Pope Francis words

Today, at the conclusion of the Liturgical Season of Christmas, we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. The liturgy calls us to more fully get to know Jesus, whose birth we have just celebrated; and for this reason the Gospel (cf. Lk 3:15-16, 21-22) illustrates two important elements: Jesus' relationship with the people and Jesus' relationship with the Father.

In the narrative of the Baptism, administered to Jesus by John the Baptist in the waters of the Jordan, we see first and foremost the role of the people. Jesus is in the midst of the people. This is not just background scenery, but is an essential component of the event. Before immersing himself in the water, Jesus 'immerses' himself in the crowd; he joins it, fully taking on the human condition, sharing everything, except sin. In his divine holiness, full of grace and mercy, the Son of God became flesh precisely to take upon himself and take away the sin of the world: taking on our miseries, our human condition. Thus today's event is also an epiphany, because by going to have himself baptized by John, in the midst of the repentant people, Jesus manifests the logic and meaning of his mission.

By joining the people who ask John for the Baptism of conversion, Jesus shares with them the deep desire for inner renewal. And the Holy Spirit, who descends upon him "in bodily form, as a dove" (v. 22), is a sign that with Jesus a new world is being initiated, a 'new creation' in which all those who welcome Jesus into their life participate. The words of the Father are also addressed to each of us, that we may be reborn with Christ in Baptism: "Thou art my beloved son; with thee I am well pleased" (v. 22). This Fatherly love, which all of us received on the day of our Baptism, is a flame that was lit in our heart, and needs to be kindled by means of prayer and charity.

The second element emphasized by Luke the Evangelist is that, after his immersion in the people and in the waters of the Jordan, Jesus 'immerses' himself in prayer, that is, in communion with the Father. Baptism is the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, of his mission in the world as the envoy of the Father in order to manifest his goodness and his love for mankind. This mission is fulfilled in constant and perfect union with the Father and with the Holy Spirit. The Church's mission too, and that of each of us, in order to be faithful and fruitful, is called to 'graft' ourselves onto that of Jesus. It means regenerating continually in prayer, evangelization and the apostolate, in order to bear a clear Christian witness not according to human designs, but according to the plan and style of God.

Dear brothers and sisters, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is a propitious opportunity to renew with gratitude and conviction the promises made at our Baptism, by committing ourselves to live in harmony with it daily. It is also very important, as I have said to you many times, to know the date of our Baptism. I could ask: 'Who among you knows the date of his or her Baptism?'. Not everyone, to be sure. If some of you do not know it, when you get home, ask your parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles, godparents, family friends.... Ask: 'On what date was I baptized?'. And then, do not forget it: let it be a date kept in your heart to be celebrated every year.

May Jesus, who saved us not for our own merits but in order to realize the immense goodness of the Father, make us merciful toward all. May the Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, be our guide and our model.

El Papa Francisco nos habla

Hoy, al final del tiempo litúrgico de Navidad, celebramos la fiesta del Bautismo del Señor. La liturgia nos llama a conocer con más plenitud a Jesús, de quien recientemente hemos celebrado el nacimiento; y para ello, el Evangelio (cf. Lc 3, 15-16.21-22) ilustra dos elementos importantes: la relación de Jesús con la gente y la relación de Jesús con el Padre.

En el relato del bautismo, conferido por Juan el Bautista a Jesús en las aguas del Jordán, vemos ante todo el papel del pueblo. Jesús está en medio del pueblo. No es solo un fondo de la escena, sino un componente esencial del evento. Antes de sumergirse en el agua, Jesús "se sumerge" en la multitud, se une a ella asumiendo plenamente la condición humana, compartiendo todo, excepto el pecado. En su santidad divina, llena de gracia y misericordia, el Hijo de Dios se hizo carne para tomar sobre sí y quitar el pecado del mundo: tomar nuestras miserias, nuestra condición humana. Por eso, hoy también es una epifanía, porque yendo a bautizarse por Juan, en medio de la gente penitente de su pueblo, Jesús manifiesta la lógica y el significado de su misión.

Uniéndose al pueblo que pide a Juan el bautismo de conversión, Jesús también comparte el profundo deseo de renovación interior. Y el Espíritu Santo que desciende sobre Él «en forma corporal, como una paloma» (v.22) es la señal de que con Jesús comienza un nuevo mundo, una "nueva creación" que incluye a todos los que acogen a Cristo en su vida. También a cada uno de nosotros, que hemos renacido con Cristo en el bautismo, están dirigidas las palabras del Padre: «Tú eres mi Hijo, el amado: en ti he puesto mi complacencia» (v. 22). Este amor del Padre, que hemos recibido todos nosotros el día de nuestro bautismo, es una llama que ha sido encendida en nuestros corazones y necesita que la alimentemos con la oración y la caridad.

El segundo elemento enfatizado por el evangelista Lucas es que después de la inmersión en el pueblo y en las aguas del Jordán, Jesús se "sumergió" en la oración, es decir, en la comunión con el Padre. El bautismo es el comienzo de la vida pública de Jesús, de su misión en el mundo como enviado del Padre para manifestar su bondad y su amor por los hombres. Esta misión se realiza en una unión constante y perfecta con el Padre y el Espíritu Santo.

También la misión de la Iglesia y la de cada uno de nosotros, para ser fiel y fructífera, está llamada a "injerirse" en la de Jesús. Se trata de regenerar continuamente en la oración la evangelización y el apostolado, para dar un claro testimonio cristiano, no según los proyectos humanos, sino según el plan y el estilo de Dios.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, la fiesta del Bautismo del Señor es una ocasión propicia para renovar con gratitud y convicción las promesas de nuestro Bautismo, comprometiéndonos a vivir diariamente en coherencia con él. También es muy importante, como os he dicho varias veces, saber la fecha de nuestro Bautismo. Podría preguntar: "¿Quién de vosotros sabe la fecha de su bautismo?". No todos, seguro. Si alguno de vosotros no la conoce, al volver a casa, que se lo pregunte a sus padres, a los abuelos, a los tíos, a los padrinos, a los amigos de la familia... Preguntad: "¿En qué día me han bautizado?". Y luego no os olvidéis de ella: es una fecha que se guarda en el corazón para celebrarla cada año.

Jesús, que nos ha salvado no por nuestros méritos sino para actuar la inmensa bondad del Padre, nos haga misericordiosos con todos. ¡Qué la Virgen María, Madre de la Misericordia, sea nuestra guía y nuestro modelo!
