This Week's Reflection

The Importance of Community

When we try to live out our Christian call, that is our Baptismal call to a life of holiness and grace, we will encounter obstacles that will hinder us in our journey. Sometimes these obstacles can seem insurmountable. This is especially true when we try to face these obstacles on our own. Alone we can feel overwhelmed, and we may even lose our desire to live out that calling to holiness and grace. This is where a strong, like-minded, supportive community comes in to play. When we live apart from others, it is very difficult to fight against the snares and temptations of the devil and the selfishness of the world. Bombarded as we are by so many enticements, we can grow too isolated, lose our sense of reality and inner clarity, and easily succumb. Growth in holiness and grace is a journey in community, side by side with others whose visions, goals and ideals are the same as ours. Community also fosters the spirituality of stewardship. That is using our time, talents and treasures for the building up of God's Church.

Do you surround yourself with a community that shares your visions, goals and ideals? Or maybe you are feeling isolated or like you don't have the support of community in your life that can help you live out your Christian call? Community must be something that we foster with one another outside of the Sunday Mass. At St. James the Apostle we have many opportunities to join an established group to find this community. Or you may want to grow a community of your own. It takes just one or two others to establish a community. Jesus tells us in Matthew 18:20 "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

The importance of community in our spiritual journey cannot be overstated. It is the support that we need to grow in deeper in our relationship and love of the Lord.

Deacon Charles

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family of Sarah Gasses Hill who passed away on September 12th. The funeral was held on September 16th at Haisten Funeral Home.

Archdiocese of Atlanta Fall Discernment Mass

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few;
so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." -Luke 10:2

A recent study by the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate (CARA) places the Archdiocese of Atlanta as the fastest growing Catholic population in the nation. We are blessed with courageous seminarians responding to Lord's call, but there are many more in our pews who need encouragement as they discern God's will for their life. Please pray that more young men respond generously to the Lord's invitation.

If you are one of these men, you are not alone. Join us at our monthly Discernment Masses. These are open to men who are high school seniors and older. NEW BEGINNINGS
MINISTRY NEWS

Requests for help with lodging continue to come in to our ministry. This past week we helped a single mother with five children with hotel rent. She is working and has just interviewed for another job which would increase her income. We also helped a senior woman with disabilities (mobility) with a hotel room while she looks for permanent lodging. A young couple moved from their apartment into an efficiency hotel room when the lease was up due a mold situation. With both of them working, it took all their savings to stay there. They have been approved for a new apartment, but needed time to accumulate saving for a down payment and first month’s rent. We helped them with one week’s rent and St. Vincent de Paul helped them with a second week’s rent. Thank you, parishioners, for your financial donations and prayers that make this segment of our ministry successful!

Our food pantry is in need of combs, hand sanitizer, deodorant, toothbrushes, razors, shaving cream, chips, 2 ½ gallon Zip-lock bags, Vienna sausage, tuna, Beanie Weenies, and fruit cups. Toiletries should be trial size and cans should have pop-tops. Remember to please check the expiration dates on food items; we do not want to distribute food that we ourselves would not want to eat. Thank you for all that you do for this ministry!
