In today's Gospel, Jesus says that God is glorified when a disciple, grafted in Christ, produces abundantly and bears much fruit. The disciple must then be a good stewards of that abundance.

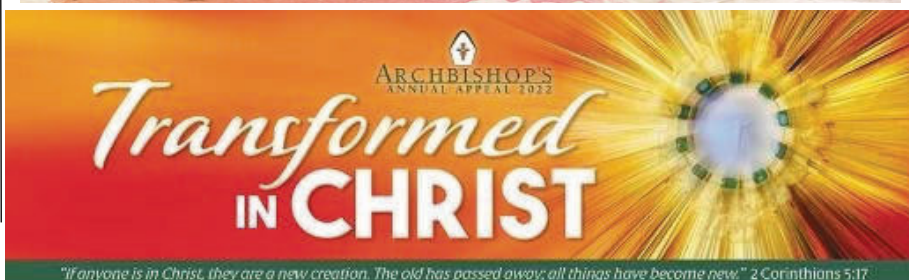

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús dice que Dios es glorificado cuando un discípulo, unido en Cristo, produce abundantemente y da muchos frutos. El discípulo debe, entonces, ser un buen administrador de esa abundancia.

Pope Francis words

Today's Gospel takes us to the Upper Room to have us listen to some of the words that Jesus addressed to the disciples in the "farewell discourse" before his Passion. After washing the feet of the twelve [Apostles], he says to them: "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another" (Jn 13:34). But in what sense does Jesus call this commandment "new"? Because we know that already in the Old Testament, God had ordered members of his people to love their neighbor as themselves (cf. Lev 19:18). To those who asked him which was the greatest commandment of the Law, Jesus himself would reply that the first was to love God with all your heart and the second, to love your neighbor as yourself (cf. Mt 22:38-39).

El Papa Francisco nos habla

El Evangelio de hoy nos conduce al Cenáculo para hacer-nos escuchar algunas palabras que Jesús dirigió a sus discípulos en el "discurso de despedida" antes de su Pasión. Después de haber lavado los pies a los Doce, Él les dijo: «Os doy un mandamiento nuevo: que os améis los unos a los otros. Que, como yo os he amado, así os améis también vosotros los unos a los otros» (Juan 13, 34). ¿Pero en qué sentido Jesús llama "nuevo" a este mandamiento? Porque sabemos que ya en el Antiguo Testamento, Dios había mandado a los miembros de su pueblo amar al prójimo como a sí mismos (cf. Levítico 19, 18). Jesús mismo, a quién le preguntaba cuál era el mandamiento más importante de la Ley, respondía que el primero es amar a Dios con todo el corazón y el segundo amar al prójimo como a sí mismo (cf. Mateo 22, 38-39).

What then, is the novelty of this commandment that Jesus entrusts to his disciples? Why does he call it a "new commandment"? The old commandment of love became new because it was made complete with this addition: "as I have loved you", "love one another as I have loved you". The novelty lies wholly in Jesus Christ's love, with which he gave his life for us. It is God's universal love, without any conditions or limits, which reaches its culmination on the cross. In that moment of extreme abasement, and in that moment of abandonment to the Father, the Son of God showed and gave to the world the fullness of love. Thinking back to Christ's passion and agony, the disciples understood the meaning of his words: "As I have loved you, so you too must love one another".

Jesus loved us first. He loved us despite our frailties, our limitations and our human weaknesses. It was he who ensured we become worthy of his boundless and never-ending love. By giving us this new commandment, he asks us to love one another, not only and not so much with our love, but with his, which the Holy Spirit instills in our hearts if we invoke him with faith. In this way — and only in this way — can we love one another not only as we love ourselves but as he loved us, that is, infinitely more. Indeed, God loves us much more than we love ourselves. And thus, we can spread everywhere the seed of love that renews relationships between people and opens horizons of hope. Jesus always opens horizons of hope. His love opens horizons of hope. This love makes us become new men, brothers and sisters in the Lord, and makes us the new People of God, that is the Church, in which everyone is called to love Christ and to love one another in him.

Entonces, ¿cuál es la novedad de este mandamiento que Jesús encomienda a sus discípulos? ¿Por qué lo llama "mandamiento nuevo"? El antiguo mandamiento del amor se ha convertido en nuevo porque ha sido completado con este añadido: «como yo os he amado a vosotros», «amaos los unos a los otros como yo os he amado». La novedad está completamente en el amor de Jesucristo, ese con el que Él ha dado la vida por nosotros. Se trata del amor de Dios, universal, sin condiciones y sin límites, que encuentra el ápice sobre la cruz. En ese momento de extremo abajamiento, en ese momento de abandono al Padre, el Hijo de Dios ha mostrado y donado al mundo la plenitud del amor. Repensando en la Pasión y en la agonía de Cristo, los discípulos comprendieron el significado de esas palabras suyas: «Que como yo os he amado a vosotros, así os améis también vosotros los unos a los otros».

Jesús nos ha amado primero, nos ha amado a pesar de nuestras fragilidades, nuestros límites y nuestras debilidades humanas. Ha sido Él quien ha hecho que nos hiciéramos dignos de su amor que no conoce límites y no termina nunca. Dándonos el mandamiento nuevo, Él nos pide que nos amemos entre nosotros no solo y no tanto con nuestro amor, sino con el suyo, que el Espíritu Santo infunde en nuestros corazones si lo invocamos con fe. De esta manera —y solo así— nosotros podemos amarnos entre nosotros no solo como nos amamos a nosotros mismos, sino como Él nos ha amado, es decir inmensamente más. Dios de hecho nos ama mucho más de cuanto nosotros nos amamos a nosotros mismos. Y así podemos difundir por todos lados la semilla del amor que renueva las relaciones entre las personas y abre horizontes de esperanza. Jesús siempre abre horizontes de esperanza, su amor abre horizontes de esperanza. Este amor nos hace convertirnos en hombres nuevos, hermanos y hermanas en el Señor, y hace de nosotros el nuevo Pueblo de Dios, es decir la Iglesia, en la cual todos son llamados a amar a Cristo y en Él a amarse unos a otros.

 EUCHARISTIC RENEWAL

Mark Your Calendars, Plan Your Trips, The 25th Eucharistic Congress Is Coming On June 17-18, 2022.

The Archdiocese of Atlanta's celebration of the 25th Eucharistic Congress is welcome news to the thousands who have experienced these joyful events since 1996. This year we will mark the inauguration of our Eucharistic Revival in the archdiocese. With the addition of three new tracks, a family track, a Burmese track, and a social justice track we anticipate an even more exciting event.

Focusing on the way that our Encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist both encourages and empowers us to share the love of Christ with others, speakers in all tracks will be giving their own personal witness of the power of this Encounter.

Exhibits along the main concourse will highlight ways that people can engage in a more intentional way by getting directly involved in a social justice ministry.

We look forward to being together once again this June as we celebrate the Source and Summit of our faith, Jesus, Real and Present in the Eucharist!

Separen La Fecha, Planifiquen Sus Viajes, El 25° Congreso Eucarístico Se Llevará A Cabo El 17 Y 18 De Junio De 2022.

La celebración del 25° Congreso Eucarístico de la Arquidiócesis de Atlanta es una buena noticia para los miles de personas que han experimentado estos alegres eventos desde 1996. Este año marcaremos la inauguración de nuestro Reavivamiento Eucarístico en la arquidiócesis. Con la adición de tres nuevas sesiones, una sesión familiar, una sesión birmana y una sesión de justicia social, anticipamos un evento aún más emocionante.

Centrándose en la forma en que nuestro Encuentro con Jesús en la Eucaristía nos anima y nos empodera para compartir el amor de Cristo con los demás, los oradores de todas las pistas darán su propio testimonio personal del poder de este Encuentro.

Las exhibiciones a lo largo del vestíbulo principal resaltarán las formas en que las personas pueden participar de una manera más intencional al involucrarse directamente en un ministerio de justicia social.

¡Esperamos estar juntos una vez más este junio para celebrar la Fuente y Cumbre de nuestra fe, Jesús, Real y Presente en la Eucaristía!
