June 27, 2021

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Monday, June 29th, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, both of whom died for their faith as martyrs in Rome. As we prepare to celebrate this day, we should consider why it is that we have a joint feast day for Peter and Paul. After all, Peter and Paul both have memorial days of their own. On January 25th, we celebrate the Conversion of St. Paul and on February 22nd we celebrate the Chair of St. Peter. So, why a Solemnity dedicated to them both, dedicated to Peter and Paul as a pair? When we celebrate Sts. Peter and Paul, apostles and martyrs in the city of Rome, we are celebrating the Four Marks of the Church. The Apostles Peter and Paul together in their distinct ministries both lived out these marks and shaped the young Church to show forth these characteristics.

We profess our belief in the Four Marks of the Church whenever we profess the Creed: I believe in One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church. So, we profess that the Church is one: But how is it one? There are, after all, many individuals that make up the church, people of different languages, cultures, different times. How is the Church one? The visible unity of the Church is safeguarded by the ministry of Peter and his successors, the Bishops of Rome, the singular Vicar of Christ and head of the Universal Church on earth. And so, the Church, though many, is one because of this foundation in one authority, the Vicar of Christ, the High Priest here on earth. If the Church is One, that oneness depends upon that authority, vested in one man, the authority of Christ himself.

The Church is holy. But how is it holy? It is made up of sinners, after all. We know that the Church is not holy because of us, but because of Christ, the Son of the Living God, as Peter first confessed. The Church though made up of sinners is constantly renewed and cleansed by the Sacrifice of Christ the High Priest, the Sacrifice of Calvary, offered sacramentally here on earth every day by Christ himself through the ministry of his priests, conformed to him by ordination, who also forgive the sins of the penitent in the Sacrament of Confession. This ministry of sanctification through sacramental ministry was lived out and handed on by both Peter and Paul.

The Church is Catholic. The meaning of the word “catholic” is “universal,” meaning of the whole Church, all the particular churches as a whole. But also it refers to how the Church is meant for all humanity. This was the very heart of St. Paul’s ministry. St. Paul was called to be a light to the gentiles, to proclaim the Gospel to all nations. The Church does not have closed borders; it’s meant to be always growing, always welcoming new members, and never ceasing to go out into the world to preach the Gospel to those who have never heard it and to those who have forgotten it. This was the very essence of St. Paul’s life and work.

The Church is apostolic, because she professes the faith of the Apostles, handed down to through the ages, and is founded upon the ministry of the Apostles, which links us to Christ himself. An apostle is one who is sent, and both Peter and Paul were sent out into the world to preach the Gospel, not only geographically, but also through time, which is accomplished by Apostolic succession. The Word of God is not only a written word in the Scriptures, but also the living word of Tradition, a Tradition that speaks through the ministry handed on from Peter and Paul and all the Apostles to the Bishops of today.

So, why do we have this day, a Solemnity for Sts. Peter and Paul? When we think of them together, we can see that, even though they were very different men, from different backgrounds, who came to Christ at different times and in different ways, nevertheless, their differences were not discordant but harmonious, and they both gave their entire lives to Christ, both their living, and their dying. And this is how the Church is called to live today. Through the intercession of Sts. Peter and Paul, may we all have the courage to continue to proclaim the Gospel for which they gave their lives, and may we always live in union with the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church.

OFFICE OF EVANGELIZATION & FAMILY LIFE

Scott Bowen, Director of Evangelization | Jennifer Diaz, Director of Family Life

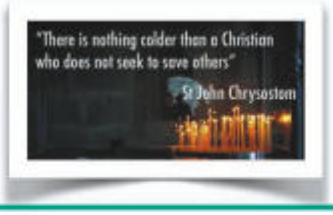
Our Mission

To answer the commands of our Lord to "go and make disciples of all nations," and to form and encourage families to "be holy as your Father in heaven is holy." Under the guidance of the Pastor, the Office of Evangelization & Family Life helps build and strengthen orthodox Catholic families, equipping them for the defense and spread of the Faith, and engaging them in the life of the Church.

Evangelize This Week...

St. John Chrysostom wrote that there is nothing colder than a Christian who does not want to save souls. In the last two sessions of Come and See: Proofs for God and the Church, we have uncovered the reality of the soul, God, Jesus, and the Church. In the following weeks, we will rediscover the Church as the warrior Bride of Christ and your part in bringing the Gospel to the world.

~ Scott Bowen



Family Life This Week...

Bring your children to the Extraordinary Mass this upcoming First Saturday! Why is this an excellent opportunity for children? Studies show that small children are very receptive to the language of symbols. By watching this Traditional Latin Mass, children are impressed and gripped by symbols which speak the faith to their young hearts. The mystery of the language, the vestments, the postures, etc., all convey the Sacred Eternal Mystery that is our God! Children can experience the overwhelming holiness, the gentle silence, and mysterious reverence which plants the seed for a lifelong recognition of the True, the Good, and the Beautiful - a deep sense that when we are at Mass we are outside of the ordinary world, aware of heaven crashing into earth, and angels dwelling among us. We can help to form their souls without saying a word.

He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded.

IGLESIA CATÓLICA DE SAN ANDRÉS

27 de junio de 2021

Queridos amigos en Cristo,

Este lunes 29 de junio, la Iglesia celebra la solemnidad de los santos Pedro y Pablo, ambos murieron por su fe como mártires en Roma. Mientras nos preparamos para celebrar este día, debemos considerar por qué tenemos una fiesta conjunta para Pedro y Pablo. Después de todo, tanto Pedro como Pablo tienen sus propios días conmemorativos. El 25 de enero celebramos la Conversión de San Pablo y el 22 de febrero celebramos la Cátedra de San Pedro. Entonces, ¿por qué una solemnidad dedicada a ambos, dedicada a Pedro y Pablo como pareja? Cuando celebramos los Santos. Pedro y Pablo, apóstoles y mártires en la ciudad de Roma, estamos celebrando las Cuatro Marcas de la Iglesia. Los apóstoles Pedro y Pablo juntos en sus distintos ministerios vivieron estas marcas y dieron forma a la joven Iglesia para mostrar estas características.

Profesamos nuestra creencia en las Cuatro Marcas de la Iglesia cada vez que profesamos el Credo: Creo en la Iglesia Una, Santa, Católica y Apostólica. Entonces, profesamos que la Iglesia es una: ¿pero cómo es una? Después de todo, hay muchas personas que componen la iglesia, personas de diferentes idiomas, culturas, diferentes épocas. ¿Cómo es la Iglesia una? La unidad visible de la Iglesia está salvaguardada por el ministerio de Pedro y sus sucesores, los obispos de Roma, vicario singular de Cristo y cabeza de la Iglesia universal en la tierra. Y así, la Iglesia, aunque muchas, es una debido a este fundamento en una autoridad, el Vicario de Cristo, el Sumo Sacerdote aquí en la tierra. Si la Iglesia es Una, esa unidad depende de esa autoridad, conferida a un hombre, la autoridad de Cristo mismo.

La Iglesia es santa. Pero, ¿cómo es santo? Después de todo, está formado por pecadores. Sabemos que la Iglesia no es santa por nosotros, sino por Cristo, el Hijo del Dios vivo, como confesó Pedro por primera vez. La Iglesia, aunque formada por pecadores, se renueva y limpia constantemente por el Sacrificio de Cristo Sumo Sacerdote, el Sacrificio del Calvario, ofrecido sacramentalmente aquí en la tierra todos los días por Cristo mismo a través del ministerio de sus sacerdotes, conformados a él por la ordenación, quienes También perdona los pecados del penitente en el Sacramento de la Confesión. Este ministerio de santificación a través del ministerio sacramental fue vivido y transmitido tanto por Pedro como por Pablo.

La Iglesia es católica. El significado de la palabra “católica” es “universal”, es decir, de toda la Iglesia, de todas las iglesias particulares en su conjunto. Pero también se refiere a cómo la Iglesia está destinada a toda la humanidad. Este fue el corazón mismo del ministerio de San Pablo. San Pablo fue llamado a ser luz para los gentiles, para anunciar el Evangelio a todas las naciones. La Iglesia no tiene fronteras cerradas; está destinado a estar siempre creciendo, siempre dando la bienvenida a nuevos miembros, y sin dejar nunca de salir al mundo a predicar el Evangelio a quienes nunca lo han escuchado y a quienes lo han olvidado. Esta fue la esencia misma de la vida y obra de St. Paul.

La Iglesia es apostólica, porque profesa la fe de los Apóstoles, transmitida a lo largo de los siglos, y se basa en el ministerio de los Apóstoles, que nos une a Cristo mismo. Un apóstol es alguien que es enviado, y tanto Pedro como Pablo fueron enviados al mundo para predicar el Evangelio, no solo geográficamente, sino también a través del tiempo, lo cual se logra mediante la sucesión apostólica. La Palabra de Dios no es sólo una palabra escrita en las Escrituras, sino también la palabra viva de la Tradición, una Tradición que habla a través del ministerio transmitido por Pedro y Pablo y todos los Apóstoles a los Obispos de hoy.

Entonces, ¿por qué tenemos este día, una Solemnidad de los Santos? ¿Pedro y Pablo? Cuando pensamos en ellos juntos, podemos ver que, aunque eran hombres muy diferentes, de diferentes orígenes, que vinieron a Cristo en diferentes momentos y de diferentes maneras, sin embargo, sus diferencias no eran discordantes sino armoniosas, y ambos dieron toda su vida a Cristo, tanto su vida como su muerte. Y así es como la Iglesia está llamada a vivir hoy. Por intercesión de los Santos. Pedro y Pablo, que todos tengamos el valor de seguir proclamando el Evangelio por el que dieron su vida, y que vivamos siempre en unión con la Iglesia Una, Santa, Católica y Apostólica.

Decimotercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
27 de junio de 2021
Convertiste mi duelo en alegría te alabaré por eso eternamente.
— Salmo 30 (29):13

AYÚDAME, SEÑOR

Hoy escuchamos lecturas que nos acercan al misterio de sufrimiento y muerte. En los últimos años hemos sido testigos de la devastación de vidas y propiedades a manos de tsunamis y huracanes. Muchos elevaron su lamento a Dios y preguntaron: "¿Por qué?" Esta es una expresión sincera de ira hacia un Dios que creemos da la vida. Cuando perdemos a un ser querido, puede que nos preguntemos por qué la presencia de Cristo no es suficiente para hacer que esa persona resucite, incluso de entre los muertos, como la pequeña niña del pasaje del Evangelio de hoy. Entonces alzamos la voz y preguntamos: "¿Por qué?" En momentos como estos, debemos acudir a la oración del salmista: "¡Escucha Señor y ten piedad de mí; Señor, socórreme". Recemos para que nuestro luto algún día se convierta en danza.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Esta semana conmemoramos al apóstol santo Tomás, el cual es normalmente recordado por haber dudado de la resurrección de Jesucristo. La incredulidad de este santo es explicada en el Evangelio según san Juan (20:19 31) con la famosa frase: "Si no veo en sus manos la señal de los clavos y no meto mi dedo en el agujero de los clavos y no meto mi mano en su costado, no creeré."

Los latinos somos de culturas religiosas que consideran la incredulidad como algo pecaminoso y camino al ateísmo. Hay que aceptar que la duda es algo normal en el ser humano. Dudo que exista alguien que nunca haya dudado de su fe. Sólo al aceptar esta duda estaremos abiertos a la invitación de Jesús: "Acerca aquí tu dedo y mira mis manos; trae tu mano y métela en mi costado, y no seas incrédulo sino creyente." Santo Tomás aceptó esta invitación y llegó a su gran proclamación de fe: "Señor mío, y Dios mío". La duda no es mala, para muchos es el camino a una fe más profunda y a un compromiso mayor.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO - ALENTAR

ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

Marcos, ahora, nos lleva paso a paso, a ver los milagros de Jesús. En este caso son dos, el de la mujer que sufría de hemorragias, y la resurrección de la hija de Jairo, jefe de la sinagoga y responsable de la comunidad judía. Hoy, el Evangelio nos narra un doble acto de fe. Jesús se fue de camino a la casa de Jairo y de repente entre el gentío que lo apretujaba sucedió lo siguiente: "Se encontraba allí una mujer que padecía un derrame de sangre desde hacía doce años... la mujer pensaba: Si logro tocar, aunque solo sea su ropa, sanaré. Al momento cesó su hemorragia y sintió en su cuerpo que estaba sana" (Marcos 5:24-28). Enseguida viene el dialogo de preguntas y respuestas entre Jesús, sus discípulos y la mujer que responde asustada. A lo que Jesús le dice. "Hija, tu fe te ha salvado; vete en paz y queda sana de tu enfermedad" (Marcos 5:34).

Este episodio entretuvo a Jesús para llegar rápido a la casa de Jairo. Llegaron algunos de la casa del oficial y le dan la mala noticia de que su hija ya había muerto. Jesús, se hace el desentendido, como que no se da cuenta. Jesús, se dirige a Jairo y le dice no tengas miedo. Solamente ten fe. ¡Que poca cosa nos pide Jesús! Solamente tener fe, fe como un granito de mostaza. Y sucede, el milagro de la resurrección de la niña. Talitá kumi que quiere decir: ¡Nina, te digo, ¡levántate! "Vayamos hoy a casa con este ícono del Evangelio de hoy: el jefe de la sinagoga que se arroja ante Jesús, sin miedo de avergonzarse y hacer reír a otros. En juego estaba la vida de su hija" Papa Francisco. (Homilía, Santa Marta 04 de febrero 2014).
