En el Evangelio de hoy

Este domingo, celebramos la Solemnidad de Jesucristo Rey del Universo. Hoy es el último domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, dentro de ocho días daremos comienzo al Tiempo de Adviento que nos prepara para la Navidad. Las lecturas nos hablan del Pastor supremo que es Jesucristo, que reunirá a las ovejas y a los cabritos para el juicio final. Todos, sin excepción, tendremos un examen. Seremos examinados en el amor y la caridad que hemos llevado a cabo en nuestra vida. Así que atentos, no dudemos en siempre hacer el bien.

El Papa Francisco lo explica de la siguiente manera: "Seremos juzgados por el amor. El juicio será por el amor. No por el sentimiento, no: por las obras, por la compasión que se hace cercana y ayuda solícita. ¿Yo me acerco a Jesús presente en la persona de los enfermos, de los pobres, de los que sufren, de los presos, de los que tienen hambre y sed de justicia? ¿Me acerco a Jesús presente allí? Esta es la pregunta de hoy (11-22-2020). Pero, ¿Cómo lograr hacer el bien ante la guerra y violencia de todo tipo? ¿Cómo hacerlo en la familia dividida entre las dificultades? Creo que, es no perdiendo la esperanza y cooperar siempre con nuestro granito de arena que, aunque pequeño, será grande si va lleno de caridad y amor. Recordemos que estamos en este mundo para hacer el bien. Hoy se nos dice que Cristo vendrá con gloria para juzgar a vivos y muertos y su reino no tendrá fin. ¡Confíemos tengamos esperanza!

AND PASTOR OF

Advent Music

The season of Advent is a season of preparation for the coming of Christ. There is a penitential element to Advent as well, and, while we still sing out confidently in praise of the Lord, we no longer sing Alleluia or the Gloria, as both have a celebratory nature and therefore are reserved for the non-penitential seasons. The Gloria will return briefly for the Solemnity of Immaculate Conception on December 8.

Our music becomes a bit more simplified to really draw our focus to the texts and on Christ, reserving the more glorious melodies for the celebration of Christmas. Our Advent Eucharistic Acclamations setting will be the familiar English chants from the Roman Missal.

The Third Sunday of Advent is known as Gaudete Sunday, coming from the scripture of the Entrance Antiphon, Gaudete in Domino Semper ("Rejoice in the Lord always"). This marks the mid-point of Advent and reminds us during our fervent reflection to have hope and remember the rejoicing that is to come with Christmas.

We will conclude our Advent season with Lessons and Carols at 11:15 p.m. on December 24, just before Midnight Christmas Mass. Lessons and Carols is a set of readings paired with music that helps us to reflect upon those readings. The readings take us on the journey of our original sin's birth in the Garden of Eden to the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ, helping set our focus on what is to come with the season of Christmas.

BOOK OF THE WEEK

ST. MARY MAGDALENE LIBRARY
LOCATED IN THE PARISH LIFE BUILDING

This week's recommended title is "The Faith Explained" by Fr. Leo Trese. This all-in one handbook features short chapters and clear explanations that explain the beautiful truths of the Catholic faith. Fr. Leo has a gift for making explanations simple, making this one enjoyable and helpful for Catholics old and new.

Find this title in the church library or request it online at stmarymagdalene.library.site

Catholic Life Explained

Patron Saints

Question:

Why are some saints honored as "patron saints"?

Answer:

Each person is unique and each of us has different gifts, interests, talents, and, yes, even struggles and areas where we need to grow. This is no less true of those holy women, men, and children who have been canonized or beatified.

Because we believe that the saints and blessed are both models of faith and intercessors, Christians have looked to certain holy people as role models and heavenly protectors for occupations, spiritual charisms, and even places. Although the Church sometimes names a person as a patron saint (e.g. Saint Philip Neri as the patron of Rome, Saint Clare of Assisi as the patroness of television, or Saint Aloysius Gonzaga as the patron of youth and young adults), more often it is popular devotion that inspires lay Christians to turn to a particular saint or blessed for heavenly help and support. This is how, for example, Saint Cecilia came to be honored as the patroness of musicians, Saint Toribio Romo as patron of migrants coming into the United States, and Saint Gertrude of Nivelles as patroness of cat lovers. Although there are official and unofficial lists of patron saints, we should always feel free to ask any and all the saints to give us their patronage and protection in whatever it is that we need.

Are You a Registered Member?

Why is it so important that we register in a parish?
Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong.

At times, young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish.

Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social, and ministerial activities of your parish.

Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers may determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled.

Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes.

Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

Not Registered? Visit www.smmcc.org/register.
