El Evangelio de hoy

Ya es tiempo que nos demos cuenta que las enseñanzas de Dios, por medio de sus profetas y de su Hijo Jesús, son las que valen la pena. Los últimos domingos, el Evangelio nos muestra de diferentes maneras cómo Jesús es el Pan de Vida, y cómo podemos alcanzar grandes niveles de conocimiento en la fe y cómo vivir los valores auténticos del Evangelio. Sin embargo, la pregunta importante es la siguiente: ¿Qué podemos aprender de Dios y de sus enseñanzas en la época actual? ¿Qué significa para nosotros la Palabra de Dios? La respuesta es personal y amerita una reflexión profunda de parte de cada uno.

En la Eucaristía, Jesús se nos da como alimento; nos da la fuerza necesaria para continuar en el camino que aún nos queda por recorrer. Aprendamos a recibirla con respeto y veneración: “Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo. El que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre. El pan que yo daré es mi carne, y lo daré para la vida del mundo” (Juan 6:51). Pidamos al Espíritu Santo, que nos ayude a comprender la inmensidad del amor de Jesús al darse como alimento. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, en el numeral 1324, no enseña lo siguiente: “La Eucaristía es la fuente y la cima de toda la vida cristiana. Los demás sacramentos, como también todos los ministerios eclesiales y las obras de apostolado, están unidos a la Eucaristía y a ella se ordenan. La Sagrada Eucaristía, en efecto, contiene todo el bien espiritual de la Iglesia, es decir, Cristo mismo, nuestra Pascua”.

This yearly event provides us with an opportunity to reach people beyond our doors, to live out our vision, that is ... to bring people to Christ. We do this with smiles and hospitality.

It is also an opportunity for us to be beacons of Christ's light by cooperating with the mission of our church.

Happy people attract people. So let's be the happy people others will encounter.

Welcome to the Team!

We are excited to welcome the two newest members of our St. Mary Magdalene Staff.

Esther Moreno, our new Parish Accountant, is a Greenville native. She met her husband, Erick, while volunteering at her church where she plays the piano during service.

The commute to her previous job where she worked as a bookkeeper was long, so when this position became available, she knew it was the perfect place for her. Not only that it's local but she loves working for the church, especially here, where so many cultures come together to pray.

Esther speaks some Spanish and is learning all about Mexican cuisine from her mother-in-law.

She loves hiking in the mountains of North Carolina, volunteering, and of course, playing the piano.

Esther is very excited to be able to use her education and talents to serve our church.

María Espino has rejoined the Sacraments Office as Sacraments Coordinator. She first volunteered at our church and later worked in the Christian Formation and Sacraments Offices before moving to Colombia in 2013.

María and her husband, Juan, returned to the States to care for her mother as well as to be here for their son's final year of high school and to see him off to college. So, welcome back, María!

María is fluent in English and Spanish, she is organized and task-oriented and is a wonderful addition to the Sacraments Office.

She loves spending time with her family and loves serving the Lord by offering her talents in His service.

Please join us in giving Esther and María a warm welcome to St. Mary Magdalene.
