SPIRITUAL LIFE

El Evangelio de hoy

Estemos listos o no lo estemos, hemos llegado al Tiempo Ordinario. Se ha terminado la Navidad. Ahora, el Evangelio de cada domingo nos va ir presentando la imagen de Jesús en su vida pública. Jesús nos presenta el Reino de Dios con una fiesta, una boda. Y con esto cambia el sentido de lo puritano y se rompen algunos protocolos de la Ley. Las tinajas llenas de agua esperaban, sin saberlo, convertirse en el primer milagro de Jesús de transformar el agua en vino. La nota de alegría, de festejar y disfrutar es una noticia alegre. Jesús, nos muestra que, a pesar de lo duro de la vida, del sufrimiento y los fracasos, existe una esperanza. ¿Cómo podemos ponerle una chispa de alegría a nuestra fe? ¿Se te ocurre algo para disfrutar con Jesús en la fiesta de su Reino?

Asimismo, existe la otra enseñanza, la de María, la Madre de Jesús, que estuvo atenta en aquella fiesta y se dio cuenta que no había vino. Ella supo poner el problema en manos de Aquel que lo resolvería. Y dio la siguiente instrucción: “Hagan lo que él les diga” (Juan 2:5); e inmediatamente, desapareció totalmente de la escena, dejando en Jesús todo el protagonismo. ¿Qué debo aprender de María? Que ella nos lleva a Jesús y que cada vez que haga una buena acción, las personas le reconozcan a Él y yo desaparezca.

Do Whatever He Tells You

I once ran out of pizza at my kid's birthday party.

Everyone told me it wasn't a big deal but come on. It was a disaster. I had invited all these people over. They showed up with presents and sang "Happy Birthday" and stood around patiently while my kid ripped through his cache of gifts. The very least they were expecting was to be fed sufficiently.

I'll tell you what, I sure could have used the Blessed Mother that night.

I love the story of the wedding at Cana because it's such a silly little miracle. I don't mean to be disrespectful — of course it's an incredibly important moment in Christ's public life. But it's not healing a leper. It's not raising the dead. It's not even walking on water. It's saving a young couple from embarrassment.

I think sometimes we forget, or even refuse, to bring small concerns and inconveniences to God because we think we should be able to handle them on our own. What a ridiculous attitude that is — as if we could handle anything on our own. It's so fitting that Mary, ever the observant Mother, is the one to bring the matter to Jesus' attention. He asks her what this problem has to do with him. She doesn't answer him, because, between you and me, I don't think he's asking her. I think he's asking us. All she does is tell the waiters what I consider to be the best piece of advice in all of Scripture: "Do whatever he tells you."

I'm so quick to throw up my hands and feel sorry for myself when I encounter a barrier in my life. What I should be doing is taking the matter to God, and then doing whatever He tells me.

40 Days Fall Campaign Closing Comments

The Fall Campaign of 40 Days for Life ended November 3, 2024, with a total of 331 confirmed lives saved worldwide, 3 abortion workers converted and left their jobs, and 2 more facilities closed. But the battle is not over. Abortions continue when a heartbeat is not detected. Therefore, we still need prayer warriors to pray at the abortion facility. A baby was saved since the campaign ended because of the continued prayers and presence. Our prayers make a difference.

Please consider participating in 40 Days 365 so we can continue to have a presence at the facility, Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Visit www.40daysforlife.com/greenville and sign up. Thank you for your commitment to Life!

Welcome to the Team!

We are excited to introduce you to Chris Domyan, our new Director of Business Administration.

Chris, his wife Meighan, and their three girls (Anna, Chloe, and Grace) vacationed in the Carolinas for many summers and found the hospitality and friendly environment appealing.

The idea of moving South started to take shape as the girls grew up and moved away from their home in Pennsylvania. But it was when their youngest daughter graduated college and married, that they decided to finally make the move.

Chris holds degrees from DeSales University and Villanova University. He was the Director of Business Administration at a Catholic High School and served as Director of Financial Support Services for the Diocese of Allentown. He is truly a product of Catholic education.

"I was immediately interested when I learned that an opportunity became available at St. Mary Magdalene. When I interviewed with Fr. Theo and other committee members, I sensed a thriving environment and felt a call to serve here. Continuing my career in a place where the mission is to spread the Gospel, is all that I could ask for," says Chris.

Chris enjoys hiking, pickleball ... really, all sports. And as a true Pennsylvanian, yes, a Penn State fan.

Please join us in welcoming Chris to St. Mary Magdalene.
