En el Evangelio de hoy

“Una voz grita en el desierto: preparen un camino al Señor; hagan sus senderos rectos” (Mateo 3,3). ¿Qué tipo de camino estamos preparando al Señor? ¿Cuáles senderos debemos de hacer rectos? Juan dio todo el protagonismo a Jesús. Eso es lo que lo hace un gran profeta. Dichosos los que esperan en el Señor y dejan las armas de la guerra a un lado, dichosos los que practican la justicia con su vida y llevan comida y consuelo a los que sufren. Esto precisamente es el Adviento, buscar regalos de amor y de justicia para la familia, comunidad y sociedad. ¡El mundo lo necesita tanto!

No esperemos tanto, Dios nos invita al movimiento, de la pereza a trabajar, del desánimo a tener esperanza, de que con el recién nacido entre nosotros el mundo cambiará. “El reino de Dios ha venido, ha llegado, está en medio de nosotros. Este es el mensaje central de toda misión cristiana. Cuando un misionero, un cristiano va a anunciar a Jesús, no va a hacer proselitismo como si fuera un hinchazo que busca más seguidores para su equipo. No, va simplemente a anunciar. ¡El reino de Dios está en medio de nosotros! Y así el misionero prepara el camino de Jesús, que encuentra a su pueblo” (Papa Francisco). El Papa Francisco es un misionero incansable que nos promueve a prepararnos sin descanso a llevar el Reino de Dios a los necesitados. ¿Estás listo para el reto?

Saint Ambrose | December 7

Saint Ambrose was born to an aristocratic Roman Christian family in 339 in what is now Trier, Germany. One popular legend tells of a swarm of bees alighting on the infant Ambrose's face and leaving behind a drop of honey which his father took as a sign that Ambrose would be an eloquent speaker with a 'honeyed tongue.'

Ambrose was educated in law and rhetoric in Rome. Like his father, he went into public service and was made governor of Liguria and Emilia about 373. In the second year of his governorship, he went to moderate the election of the bishop of Milan because the heretical Arians were challenging the succession. Unbaptized and untrained in theology, Ambrose was called by popular acclamation to be bishop. Though he attempted to flee, he was found and within a week he was baptized, ordained, and consecrated bishop on December 7, 374.

As bishop Ambrose studied scripture and the writings of Church fathers, he gave his property and wealth to the poor, and became an impactful orator, hymn writer, and renowned teacher. He highly praised consecrated virginity, likely influenced by his sister who took the veil. A contemporary with St. Martin of Tours, he also defended the faith against the Arian heresy (which questioned Christ's divinity), and against the state. Ambrose required Emperor Theodosius do public penance after the massacre of Thessalonica. His classic education contributed to his writing and sermons which attracted and converted Saint Augustine of Hippo who Saint Ambrose baptized.

Saint Ambrose is one of four original doctors of the Church. He died in 397 in Milan, Italy. His remains can be seen today at the Basilica di Sant'Ambrogio, where he lays with Saint Gervasius and Saint Protasus.

Why Do We Do That?

Question: Why do Catholics make the sign of the cross?

Answer: The sign of the cross is a devotional practice that dates back to the first Apostles. When making the sign of the cross, we remember Jesus Christ who died for us and also bear witness to the fact that we belong to him and are called to share the Good News to all the world. At our Baptism, we were signed with a cross and marked for Christ. That mark remains on us throughout the entirety of our lives. We remind ourselves of that mark every time we make the same gesture over our bodies. We also remind ourselves that to be a Christian means we are to "put on Christ" and be Christ for a world that needs to know him. In a way, this devotional gesture covers us with Christ so that others may see him in us.

Catholics are not the only ones who make the sign of the cross. Orthodox, Lutheran, and Anglicans are examples of other Christians who maintain this same ancient tradition.

Are You a Registered Member?

Why is it so important that we register in a parish?

Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong.

At times, young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish.

Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social, and ministerial activities of your parish.

Your registration affects the parish in many ways.
Census numbers may determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled.

Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes.

Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

Not Registered visit www.smmcc.org/register.
