribute food that we ourselves would not want to eat. Thank you for all that you do for this ministry!

Our next meeting will be held in Room 212 on Monday, Sept. 19th. All are welcome!
