El Evangelio de hoy

Gloria al Padre, gloria al Hijo, y gloria al Espíritu Santo.
“Vayan, pues, y hagan que todos los pueblos sean mis discípulos. Bautícenlos en el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo, y enséñenles a cumplir todo lo que yo les he encomendado a ustedes” (Mateo 28 19-20). El misterio de Dios es la Santísima Trinidad y es el misterio central de la fe y de la vida cristiana. Todos estamos llamados a salvarnos y a conocer la verdad (1 Timoteo 2:4). La fe de todos los cristianos se cimenta en la Santísima Trinidad (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica número 232).

“Dios mío, Trinidad que adoro, ayúdame a olvidarme enteramente de mí mismo para establecerme en ti, inmóvil y apacible como si mi alma estuviera ya en la eternidad; que nada pueda turbar mi paz, ni hacerme salir de ti, mi inmutable, sino que cada minuto me lleve más lejos en la profundidad de tu Misterio. Pacífica mi alma. Haz de ella tu cielo, tu morada amada y el lugar de tu reposo. Que yo no te deje jamás solo en ella, sino que yo esté allí enteramente, totalmente despierta en mi fe, en adoración, entregada sin reservas a tu acción creadora” (Oración de Santa Isabel de la Trinidad.
Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica número 260). Nunca tratemos de descifrar el Misterio de la Trinidad, más bien dejemos llevar nuestra alma en la oración como Santa Isabel de la Trinidad. Ella fue una religiosa y mística francesa de la Orden de los Carmelitas Descalzos.

Live the Liturgy

We are children of God, and as His children God shares with us a magnificent inheritance: suffering that becomes glory, fear that becomes strength, death that becomes life. With this mighty gift in our hearts, let us go confidently into the world.

Vivir la liturgia

Somos hijos de Dios, y como Sus hijos Dios comparte con nosotros una herencia magnífica: el sufrimiento que se convierte en gloria, el miedo que se convierte en fortaleza, la muerte que se convierte en vida. Con este poderoso don en nuestros corazones, vayamos confiados al mundo.

Precious Things

I once wrote an article about a school that embraced the Reggio Emilia approach to education. This meant, in practice, a lot of fascinating things, and it was a fun piece to work on. But all these years later, I could not accurately describe the Reggio Emilia style of learning to anyone except to say this: they give the kids glass bowls and china plates.

That's what stuck with me, and that's what sticks out in my memory amidst the hundreds of intervening articles and interviews on other equally fascinating topics. I remember those glass bowls and cups lining the shelves, the fine china dishes, the beautiful shiny cutlery the children used for lunch.

This was a pre-school, and these students were three-year-olds. "If they drop a cup and it shatters, then they learn that glass can break. We clean it up," the teacher said with a shrug. The idea was that a child will never learn to handle a fragile, precious thing – and grow into an adult who can respect and cherish a fragile, precious thing – if they are not sincerely trusted with a precious thing whose fragility they bear personal witness to.

The breaking, you see, was part of the education.

The disciples worshiped, but they doubted. And yet, Christ gave them the Great Commission anyway, something fragile and important, something that could be easily dropped and easily broken. Christ knew who they were, what they were. They were mere human beings, deeply imperfect, scared and hesitant, a little slow on the uptake. He knows that's exactly what we are, too. But he gives us the Great Commission just as he gave it to them. Because that is what the Faith is: it is something perfectly beautiful, passed from one flawed person to another, throughout the ages – constantly dropped, constantly broken, and constantly, miraculously, pieced back together again.

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations." – Matthew 28:19-20

Young Adult Ministry

Are you between 18 and 35 and looking to grow in faith, build fellowship and find ways to serve? Then join us!

The Young Adult Ministry meets on Tuesdays at 7 p.m. in the church (parent's room).

1st Tuesday: Adoration
2nd–4th Tuesday: Mass

After Mass, we may have a book or Bible study, lively discussion and fellowship. We also have monthly social events.

Come and get to know us! Let us be part of your faith journey.

Sign up to receive communications from us at smmcc.flocknote.com/YoungAdults or contact us at youngadult@smmcc.org. Follow us on Instagram at smmccyoungadult.

This year's Summer Series study is Who Am I to Judge? with Dr. Edward Sri. An 8-week course that includes 30-minute videos and good discussion questions.

We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality—that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. Many of us have been affected by the relativistic outlook that pervades the modern world. We may be afraid of offending others or of being labeled intolerant. But how do we talk about morality in a relativistic world?

Join us on Wednesdays, starting June 19, at 6 p.m. in the Parish Life Building for a potluck and a lesson.

This course is for everyone. Middle school students (with a parent) and high school students are welcome.

The workbooks are $10, videos are free on formed.org.

Childcare will be provided for $5, collected at the door.

WalletWin Money Course

The Catholic Money Course is a complete and authentically Catholic course in personal finance. This on-demand video course can be completed by families and individuals at their own pace and in their own homes.

We will host a 9-week in-person course on Tuesdays at 9:30 a.m. in the Parish Life Building starting May 28.

The Catholic Money course will take you through the WalletWin Method's Four Financial Phases and Twelve Money Milestones, giving you not only a plan, but practical tools and encouragement to carry it out.

This free course is open to everyone. If you would like to participate in-person or online or have any questions, please email Kristin Johnson at Kristinj@smmcc.org.

If you would like to donate any extra produce to the food pantry, please call 864-537-4268 and leave us a message so we can arrange a time to meet. Please do not leave any produce in the Narthex.

Are You a Registered Member?

Why is it so important that we register in a parish?
Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong.

At times, young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish.

Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social, and ministerial activities of your parish.

Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers may determine how many priests are assigned to a church, what benefits and obligations the community has to the diocese, and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled.

Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes.

Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

Not Registered? Visit www.smmcc.org/register.
