En el Evangelio de hoy

Ya casi estamos en Navidad, unos cuantos días y estaremos celebrando el nacimiento del Emmanuel que significa "Dios con nosotros". Este año, espero, sea muy diferente a los dos anteriores, recuerdan como teníamos pandemia por todo el mundo. Esa situación truncó nuestra celebración en familia y en comunidad. Ahora es diferente, estaremos juntos, con una fe renovada. Experimentamos alegría como José, cuando el ángel le comunicó que María era la Madre de Dios, y que debía cuidarla a ella y a su Hijo. Cuidar de Jesús es el deber de todo cristiano, abrazarlo y protegerlo en los que nos rodean, especialmente con los de la casa, los pequeños y los ancianos.

"La Navidad, conduce a la realización de la expectativa de Dios también en cada uno de nosotros, en toda la Iglesia y en los muchos pequeños a los que el mundo desprecia, pero a los que Dios también ama y a los que Dios se acerca" (Papa Francisco). No olvidemos, en esta semana, que fueron María y José los primeros en recibir a Jesús por la fe en Dios que ellos profesaban. Ojalá, que su ejemplo nos anime a acercarnos al Sacramento de la Reconciliación, de esa forma permitimos que Dios hecho niño se acerque a nosotros. José nos anima a obedecer lo que Dios quiere de nosotros y María con su "sí", nos muestra que es la mejor maestra del Evangelio.

Las Posadas

Question:

What is the Hispanic Advent custom of “Las Posadas”?

Answer:

“Posada” is the Spanish word for inn or lodging. “Las Posadas” refers to a traditional Advent custom in preparation for the birth of Jesus, beginning on December 16. For nine successive evenings, groups reenact the search of Mary and Joseph for shelter in Bethlehem.

Two children dress as Mary and Joseph, sometimes with Mary riding on an actual donkey. They are usually accompanied by children dressed as angels and shepherds along with the Wise Men. Adults accompany them as they process to designated homes where they sing Christmas songs and request lodging. Part of the group enters the home and becomes the chorus that responds to the request for lodging. In the beginning the request is rebuffed. They move to several more homes where the ritual is repeated. Eventually, at the last home, their need is recognized, and they all enter the home where a party ensues. This is repeated in different neighborhoods and homes each of the nine days.

While this custom teaches children an important aspect of the Christmas story, it also emphasizes the need for hospitality to strangers and the continual need we all have to make room for Jesus in our “posada.” As we struggle to arrive at a fair and just immigration policy, it would be good to recall the fact that Mary, Joseph, and Jesus were also immigrants looking for a hospitable place to dwell.

Women's Bible Study

Recent decades have witnessed a surge of the religiously unaffiliated, especially among young people. Many former believers have simply turned their backs on Christianity and no longer accept its teachings. But what are those teachings?

In The Creed, Bishop Robert Barron guides viewers into the depths of the Nicene Creed, a fourth-century statement of faith that has profoundly influenced Christian spirituality, theology, and liturgy in both the East and West.

Explore the meaning of "belief" and whether it contradicts reason; the creative love of God the Father; the shocking mystery of his Son's Incarnation, and the great drama of his Crucifixion and Resurrection; the life-giving power of the Spiritus Sanctus, shared between them; and the mystical reality of the Church.

Welcome/Orientation Social in the Parish Life Building
Tuesday, January 3, at 9:30 a.m.
or Thursday, January 5, at 7 p.m.
First Lesson starts January 10 and 12.
Childcare is available for Tuesday session.

There is no cost for this study, and you can download the pdf workbook for free at <https://tinyurl.com/3mcvn8>.

We'll be happy to print the pdf workbook for $5.

If you are new to Women's Bible Study, please email us at womensbiblestudy@smmcc.org to let us know which day you will be coming, and if childcare will be needed.
