En el Evangelio de hoy

Haciendo memoria, a lo largo de la vida, nos daremos cuenta que todos necesitamos arrepentirnos de algo. Sea grande o sea pequeño. También, muchas veces tuvimos que pedir perdón. Hoy, la Palabra de Dios nos dice que los ninivitas se convirtieron de su mala vida: “Los ninivitas creyeron en la advertencia de Dios y ordenaron un ayuno, y se vistieron de saco desde el mayor al menor” (Jonás 3,5). Todo el movimiento de la ciudad y sus habitantes se desencadena con la Palabra de Dios, que invita al arrepentimiento antes de ser destruida. Cuando el mal es mucho, se necesitan profetas y misioneros que evangelicen. La misión es inmensa. La conversión consiste en abandonar el mal, las malas costumbres, las obras que llevan al pecado y dañan a los demás. ¿Crees tú que necesitamos algo así en nuestra sociedad actual? ¿Qué actitudes se necesitan para llegar a una verdadera conversión personal, familiar y comunitaria? Definitivamente, una de ellas es la decisión al cambio, seguida por la esperanza de que este sucederá. Jesús tiene esa esperanza e inicia el proceso de conversión de arrepentimiento llamando a sus primeros colaboradores e invitándolos a la conversión, es decir a que cambien su modo de vivir y de proceder: “El tiempo se ha cumplido, el Reino de Dios está cerca. Renuncien a su mal camino y crean en la Buena Nuevas” (Marcos 1,15). Renunciar al mal camino y creer que lo lograremos, ¡es el reto de este Evangelio! Oremos para que llegue la conversión a nuestro corazón.

EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLES EXHIBIT

Saturday and Sunday
January 27 and 28

Experience the diocesan Eucharistic Miracle exhibit, a curated selection from the Eucharistic Miracle exhibit originally created by Blessed Carlo Acutis.

It consists of 28 bilingual (English/Spanish) bifold panels that recount several Eucharistic miracles documented throughout the history of the Church.

The exhibit is divided into four categories, each with an audio-visual guide accessible on mobile devices through the use of a QR code.

The exhibit will be open in the Fellowship Hall after all Masses.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

An encounter with God through Scripture should not be a one-time event or a happy accident for those special privileged souls whom God selects. It is bound up with discipleship: a loving demand from God to all those who seek to follow Christ. To answer that demand, we must commit to regular reading and praying of the Bible. The First Psalm reveals to us that the happy person "delights in the law of the Lord and meditates on his law day and night" (Ps 1:2). May this be true of us.

Bible Blessing

This Sunday, January 21, is Word of God Sunday, a good time to commit to regular reading and praying of Sacred Scripture.

Join us in the Parish Center from 10 a.m. to 10:50 a.m. for a video-based introductory course on the Bible using FORMED.

Come, bring your Bibles for a blessing, watch the video and enjoy some refreshments.

We also invite you to bring your Bibles to 5 p.m. Mass on Saturday and 6 p.m. Mass on Sunday, so the celebrant can offer a prayer of commitment and blessing over you as you hold your Bibles.

Once your Bibles have been blessed and brought home, use the enthronement service found by scanning the QR code.

The Legion of Mary

"Put on the armor of God" (Eph 6:11)

The Roman Legion, from which the Legion of Mary takes its name, was renowned for loyalty, courage, discipline, endurance and success. Mary's Legion cannot have qualities less noble. These values are the minimum expected of Legionary service.

To achieve meaningful and fruitful work there must be a readiness to give of oneself entirely to the work of the Legion. Without this readiness and commitment, one's service has no substance. With readiness one is capable of enjoying the benefits of being a Legionnaire wearing "God's" armor.

Jesus said, "...will you lay down your life for me?" (John 13-18)

The Legion of Mary is coming to St. Mary Magdalene.

If you are interested about becoming a legionnaire, join us for an informational meeting on Saturday, February 10, at 4 p.m. in the Parish Life Building, Room 106.

Reception of Holy Communion

Reception of Holy Communion at Mass is available for Catholics who are in union with the Pope, not conscious of grave sin, and normally have fasted for one hour. Let us all pray for union with the Lord Jesus, that the Holy Spirit will dispel the sad divisions which separate Christians, and for the peace and unity of the whole human family.

We are in need of volunteers willing to work the soundboard during Masses. Duties include adjusting the volume and muting/unmuting microphones as needed throughout the Mass, as well as setting up the microphones in the music area for the musicians. Training will be provided.

Our most urgent need is for the 9 a.m. Sunday Mass.

- Offer a financial contribution.
- Meet with groups of inmates face-to-face or lead Bible studies at the Greenville County Detention Center on Wednesdays from 6:45-8:45 p.m.

Please pray about how you can serve their needs. We are in need of both men and women, both English and Spanish speakers.

Welcome, Fr. Max, Our New Parochial Vicar!

Greetings!

My name is Fr. Max Tria, and I am your new servant and Parochial Vicar for this beautiful parish. I'm excited to be here and I'm looking forward to meeting every one of you.

I was born in the Philippines on September 11 ... way before that date was engraved in our minds.

I am number eight of ten children, we are six brothers and four sisters, of which four are priests and one is a nun. I jokingly say, five for the Lord and five for the world.

I was ordained a priest on March 9, 1987, and served in my home country for 15 years before embarking on missionary work. I was a missionary in the West Indies for three years, in West Palm Beach for one year, and another year in New Orleans.

I came to South Carolina in 2009 to fill in for a priest who was going on sabbatical. Later, in 2010, I was incardinated into the Diocese of Charleston. I have been a civilian Army chaplain at Fort Stewart 3rd Infantry Mechanized Division in Savannah, and I have served in several parishes in the state. And as you know by now, my last assignment before coming to the Upstate was in Hilton Head.

I thank you for the warm welcome I have received thus far and pray that the Lord will bless and guide me as I minister to you.

Fr. Max
