SPIRITUAL LIFE

En el Evangelio de hoy

Unidos a Jesús jamás seremos vencidos y tendremos la fuerza necesaria para combatir las altas y bajas de la vida. Un ser humano pleno es aquel o aquella persona que se une a otros para hacer el bien y luchar por el bien común. Nuestra unión con Jesucristo es fraterna, es decir, conlleva convivir con la persona. Separados de Él no lograremos nada. Desde nuestro Bautismo, llevamos la savia de su Evangelio en nuestras venas. Así, que a trabajar se ha dicho, a ser mejores esposos y padres de familia. Mejores en la sociedad y en nuestra comunidad de creyentes, es decir en nuestra parroquia.

“Yo soy la vid y ustedes los sarmientos. El que permanece en mí y yo en él, éste da mucho fruto, pero sin mí no pueden hacer nada” (Juan 15:5). Las catequesis dominicales del Papa Francisco son caminos seguros que dejan más claro el mensaje del Evangelio. Hoy nos dice: “Hay caminos que no llevan al Cielo: los caminos de la mundanidad, los caminos para autoafirmarse, los caminos del poder egoísta. Y está el camino de Jesús, el camino del amor humilde, de la oración, de la mansedumbre, de la confianza, del servicio a los demás. No es el camino de mi protagonismo, es el camino de Jesús como protagonista de mi vida” (05-10-2020). Entonces, ¿cuál camino escogeré? Pidamos al Señor nos ayude a estar vinculados a Él. Ya que sólo podremos dar frutos de vida eterna si estamos unidos a Jesús.

Love in Deed

It's a Wonderful Life is one of my favorite Christmas movies. It only occurred to me recently, though, that this film, for all its yuletide aesthetic, is actually more of an Easter story.

I love this movie because it's a very Catholic film – not overtly, although we do see the main character, George Bailey, going to Mass. No, it's the themes that are Catholic, not the set dressing. It's a story about the choices we make – to love, or not to love? To sacrifice, or not to sacrifice? To put oneself first, or to put oneself last? It's a story about what the consequences of those choices look like here in the world, and what they look like in heaven.

In the film, we meet a young George Bailey who dreams of growing up to do amazing, impressive things. Over the years, he makes a choice here and he makes a choice there ... and when all is said and done, the adult George Bailey is a tired, overworked husband and father with no worldly attributes that anyone would envy.

But he's a man who has loved in deed, not just in word, and who has reaped the spiritual rewards of those choices.

The season of Easter is about rejoicing in true redemption, not in worldly triumph. The Word of God is not a bedtime story. It's a pruning shear. To hear it is to be changed, to be shaped. To live it is to lose some things, so that you might bloom in unexpected ways. To welcome the Word is to be willing to look different, to feel different.

Anyone can say, "I love you, I accept you, I want to help you." But what does it actually look like, to love in deed and not just in word? It looks like giving something up: free time, wealth, comfort, worldly approval. It looks, to the casual observer, like pain.

To someone who has no concept of how plants grow and thrive, a gardener's pruning shears look like an executioner's sword. To someone who has no concept of how souls grow and thrive, a tomb barred by a stone looks like the end of a story, when in fact it's just the beginning.

"Children, let us love not in word or speech, but in deed and truth." – 1 John 3:18

FORMATION

Science: The Creator's Emerging Great Witness

For two generations, growing “belief in science” has been a leading cause of Christianity’s decline in Western culture. Nothing that would blunt the trend seems to be at hand. But one is emerging - science itself.

Remarkably coincident with this proliferating materialist worldview, evidence refuting it began inconspicuously appearing in Cosmology, Physics, Chemistry and Biology. The evidence quietly continued to accumulate. Today its breadth and depth are astounding.

Learn why the belief in a conflict between science and faith is, in Bishop Robert Barron’s words, “tragic nonsense.”

Join us for a four-week program presented by Bob Kanto on Wednesdays 7 - 8:15 p.m. starting May 8 in the Gathering Hall.

BOOK OF THE WEEK

ST. MARY MAGDALENE LIBRARY
LOCATED IN THE PARISH LIFE BUILDING

The week's recommended library title is "For Eden's Sake" by T.M. Gaouette. As a faithful Catholic, Isaac is a young man struggling to do the right thing in the face of an unplanned pregnancy. Full of ups and downs and a surprise ending, this one is a pro-life page turner!

Find this title in the church library or request it online at stmarymagdalene.library.site

Contact us at library@smmcc.org

St. Vincent de Paul

The food pantry is open on Mondays from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Brown Road House.

Food or assistance with utilities is available to Greenville County residents and all registered St. Mary Magdalene parishioners.

To schedule an appointment for assistance with utilities, call 864-537-4268 for English or 864-537-4274 for Spanish.

Let's End World Hunger

ONE BOX OF FOOD
AT A TIME

in partnership with
Servants with a Heart

Be Part of Something Big!

Our parish will sponsor a service day to pack 200,000 meals to feed the hungry.

Once again, we have partnered with Servants with a Heart, a non-profit organization in Waxhaw, NC. They will take care of ordering and delivering the goods, training our volunteers and shipping the completed pallets.

The cost for each meal is $0.19. It will cost $38,000 to provide 200,000 meals.

How will we do this?

We are appealing to the servant heart of our parishioners to offer monetary donations, knowing that our fruitful stewardship will let those who receive these meals be physically nourished and feel loved.

The meal packing event will be on Saturday, August 3. We will be asking you to volunteer to pack meals as we get close to the meal packing day, so save the date.

Each box of food is $40 and brings the food items needed to assemble many meals. We need 950 food box donations.

Last year, your gift of time and financial support allowed us to provide 150,000 meal kits for the poor in Nicaragua.

Please scan the QR code to donate a food box.

PARISH LIFE

It's a Joint Effort!

Join the International Festival Committee

It is hard to believe but we have to start the planning process for this year's International Festival which will be held Saturday, September 21, 2024. With the success of the past two years, the event has become not only a Parish celebration of St. Mary Magdalene's Cultural diversity, it has become a recognized "upstate" Fall event. With that recognition comes an increase in the responsibility and workload to have the Festival continue to be a success.

To that end, we are forming an "International Festival Committee" that will provide the leadership and momentum to put in place all that is needed for our Festival's continued success. We are looking for committed parishioners who would be willing to head up one for the following areas:

- Sponsorships
- Volunteers
- Cultural Program
- Programming/Day of Festival Agenda
- Food/Menu
- Kid Zone and Amusements
- Beer/Wine Tent
- Parking

We will have an organizational meeting of the International Festival Committee on Wednesday, May 8, at 6:30 p.m. in the PLB-106. You can let us know your interest in any of the above committee positions by sending an email to internationalfestival@smmcc.org or clicking the QR code. Please come and help make this event a shining beacon of Christ's light.

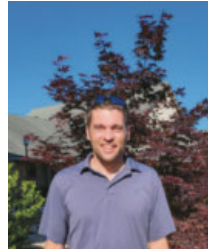

Want to Represent Your Country?

For those countries and organizations that want to participate in this year's Festival, we will have an organizational meeting on Wednesday, May 15, at 6:30 p.m. in the Gathering Hall.

Contact one of our Festival Coordinators – Olga Osorio, Kristin Johnson or Michael McGarry in the parish office at 864-288-4884 if you have any questions.

Meet the Newest Members of the St. Mary Magdalene Staff Family

Chris Grotke

Assistant Director/Facilities Engineer

Chris, his wife Carrie and two children moved from Virginia to SC in 2018 to be close to his parents.

He served in the Army for 12 years and is a retired Chief Warrant III. Prior to that, he served in the Air Force for 10 years. His military experience and schooling have given Chris the opportunity to serve in over 70 countries during his tenure. He has seen good and bad in his time in the military and said, "This job is a blessing. I want to grow in my faith." He is grateful and happy to be here at St. Mary Magdalene.

Chris enjoys woodworking, classic cars ... he has a collection of his own, and model railroading. Most of all, he enjoys family time and is looking forward to making up for lost time with his family.

Sandra Salazar

Custodian

Sandra and her daughter Alejandra moved to Greenville in 2023 after a short visit to Miami. She has an adult son, Juan, who lives in Colombia. She moved to the states in pursuit of better working conditions and a safe place to raise her family. A friend invited her to visit Greenville and she fell in love with the Upstate ... like many of us who have moved from other areas of the country. She found Greenville to be peaceful, with people who are friendly and happy and a place where she and her daughter can call home.

She has always been seen her church and the Catholic community as family, so St. Mary Magdalene seemed like a perfect fit to work and become part of the parish community.

She loves movies and spending time outdoors at the park with her daughter.

She hopes, once she is more settled, to take self-improvement classes.

Please join us in welcoming Chris and Sandra to St. Mary Magdalene.
